

DEAR SALLY

DEAR SALLY
BY SALLY SHAW
DEAR SALLY: My husband and I gave our first-ever cocktail party last weekend, and to our utter surprise and horror, his maiden aunt (an otherwise dignified and strait-laced lady) became plastered. When I attempted to reason with her and suggest that she go into our bedroom and lie down, she became furious and denied loudly that she had drunk too much. Then she fell down and passed out, and my husband drove her home, carried her into her house, and left her on her bed. Today I received a curt note from her accusing me of humiliating her in front of the other guests and telling me she would never forgive me. How can I patch this up? MARGO.

DEAR MARGO: Her note was an attempt to put YOU on the defensive, and apparently she has succeeded. Don't let her know this. She already knows where the guilt lies. Just wait and hope that in time she will admit this to herself and apologize to you.

able to "sit" for a week! As for being paid for sitting in one's home.....think now, isn't that somewhat on the silly side? ***

DEAR SALLY: I'm a girl of 23 and have been seeing a lot of an older man of 38. He is a successful commercial photographer and is now separated from his third wife with a divorce in the offing. I have been waiting now for almost a year for the decree to come through, so that we can be seen together in public places--but for some reason the divorce hasn't yet materialized. I am modeling for this man, and our constant "business association," along with out clandestine dating, is getting me down. Please advise me, POSER.

DEAR POSER: You don't have to be a photographer to get the picture here. This is a married man you're involved with! That should be enough to make you steer clear of him --but added to that is the fact that he's a three-time loser, which doesn't promise much in the way of solid future relationship with you.

DEAR SALLY: I'm a boy or 13 and have a little brother of 5 and a big sister of 15. My sister goes out on sitting jobs and gets paid 50 cents an hour. What bugs me is that while she's on these sitting jobs and getting money for them, I have to stay home with my little brother, which I call "sitting," and which I never get paid a penny for doing. I've screamed and yelled at my parents to give me what I deserve, but I am still getting nothing. What do you think about this? NO DOUGH.

DEAR NO DOUGH: If your parents gave you what you really deserve for screaming and yelling at them, you wouldn't be

DEAR SALLY: Just what is the "in" type of wedding ring today? I'm soon to be married, and some of my girl friends claim that the diamond and jewel encrusted wedding ring is the most popular style for today's bride. RING-AROUND.

DEAR RING-AROUND: This is not a matter of fashion, but of personal taste. The wedding ring is supposed to be a symbol, not an ornament. Personally, I like the plain narrow band of gold or platinum which, if you're intending to do your own housework, is most practical..it never has to be taken off, cleaned, or repaired.

SOLVE-A-CRIME

BY A. C. GORDON

YOU ARE THE DETECTIVE

A new mob has moved into your territory and begun its nefarious operations. Although the mob is a large one, you have learned that the four men who control it are George Freese, Carl Stevens, Manny Metz, and Ted Conley, one of these men being an alien illegally in the country.

Further investigation has uncovered the following information:

(1) Recently in an out-of-way tavern Manny Metz, under the influence of a number of drinks, had boasted that he and the mob's leader, popularly known as Mr. Big, had been responsible for the untimely death of the well-known reform leader, Sam Bardwell, whose murder is as yet unsolved.

(2) When George Freese heard this, he became enraged and told the member of these four who served as mob treasurer to inform Mr. Big that Metz was doing too much talking.

(3) A priest of Freese's reaction, Metz laughed and told Ted Conley that Mr. Big wouldn't be bothered, that in fact Mr. Big was probably pretty proud of the job himself.

(4) The alien is opposed to the mob's recent plans to branch out their operations to some of the neighboring towns. Mr. Big, the treasurer, and Freese, however, have been insistent, maintaining that "business" has been good enough for expansion of activities.

Now, from this information can you identify the leader, the treasurer, and the alien?

