SMITH TEMPLE FREEWILL BAPTIST-Sunday School began at 10 with the Supt., Deacon Julius Young in charge. At 11, the call to worship and the pastoral prayer were given by Rev. Sanders. The chorus was in charge of the music, under the direction of Mrs. F. Smith and Mrs. M. Person. The chorus sang so beautifully the hymn "Leaning On The Everlasting Arms". The scripture was read from Exodus 31:8-18. The invocation was given by Deacon Baker; the chorus sang, "Love Lifted Me." The Mission Offering was blessed by Rev. Sanders.

Announcement and recognition of visitors were made by Miss Joan Moore. The chorus sang a spiritual, "The Only Way To Make It In."
From the above read chapter, verse 18, theme: "Show Me Thou Glow," Rev. Alford delivered a soul-stirring message. The invitational hymn was "I Just Can't Keep It To My Self Alone."

Medical Student Weds Law Student In Winston

WINSTON-SALEM - Miss Virginia Deanne Newell was wed to Mr. Paul Dwayne Payne at 4:00 p.m. Saturday, September 4, at First Baptist Church on Highland Avenue in Winston-Salem. The Reverend Howard Cunningham, Raleigh, performed the double-ring ceremony.

The former Miss Newell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Newell of Winston-Salem, is a second year medical student at Case Western Reserve University in Cleveland, Ohio. Mr. Payne is Dean of Men at Winston-Salem State University.

daughter's wedding, a formal gown of moss green chantilly lace and silk satin with high neck and full camelot sleeves beaded in amber, gold and iridescents. Moss green velvet ribbon tied the waist line and she wore a matching hat and carried a small moss green bag.

The maid and matron of honor, Miss Glenda Newell, the bride's sister, and Mrs. Jessica Watson of Hyattsville, Maryland wore formal gowns of yellow crepe with beaded motifs of yellow satin ribbon on the skirts. Their head pieces matched their gowns. The bridesmaids; Mrs. Trina Garrett of Cleveland, Ohio, Mrs. Linda Wilson of Oxenhill, Maryland, Miss Amelie Oubre of New York City, Miss Lloydine Perry of Washington, D.C. and Miss Rosalind White of Gary, Indiana wore identical gowns. The flower girl, Miss Lynn Kimbrough of San Francisco, cousin of the bride wore a gown matching the bridesmaids. They carried a bouquet of white and yellow daisies. Master Eric Kimbrough of San Francisco, cousin of the bride carried a rined satin pillow.

The bride's gown was her debutante dress, designed and made by Mrs. Willie Otey Kay of Raleigh, a famous fashion designer. It was a gown of candlelight silk peau de soire, featured a bodice with high duchess neck line and long fitted sleeves trimmed in appliques of re-embroidered alencon lace beaded in seed pearls and iridescent sequins. The skirt front as well as the cathedral court train which fell from the shoulders repeated the motifs of beaded lace. Her full length veil of French illusion was attached to a matching head piece. She carried a cascaded bouquet of white and yellow daisies.

The best man was Mr. Payne's brother, Hal Payne, of Cleveland. The ushers were Mr. Reginald Garrett of Cleveland, Ohio, Mr. Harold Watson, Hyattsville, Maryland, Mr. Lawrence Young of Oxford, Ohio, Mr. Ronald Butcher of Baltimore, Maryland, Mr. Michael Wilson of Oxenhill, Maryland and Mr. Edward Johnson of Cincinnati, Ohio.

Miss Newell is a graduate of Western College in Oxford, Ohio and a member of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority and Mr. Payne is a graduate of Miami University in Oxford, Ohio.

Other out-of-town guests attending included Mr. and Mrs. Paul D. Payne Senior, parents of the groom, Mrs. Howard Cunningham, Raleigh; Mrs. Martha Wheeler, Raleigh; Dr. and Mrs. David Bishop, Raleigh; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Brown, Raleigh; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Gohs, Raleigh; Misses Wanda and Carol Gohs, Raleigh; Dr. and Mrs. L.S. Kimbrough, San Francisco, California; Miss Vivian Irving, Raleigh; Miss Carlotta Haywood, Laurinburg; Mrs. Willie Otey Kay, Raleigh; Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Laws, Raleigh; Dr. and Mrs. Harry Richardson, Atlanta, Georgia; Mr. and Mrs. Sammie Mills, Hendersonville; Dr. Virginia Mjobongo, Nashville, Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Shipp, Washington, D.C.; Mrs. Dora Otey, Raleigh; Mr. and Mrs. J.J. BY REV. DONALD HOOKER
ASBURY - Sunday School opened at 9:45 by singing "There Is A Fountain Filled With Blood" after which prayer was in concert by the school. For our second selection, we sang "The Old Rugged Cross". The subject of the lesson was "God Transcends Our Understanding", taken from Exodus 33:19-20, Isaiah 48:26, Romans 11:33-36. The Banner class and attendance were by class No. 2 taught by Asst. Supt. Mr. Melvin Hooker. The review of the lesson was also given by Mr. Hooker.
Morning service was opened by our Pastor, Rev. I. J. Irvin. We opened at 11 o'clock by singing "There Is A Fountain Filled With Blood", after which we had altar call and was led in prayer by Bro. Melvin Jones. For our second hymn we sang "Are Ye Able?" The sermon was "God Remembers When Others Forget", taken from I Samuel 15:2. Our candidates for baptism were Betty Cotton, Michelle Shaw, Clarice Wright, Brenda Pennington, Lisa Pennington, and Charlie Lunda.
Celebrating birthdays for Sept., are Larry Evans, Willie Shaw, David Evans, Nadie Mae Hooker, Mr. Willie McKnight, Cathy Evans, Clea Smith and Clarice Perry.
