"LITTLE MORE"
I recall that kind old grocer, when the sugar he would pour, how he would tip the scales to balance, then he'd add a little more. And his business how it prospered, folks were always at his store; For he gave an honest measure, and then he'd add a little more.

The party was given to them by their sister-in-law, Mrs. Teresa Hopkins.
We join the friends and relatives also, in saying, Happy birthday.
HOSTESS TO MISSIONARY GROUP

Mrs. Amie Avery of 10 Chavis Way, was hostess recently to the Pauline Fellowship Missionary Group of the First Congregational United Church. A very inspirational devotion was conducted and enjoyed by all. Following the business of the day, a delicious repast was served. Members present were Mesdames Claude Peoples, Josephine Bryant, Bessie Mae Stroud, Laura McClean. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Bessie Mae Stroud in Madonia Acres.

PATIENT AT WAKE MEMORIAL
Friends of Mrs. Hattie Peterson of 42 Watson Street will be sorry to know that she is a patient at Wake Memorial Hospital. May we wish for her a speedy recovery and say to her that God is still on the Throne and will take good care of His own.

So it is with Life, my brother-Happiness would be our score; When we've done what is expected-If we'd add a little more."

Many friends and relatives were there to help make the honoree's birthday a happy, many lovely and useful gifts were received. Their birthdays were respectively, Mr. Seberry's on Sept. 25th and Mr. Tuck's on Sept. 29th.

PETE'S PICKINS

BY W. A. "PETE" WILDER

Manly St. United Church of Christ rolls out the red carpet to all the men of this city Sunday morning and Sunday night in an unprecedented Men's Day effort. The interdenominational Men's choir with upwards of forty voices, will offer the music at both services with Mr. O. L. Taylor at the console. The choir gained popularity from its first appearance at the Manly St. observance, and has been in demand for services near and far.

The Rev. D. A. Peace, recently installed pastor, is scheduled to preach at the morning hour. The pastor has won many friends since coming to our city.

Those who would come are urged to be present and on time so that they may secure comfortable seating in the main auditorium. Soloists from all over town will be in abundance. "Little Mel" Privette will most likely be the soloist for the morning.

At the evening hour, Father Clyde E. Beatty, Chaplain at St. Augustine's College will be the guest speaker. Father Beatty has endeared himself to both school. His following, his experience and his pastorate have left him with the common touch. Having spoken at Manly St. during the "Get Acquainted week, and having been especially well received, the planning committee quickly settled on him for the evening hour and he graciously consented to be present.

Mrs. Gladys Williams, the mother of Mrs. Eunice W. Whitley, 616 E. Cabarrus St. continues on the sick and shut in list. Hurry home Gladys. Things are looking fine over there. Mrs. Florence Sanders, Delany Drive, is doing nicely at this time. She has become a telephone lover. Call her sometime. Mr. Joe Kearney, 521 S. Haywood St., continues on the shut in list. The family always welcomes his many many friends.

I saw Jim "Fuzzy" Williams last week and he chewed me up because I didn't say anything at anytime about the old North Carolina Tar Heels Baseball club. He promised to bring me up to date on it and I'll pass it on to you as soon as I am briefed. I knew some of the old players like John Dolly, Ed Capehart, Pickle Perry etc., and please add Richie Horton, Eulace Arrington, and Rocky Ellis. Jim is going to bring me up to date next week, and we'll close out baseball with the World Series.

The Volunteers Club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whitley, 616 E. Cabarrus St. last Tuesday night. A real lovely business session was held, and a sumptuous repast followed. Among those present were Mesdames Eunice Whitley, Brunhilda Lofton, Carrie Sanders, and Messrs. D. Lorenzo Sanders, W. A. Wilder, and V. R. Leach. The Volunteers meet next week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kato Sanders, East Martin St.