SOLUTION
Manny Metz is not the leader, Mr. Big (1), nor is he the treasurer (2). George Freese is neither leader nor treasurer (2). Ted Conley is not the leader (3). Hence, the leader or Mr. Big is Carl Stevens. Since the leader is not the treasurer, we can see in (3) that Ted Conley is the treasurer. Finally, since neither the leader (Stevens), the treasurer (Conley), nor Freese (4) is the alien, he is Manny Metz.

And the victory that day was turned into mourning unto all the people; for the people heard said that day how the king was grieved for his son.

THE BREAKFAST PIE

Meat for dessert? Pie for breakfast? Why not? New Englanders often served apple pie with pork for breakfast. They needed a hearty, yet tasty meal to start the day.

Friers Apple Pie is hearty enough for breakfast, rich enough for dessert. Plump pork sausage links are combined with spicy apples and a crunchy sugar, cheese & crumb topping. This one is easy to make, too, says Ellen Edwards, home economist, because the recipe calls for ready-prepared foods like pie crust mix and apple pie filling.

Friers Apple Pie
1 package (1 lb.) Oscar Mayer Little Friers Pork Sausage links
1 package (11 oz.) pie crust mix (2 crust)
1 can (1 lb. 4 oz.) apple pie filling
1 cup (4 oz.) shredded process American cheese
1/2 cup firmly packed brown sugar

Preheat oven to 400°. Cook Little Friers according to package directions; drain on absorbent paper. Meanwhile, use one-half package pie crust mix to prepare single pastry for 9-inch pie pan. Line pan with pastry; flute edge and prick bottom and sides with fork. Bake 8 minutes. Remove from oven and reduce heat to 375°. Pour pie filling into partially baked shell; arrange cooked Little Friers, spoke-fashion, on pie filling; sprinkle with shredded cheese. For topping, combine brown sugar with remaining half of pie crust mix; sprinkle over pie. Return to oven and bake 25-35 minutes, or until crust is golden brown. Serve warm. Makes 6 servings.

The Veteran's Corner

EDITOR'S NOTE: Below are authoritative answers by the Veterans Administration to some of the many current questions from former servicemen and their families. Further information on veterans benefits may be obtained at any VA office or your local veterans service organization representative.

Q -- I plan to travel this summer and will not have a mailing address to receive my compensation check. What can I do about this?

A -- VA will send your check to your bank for deposit if you submit a VA change of address form or a letter over your signature. You should also obtain two power of attorney forms from VA, one to give your bank as evidence of its rights to receive and deposit the checks to your account, and the other to be retained by you.

Q -- I hear that I won't get any dividends if I convert my term GI insurance to a Modified Life Plan. Is that true?

A -- Not true. At present, dividends are being paid on Modified Life policies. They would be smaller than on your present policy, but this should not influence your decision too much. Compare the premium rate for a Modified Life policy at your present age with the rate for a term policy at ages above 50. VA Pamphlet 29-22, which provides comparative details, is available at any VA office or by writing VA.

Q -- I submitted an application to VA for dental treatment. Since I live 150 miles from the nearest VA clinic, I'm wondering if I will be required to go there for treatment?

A -- No. VA will send you an authorization plus examination papers. Have your dentist complete the examination papers and return them to VA. After VA reviews the examination papers, you will receive additional authority for treatment. You should not make any appointments or have any treatment until you receive this authority from VA.

And the people get them by stealth that day into the city, as people being ashamed steal away when they flee in battle.

Continuing Discrimination Is Reported

WASHINGTON, D. C. -- The troubling spectre of job discrimination against minorities and women in America pervades the latest employment statistics released by the U. S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC).

The data were compiled by EEOC's Office of Research from reports submitted to the Commission by private industry employers with 100 or more employees. They show that in the period 1966-1970, minority group workers - Negroes, Spanish Surnamed Americans, Orientals, American Indians - and women, in general, were still largely underrepresented in the highest-paying jobs of private industry.

The rates at which minority workers participate in this country's lucrative, high-level jobs are extremely low when compared with rates for the American population as a whole.
