ACCUSES HUSBAND

Mrs. Mary Caney Howard, 26, 1210 Walnut Street, informed Officers D.W. Martin and O. T. Wester at 10:20 a.m. last Friday, that her husband, Frank Howard, 111, 33, same address, came home and beat her with his hands and fists. The cops advised the woman to sign an assault on a female warrant against her mate. She suffered multiple bruises.

STABBED IN STOMACH

James Thomas Woodard, 27, 317 S. East Street, reported to Officer L.T. Liggins at 2:51 a.m. Friday that he walked out of his house and was hit with a stick by an unknown person. He lost consciousness and was taken to Wake Memorial Hospital, where it was discovered that he had been stabbed in the stomach. He stated that earlier in the night, he had an argument with an unknown person. It was found that Miss Brenda Mc Coy of 317 S. East St., knew the person with whom Mr. Woodard argued and it is believed that the same person he argued with, stabbed him. Woodard also was cut on the face and head.

ATTACKED AT HOME

Eddie Lee, Jr., 40, 1100 S. State Street, told Officer F.L. Rountree at 4:30 a.m. Sunday, that he was in bed when someone came to the door and knocked. Lee said when he opened the door, someone struck him in the face, knocking him down, then kicked him. As the subject left the scene, he grabbed a single barrel shotgun from behind the door. An assault warrant was advised.

ATTACKED BY HUSBAND

Mrs. Hattie Mae Hopkins, 30, 410 S. Swain Street, informed Officer H. L. Rusing at 7:38 p.m. Thursday, that her husband, LaMonte Sherman Hopkins, 23, came home at 8:15 the night before drunk. The woman said they got into an argument, which resulted in her getting cut. She told the cop that she was going to sign an assault with a deadly weapon warrant against her husband. Mrs. Hopkins was cut on the upper left arm.

THREATENS, CUTS WOMAN

Miss Edna Earl Stone, 25, 520 S. Swain Street, reported to Officer Rudolph F. Perry at 2:25 p.m. Thursday, that Charles Jones, 18, address unknown, came to her house and threatened her with a knife. She said she was cut on the left hand. The officer was unable to locate the suspect. She said young Jones was wearing olive green pants and a brown shirt.

STRUCK IN EYE

Miss Patricia Ann Denning, 1613 Burgundy Street, Apartment 2, told Officers J.W. Howard and P. D. Siback at 9:16 p.m. Saturday, that a friend and a subject named David Elliot, 24, address unknown, were arguing, and she attempted to stop them from "fussing," and Elliott then struck her in the left eye with his fist. Miss Denning said she would sign an assault on a female warrant against the man when she finds out his address. The incident occurred at 1917 Pender Street.

TWO ARGUE, ONE CUT

John Jenkins, 39, 515 S. East Street, informed Officer Ralph Clayborne at 7:53 p.m. Saturday, that he was assaulted in the 300 block of E. Cabarrus Street by John Tyree, 49, address unknown, during an argument. Mr. Jenkins was treated and released at Wake Memorial Hospital for a three inch cut on the left arm. He stated he would sign an assault with a deadly weapon warrant against Mr. Tyree.

ANOTHER KNIFE USED

Willie Smith, 56, 1435 Carnegie Drive, reported to Officer W.C. Hinton at 8:55 p.m. Saturday, that Jimmy Badgett, Rt. 3, Raleigh, was mad with an unknown subject and that Badgett was going toward this subject when Mr. Smith stepped between them to try to prevent the fight. However, Smith was cut on the left side of his chest by the knife held by Badgett. Smith said that Badgett "is my friend and I will not sign a warrant against him, because the cut was accidental."

FOOLS WOULD-BE ROBBER

Thomas Eugene Powell, 18, 1304 E. Edenton Street, told Officer W.B. Holland at 3:02 p.m. Friday, that he was getting out of a car in the 700 block of E. Davie Street when someone stuck a gun in his back and said, "Give it up, everything you have." Powell said he turned around and grabbed the gun and wrestled with the man. He also said the man then hit him in the back of the head and "spilt the scene" towards "The Bottom." Powell identified the subject as Keith Johnson, 717 E. Davie Street. Lionel Jackson, 1212 Walnut Street, was listed as a witness. Young Powell suffered a laceration on the rear of his head.

ASSAULTS FEMALE

Miss Jo Ann Brown, 20, 324 W. South Street, informed Officer A.C. Munday at 4:35 p.m. Friday, that she was at her cousin's house (206 Dorothea Drive), and Oma Hunt, Jr., 31, came by and asked her to go with him to his house. The woman said that when she got to Hunt's house, she went inside and he hit her in the face, then choked her "and accused me of going out with someone else." The officer's report ends thusly: "The complainant stated she broke aloose and ran." Miss Brown suffered bruises about the face and head. Hunt was "hauled off" to Wake County Jail on an assault and battery rap.