The R. H. Toole Memorial choir of St. Paul AME Church showed its poise recently. How superbly did they stand in and respond to the wishes of the senior choir on its anniversary. I was reminded of the words of Jesus, concerning John the Baptist. "Of all men born of women there has not arisen one greater than John." When I read it I marvelled, and so I marvelled recently. Such a spirit the Toole choir showed. Deacon Frank Blalock, Smithfield St., continues on the sick and shut in list. His many friends are really thinking of him. Mr. Arthur "Lebelly" Jones, former Raleigh Gray's star shortstop, seems to be improving nicely. He would appreciate some of his old teammates. He is now recuperating at the home of his mother Mrs. Florida Jones, S. Bondary St. Mrs. Esther "Mrs. Sunshine" Michaels continues to improve at her home, S. Haywood St. here.

I had a chat with Mrs. "Ketty" Sullivan in her new home on Friar Tuck Road. It was really a treat to talk with her and to see her mother, Mrs. Covington. Really Ketty brought back some memories when she told me that "Mule" Sullivan the old Mary Potter star had passed. "Mule" had been a most important figure when Washington High won its first football championship under coach Harold Harrison. "Mule" was a rookie my last year in high school.

As she continued to talk she told me of the recent passing of "Mose" Ellis. "Mose" was a big 200 lb. plus, six feet-four - right hander, a flame thrower for Johnson C. Smith in the last of the 20s. He was a member of the club which had "Baby Boy" McDowell at third.

Lindsey Tucker at the kerosene, with Wiley Williams at first, Jack Martin catching, with Biggs, Horne and Walker in the outfield. The other pitchers included Eunn Hayes, and a left hander named L. Tucker.

I had a lovely chat with Mrs. Pearl Williams over at Aune Auto Service recently. We talked about the old Royal 23 Club, who ran it named follows and what have you. Of the old originals only Silas Webb, local, remains. What a club it was? Names like Paschal Williams, "Dally" Ross, "Bill" Hayward, Moses McElhenry, Silas Webb, Bruce Pierce, Charlie Hayward call to mind a lot of pleasant memories.

Mr. Charlie Burt Alston, S. Haywood St., continues to improve at Rex Hospital. Charlie's many friends wish for him a rapid recovery.

Mrs. Marjorie Sanders, the devoted wife of Mr. D. Lorenzo Sanders, 704 E. Hargett St. is back at home after a fortnight at Rex Hospital. Her family and friends are happy.

Rev. D. L. Morrison, his choir and congregation journeyed to Wilmington last Sunday to render service for the D. Morrison Club of Mt. Zion AME Church. Rev. D. L. Morrison was at his preaching best. And for a grateful congregation. The Rev. D. Morrison, pastor of Mt. Zion, was the epitome of commitment.

Rev. D. A. Peace, the members and choir of Manly St. United Church of Christ journeyed to Durham last Sunday for an afternoon service. The services were held at new Bethel Baptist Church; Rev. L. W. Reid is the pastor.

Mr. James Chapman and Mrs. Joyce Chapman Jones were called home, Washington, to attend the last rites of his brother. Mr. Chapman resides at 1009 Parker St. while Mrs. Jones resides on E. Morgan St.

Mr. William Wooten, formerly of this city, but now calling New York City home, was called to the city on account of the passing of his mother, Mrs. Ora Lee Wooten. He really enjoyed his friends at home afterwards.

Mr. Theodore Morgan, brother of Mrs. Lottie Morgan and Mrs. Florence Moore, was seen in the city Monday. Mr. Morgan makes his home just outside of Doe Cee, but over the Maryland line. Mr. Alexander Barnes, the travelling goodwill ambassador of the Republican Party, of the AME Zion Church, and The CAROLINIAN, gave me a thrilling story about my friend Mr.

CLUB NEWS

NINE AND FIVE CLUB

Mrs. Ruth Bethea was the charming hostess Saturday night at the Downtown Restaurant for the Nine and Five Club. The members began arriving at seven. Dinner was served at 7:30.

