Senior Citizens News

BY MRS. MAY L. BROADIE Our director, Mrs. Sandra G. Byrd, always reminds us of our duty to God and our fellowman and it makes us happy to be reminded of these things.

There will not be a meeting this week, but we are making big plans for next week. Won't you join us then?

And our director told us the promise of a Messiah was like good news from a far country. For God, the ruler of the Kingdom of righteousness gave to the people of the kingdom of this world the good news and came again and again through the prophets. His word became part of the Holy writ and they found contentment in the minds of the people. The Jesus who came is the Messiah promised and the world has promised Him now as it did then.

He has the capability of helping us, forgiving us, when we repent offering love to conquer our prejudices and hatreds, challenging us to add depth, breadth and height to life, renewing us when we become discouraged and weary in well-doing. In Him the love of God is meeting the need of man like cold water to the thirsty.

We have such good times in our meetings. Hurry to join us.

While here, they were the dinner guests of Mrs. Margaret W. Ransdell on Gilliam Lane.

WORTHWHILE "It is easy enough to be pleasant when life flows by like a song; but the person worthwhile is the person who will smile when everything goes dead wrong. For the test of the heart is trouble, and it always comes with the years, and the smile that is Mrs. BETHEA worth the praises of earth, the smile that shines through tears."

Most holy and merciful Father, we confess in Thy presence the sinfulness of our nature and our shortcomings and offenses against Thee. Thou ization will meet at the True Way Church of God in Christ Jesus on Lynch Street in Apex. The captain is Sister Ruby Scott. Sessions will be held from August 18-22.

There will be a dinner selling at the Apollo Heights Community Center, Saturday from 11 a.m. until 11 p.m. It is sponsored by the Apollo Heights Youth.

Until next week, here is our thought: "May the peoples of all nations rejoice in being the objects of God's pardoning love."

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever. The Shepherd has a table spread for His sheep as they reach the Father's house: John 14:1-3, It is in a word home. What a sweet and touching expression. This our Lord's idea of heaven. Christian are away from home, and are at school in this life in the life to come they will be at home. In the Father's house there will be room for all believers and room for all sorts, for little ones as well as the strongest, the feeblest child of God need not fear there will be no place for him. There is something very touching and comforting in the thought that the heaven we go to is our Father's house, it is home. How thrilling, and how warming to the heart to be assured that there is a home. There is something notably Christian about being concerned with those things that are outside of us, ecology, war, drugs, human rights. But while in Christian comparison we address ourselves to polluted air and streams, let us not abandon our polluted hearts and minds. The Psalmist did not. His plea was simple but significant create in me a clean heart. O God. Let us pray.

Help us Dear God, to control our appetites for the things we desire for ourselves and others, may we seek those things which will not disappear as the morning dew. Grant us, O God, increased ability to lead and inspire others for Thy name's sake. Keep us humble enough to be true followers for our own sakes make us sensitive to the many ways in which you choose to make yourself more real to us. Open our hearts by your divine spirit so we may hear you speaking to us in your word. Lord we have done the best we know how here we have fallen short we entrust to your mercy and care we pray. A-men.

GRACE AME ZION - Sunday School opened at 10 with the supt., Mrs. Ella Hinton, in charge. The topic of the lesson was "Family Conflict and Reconciliation," taken from Genesis 27:43-45 and 33:4-11. It emphasized that reconciliation calls for openness and willingness for honesty and forgiveness. The cause of conflict needs to be faced. Responsibility for conflict needs to be accepted. One must be willing to admit that he is at fault, that he has been unfair or unkind toward another, that he has committed injury or wrong against another. Thus there is basis for forgiveness and reconciliation. Let it be remembered that Jesus Christ is the great reconciler. The recognition of His presence, the willingness to accept His instruction, and the acceptance of His grace in forgiving our sins and short comings will heal the wounds of conflict and strife and restore harmony and oneness in the family.

The morning worship services began at 11 with Mr. Wayland Dunn, presiding. He read a portion of the 3rd chapter of Revelation, beginning with the 14th verse.

Before the sermon was delivered, "Just A Little Talk With Jesus" was sung.

The pastor, the Rev. I. L. Wilson, chose his text from the 14th chapter of St. John. His subject was, "Peace on the Inside or Peace Within." Some points brought out by Rev. Wilson were these: Peace is not something that comes automatically, but comes from God on high. Peace should be in our hearts always. God gives us peace. Christ came to bring quietness and peace to our souls. It was a beautiful and soul-stirring sermon.

Mrs. Josephine Umphrey Jones is church reporter.

The choir sang beautifully as always, under our minister of music, Mr. William Vandergriff. The songs that they rendered were Be Still My Soul, I Love Thy Kingdom Lord, Whosoever Heareth, In the Garden, Evertime I Feel the Spirit, Amazing Grace and How Did You Feel?

Mr. Joe Hinton, a faithful and dedicated member of the church, prayed a very honest prayer for the consecration period.

Rev. J. L. Hicks preached in Rev. L. P. Perry's place, while he is on vacation. His sermon was entitled "God's Message To the Church." He stated that God had a message to the churches of Asia Minor and also for the churches of Raleigh. He further stated that we tend to go where wind blows the hardest or we follow the majority. We do not take a firm stand on any worthwhile thing. We need to unite for the cause. God. There is power in unity and accomplishing goals. His sermon conveyed a beautiful message for all.

We were invited to attend the 26th anniversary of the Raleigh Community Club at the Raleigh Safety and Community Club sermon. It was entitled "Why I Know There Is A God." His sermon was presented in a most thought-provoking manner and was dynamically expressed. The congregation was spiritually fed.

Sunday at 8 p. m., we were honored and very happy to have the mighty dynamic Golden Bells, along with the Pilgrim Travelers of Zebulon. As you know the Golden Bells are famous recording stars of Raleigh and throughout the nation. We had a large audience and they enjoyed the groups tremendously. It was a big success.

Your professional hairdresser knows the answer...

Was haircoloring first done in Africa?

Centuries ago in Africa (before it was explored by Europeans) beautiful black women used herbs and other ingredients to change the color of their hair. It was one way to complement their dark rich complexions... to accent their natural warmth and beauty. Whether or not Africans were the first to use this method, no one is sure. Yet, they are among the first in terms of recorded history to go through the then-tedious process of coloring their hair.

Today changing your haircolor can be as quick and as brief as a visit to your professional hairdresser. That's because many professional hairdressers use Miss Clairol® Hair Color to lighten hair, to make slight color changes and to cover gray. Hairdressing experts know that exotic blacks and browns are generally gorgeous for darker skin tones. Golden or red shades are stunning for lighter tan complexions.

Today black pride brings you closer to the cultural ways of your African heritage. Haircoloring is a part of black history too. Ask your professional hairdresser about changing your hair color with Miss Clairol... and be more beautiful than you already are.