WOULDN'T 'BUY' GIRL

Donald Makepeace Albright, white resident of 2618 Poole Road, told a cop at 4:31 p.m. Friday, that he was walking west on W. South Street and a Negro male approached him at about 2:30 a.m. that day and asked him if he "wanted to buy a girl." Albright said he replied in the negative and the man then hit him and knocked him to the ground. He declared he was then kicked by the subject. He suffered a cut lip, rib bruises, and his left eye was bruised.

REFUSED TO LEAVE

William Henry Burwell, 50, 2805 Hasty Street, reported to a cop at 8:30 p.m. Friday, that he was at his apartment house, painting in the basement apartment when Rufus Hockaday, 28, 652 Coleman St., came in and told Miss Jewelene Southerland to leave the apartment and told her that he (Mr. Burwell), didn't want her painting for him. Miss Southerland informed Hockaday that she was not leaving and said she was going to help Burwell paint the apartment. Mr. Burwell and Miss Southerland told Hockaday to leave, but, instead Hockaday proceeded to knock Burwell down and stomp him about the head and face. Burwell was taken to Wake Memorial Hospital, where he was treated. Hockaday was later arrested at the intersection of Smithfield and S. Blount Streets.

ASSAULTED BY WOMAN

John Arthur Sanders, 48, Dorothea Drive, informed an officer at 1:03 a.m. Saturday, that Miss Mary Elizabeth Medina, 17, 507 Dorothea Drive, and himself were arguing when "she pulled a knife and stabbed me." Sanders said he did not know where the knife "went" after he was stabbed. He exhibited a stab wound in the upper left chest. The stabbing took place in the 1300 block of Branch Street.

CUT ON NOSE

Larry Ellis, 24, 1202 Gating Street, told Officer Robert Jones at 11:48 a.m. Friday, that he was at 1325 Raleigh Boulevard at the apartment of a friend when Raymond Earl Hicks, 16, 1429 Raleigh Boulevard, came to the front door and asked to speak to Ellis. Hicks is said to have asked Ellis for a dollar and when he was refused, he struck Mr. Ellis across the nose with his hands and fists. Ellis, who suffered a cut on the right side of his nose, said he would sign an assault and battery warrant against young Hicks.

STABBED UNDER LUNG

Walter Bridges, Jr., 33, 408 Alston Street, reported to an officer at 1:05 p.m. last Tuesday, that he had an argument with someone and that "someone" stabbed him with some type of sharp object. Bridges said he did not know "where I was or who it was that stabbed me." He further stated that "if I knew who it was, I still wouldn't sign a warrant." He exhibited a stab wound under his left lung.

DAMAGES WOMAN'S APARTMENT

Mrs. Valerie Ann Toney, 1359 Walnut Street, informed Officer C.W. Hair at 2:35 a.m. Tuesday, that Samuel D. Garner, 33, Oklahoma City, Okla., came into her apartment and started a fight with her. She said he broke two lamps and tore a hole in the screen door. The woman said Garner "had been staying with me for two days." She refused to sign a damage to property warrant against him.

JAILED OVER TWO CENTS

Officer Phil Elbert Braswell, a part-time employee of J.C. Penny's, Inc., 100 North Hills Mall, reported at 7 p.m. last Thursday, that he was on duty at the store when Miss Ann Jacqueline Jackson, 20, address unlisted, picked up two pieces of once cent candy and left the store without paying for them. The cop also said the woman left the store by "going through the mall." At this time, I stopped her and placed her under arrest for larceny. Miss Jackson never made any attempt to pay for the candy."

BITES OFF EAR

Miss Rosa Lee Smith, 52, 308 S. Swain Street, reported to Officer H.L. Rusing at 4:47 p.m. last Wednesday, that she and her sister, Miss Ruby Smith, 50, same address, got into an argument, which resulted in Miss Ruby Smith biting off the left ear of her older sister. Miss Rosa Smith's ear was sewn back on by a physician at Wake Memorial Hospital. The woman said she would not sign a warrant against her sister.

Mrs. Logan Woman's Orator Here

BY MRS. A.M. THORPE

Mrs. Hazel Logan, a member of the Martin Street Baptist Church, was the featured speaker on the Woman's Day program September 26th at the 11 a.m. services at Rush Metropolitan AMEZ Church. Logan captivated her audience and held it spellbound as she talked from the subject: "Women in the Vanguard Yesterday and Today." She so beautifully federated such women as Deborah, Phyllis and Mahalia Jackson as they worked and labored in their vanguards in their times and plans, with emphasis on Better-Womanhood. Her address was inspirational as well as educational. Certainly the women of this day should feel proud of such true women as Mrs. Logan and to her we say many, many thanks.

Mrs. Helen Mitchell was chairman of the program committee. Rev. T.H. Harris is pastor.