The meeting was presided over by the president. The minutes were read by the secretary, Mrs. Marable. She also called the roll for the paying of dues. Mrs. Cobb gave a report of the treasurer.

The members expressed sympathy for Mrs. Bertha Wilcox in the death of her sister in Fayetteville. Of course, a design was sent, according to the by-laws of the club.

Several games were played. Mesdames Emma Jones and Thelma Davenport received prizes for high scores in the two games.

The dinner was delicious. Everyone expressed themselves as having spent a delightful evening.

Members present were Mesdames Cornelia Cobb, Ruth Bethea, Geneva Brown, Emma Jones, Bessie Wesley, Ann Webb, and Mary Marable. Mrs. Bethea's guests were Mesdames Frances Massenburg and Thelma Davenport.

THE LEISURETTES MEET

The Leisurettes, a retired teachers club had their first meeting for the season on Thursday, Sept. 23, at 11:00 a. m. at the home of Mrs. Carrie Whitaker, who was also the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Lillie Ballentine.

The meeting was presided over by the new president, Mrs. Doris Best. The devotions were conducted by the chaplain, Mrs. Ruth Bethea. She asked the group to sing, "Jesus Keep Me Near the Cross."

This song was followed by the praying of the Lord's Prayer. A very impressive memorial service for one of the members, Mrs. Garnell Watts, was led by the president and the two ex-presidents, Mrs. Best and Miss Lane did the reading.

Mrs. Brown put a beautiful white rose in green foliage in a large vase. Mrs. Watts was a charter member of the club. Next in order was the presentation of the new members to the club. As their names were called, they stood and were welcomed most graciously to the organization. The new members are Mesdames Bessie Blue, Kathleen Thomas, George Manly, Beatrice Williams and Mamye Flagg.

The minutes were read by the secretary. The treasurer then gave her report.

The president made many suggestions and explained things which will be helpful to the members. She encouraged the members to read any articles from magazines and newspapers concerning the retired teachers. She especially stressed voting whenever the times come.

The president read the roster of hostesses for 1971-72.

A poem, "I'm Fine for the Shape I Am in," was read by the president. Everybody enjoyed this reading.

Mrs. Whitaker served a delectable repast, assisted by Mrs. Lillie Ballentine. Members enjoying this repast were Mesdames Lillie Ballentine, Doris Best, Ruth Bethea, Bessie Blue, Geneva Brown, Mamye Flagg, Gertrude Harris, Gila Harris, George Manly, Marie Hill, Clinton Ligon, Mildred McGrath, Kathleen Thomas, Ida Washington, Mary Watson, Beatrice Williams, Carrie Whitaker and Misses Dorothy Lane and Maye Ligon.

The members said good-bye to the hostess, telling her how pleasant the morning was.

They adjourned to have the next meeting at Mrs. Lillie Ballentine's, who will be the next hostess.

LES BRAVE JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB

The new year got off to a good start for the Les Brave Junior Woman's Club of East Garner on Sat., Sept. 25, with the new president, Mrs. Naomi Leak, presiding. The old and new business was discussed. The report from our delegates, Mrs. Myrtle Lythall and Mrs. Lula Seawell to the Federation

J. Royal "Skink" Browning. See me next week.

Well I heard that one Della Bell has succeeded where many others failed. That's the fishing instructor for my good friend Mr. Lonnie Holder. Lonnie had his finest catch in many a moon last week. I haven't seen them, but the gang came back singing his praises. Really I'm happy for him; he tries so hard. Just a couple of weeks ago I heard Robert Woods say quietly, "Really you didn't catch anything?" I acted like I didn't hear it. Good luck for Lonnie!

The Sedates Local Club held a meeting recently at the home of Mrs. Mattie Webb, Parnell Drive. The room was beautifully decorated and the flowers fitfully decorated and the flower arrangement was out of this world. A lovely group was in attendance. There was a note of pathos, the president, Mrs. Beatrice Flowers was incapacitated. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Florence Moore, Crawford Drive in Southgate.

of Women Clubs, which was held in Rocky Mount, was thoroughly enjoyed. The report was given in detail and the delegates were praised for a job well done.

