ATTEND FAMILY REUNION
Mrs. Fiorena Hunter of 1206 E. Hargett St., and Mrs. Pinkie Hall, 809 E. Martin St., visited a family reunion for 2 days, which they enjoyed immensely with nieces and nephews. They also visited Mt. Olivett Baptist Church in Haddonfield, N. J. Rev. J. B. Dicks is pastor. He is the nephew of Mrs. Hunter and lives in Cherry Hill, N.J.
They also had the pleasure of meeting Cassius Clay the boxer; his mother and beautiful twin daughters on his lawn, with a modern fence around it.

PATIENT AT HOSPITAL

Following Sunday School at St. Augusta Freewill Baptist Church, morning worship services began at 11. The pastor is Rev. J. M. Jackson. Music was rendered by the Young Adult choir accompanied by Mr. Bobby Kimble. Rev. Jackson delivered the message.

At 3 p.m., Rev. Jackson, along with the Gospel chorus of St. Augusta rendered services at Rogers Chapel Church. The Gospel Chorus of First Baptist, and the Gospel chorus of St. Augusta, along with the Happyland Gospel Singers, appeared on the anniversary of the Gospel chorus of Douglas Chapel Church, Holly Springs, Sunday at 2 p.m., along with other groups.

At 7 p.m., the Golden Circle of First Baptist Church celebrated its 18th anniversary. The Gospel chorus rendered music. The guest speaker was Rev.

B. L. Rick of Friendship Baptist church of Fayetteville. He used as his subject, "To Be Remembered By The Things You Do." It was a wonderful message. The members of the Golden Circle wish to thank everyone who participated in making this anniversary a great success.

BY MRS. WYNELLA MOORE LOUISBURG - Happy Birthday to little Miss S. Perry, She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Perry of Route 2, Franklinton.

The Perry Seminary Mission-

Charley Pride, Bob Hope Among Top Stars Coming To 104th State

Bob Hope will be in Dorton Arena during the opening night of the 104th North Carolina State Fair, Friday, October 15, but he is only one of a dozen top names on the most attractive entertainment program ever offered during the annual event.

Following Hope, one of America's best known entertainers for the past several decades, are such standouts as Roy Clark of the Hee-Haw Show, county and western great Charley Pride; Paul Revere and the Raiders; Stars of the Lawrence Welk Show; Ray Price and Jody Miller, Des O'Connor and Margaret Whiting.

On Saturday, October 16, laughable Archie Campbell, another star of Hee Haw Show and the Sound Generation singers of John Brown University will join Roy Clark, while Johnny Duncan and Alex Houston and Elmer accompany Charlie Pride in a big Shindig Show, Monday, October 18.

Revere and the Raiders will be on hand, Wednesday, Oct. 20, while the following night the Stars of the Welk Show will include Sandi and Salli. Guy and Raina, Bobby Burgess and Cissy King, Clay Hart and Gail Farrell.

George Hamilton IV is being sought to join Ray Price and Jody Miller for the Friday night performance, October 22 and O'Connor, star of the Kraft Music Hall this summer, and Margaret Whiting will be together on losing night.

All shows will be at 7:30 p.m., and will be priced at $3 and $4 except the Bob Hope Show, $4 and $5. Tickets purchased in advance, either at the Fairgrounds ticket office or by mail to the State Fair, P. O. Box 5565, Raleigh, 27607, between September 14 and Oct. 14, will include free admission to the grounds during the day of that particular story.

Fuquay

BY MRS. LOUISE CEASAR FUQUAY-VARINA - Sunday School was held, as usual, at all local churches with the superintendents in charge of the devotions.

First Baptist opened its Sunday school at 10 with the supt., Mr. Alford Thorpe, presiding.

The scripture and prayer were given by the supt. The subject of the lesson was "God transcends Our Understanding", from Exodus, I-salah, and Romans. Memory selection: "O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments and his ways past finding out," Romans 11:33.