With the new year beginning, along with new officers we are looking forward to a successful year.

We were served elegantly by our hostess, Mrs. Lula Seawell.

Members present were Mesdames Naomi Leak, Edith Trice, Lucille Williams, Johnnie Woods, Zelma Williams, Lennie Leach, Charlie Banks, Alpheretta White, Myrtle Lythall, Frances Gill, Eloise Greene and Lula Seawell.

SEDATES HOLD MONTHLY MEET

The Sedates held their monthly meeting, Saturday, Sept. 25, at the home of Mrs. Pearl Lee on New Bern Avenue.

The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. Beatrice Flowers. Prayer was led by Mrs. Dorothy Pretty. Bible verses were recited by all present.

Final preparations were made for the Cocktail Sip, which was held Sunday, September 26. Everyone reported having a very enjoyable evening.

A contribution was made to the Women in Action for the Prevention of Violence.

The meeting was closed with the club motto and turned over to the hostess. We celebrated Miss Lillian Sturdivant's Birthday and she received many beautiful and useful gifts. Mrs. Lee, a master in the art of cookery, served a lovely dinner.

One of our members lost her father and we all are in sympathy with them -- Mrs. Montague and her family.

We are glad to have Mrs. Lee and Mrs. Pretty back with again. We hope that Mrs. Flowers will be up and out again soon.

Members present included: Mesdames Adele Bridgford, Alice Collins, Sarah Davis, Beatrice Flowers, Annie Hough, Lenora Jones, Pearl Lee, Alice Lewis, Alice Montague, Florine Moore, Dorothy Pretty, Lillian Sturdivant, Ruby Thompson, Mattie Webb and Mayola Winston.

PRESTIGE CLUB MEETS

The Prestige Club met recently with Mrs. Nellie T. Harris, 208 N. Tarboro Road, in her attractive home, gracious hospitality was shown by the hostess.

The business session was presided over by the vice-president, Mrs. Mildred T. James. As this was the initial meeting for the fall season, there were many items of interest on her agenda to acclaim our attention. We were reminded of our purpose -- that we established ourselves as a SERVICE group.

The club was happy to welcome three new members, namely, Mesdames, Ann T. Webb, Mary Ruth Parker, and Nellie Snipes Jones.

After the business session was completed, a delicious and dainty repast was served by the hostess.

Members in attendance, in addition to the newcomers, were: Mesdames Mildred T. James, Emma O. Jones, Ethel B. Jones, Nora E. Lockhart, Chanie F. Love, Nellie F. Harris and Inez Vinson.

After extending remarks of appreciation to the hostess, the meeting adjourned.

Come to Church

BY MRS. MAE L. BROADIE

O God our Heavenly Father, whose word is true and whose light is our guide, we lift up our hearts to Thee for Thy continued goodness. We humble our selves before Thee, Holy Majesty, confessing that we are unworthy to receive anything from Thee. We have sinned against Thee daily, in thought, word, and deed. Yet Thou hast been long-suffering to us and hast borne with our shortcomings. Thou forgivest us. So far we are truly penitent may we likewise forgive all who sin against us; all who sin against society; all who sin against Thee; even as Thou forgivest us sin too heinous to pardon no man. May we become not mere creatures, but creations; not one of Thy works, but Thy co-worker. We ask in His name, amen.

WILSON TEMPLE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH - Sunday School began at 9:30 with the general director, Mrs. C. S. Hayward, in charge. Morning worship started at 11 with a call to worship by the pastor, Rev. J. H. McCullum, with invocation, followed by choral response and the senior choir was in charge of the music, under the direction of Mr. Leon Hayward. Morning lesson and prayer were offered by the pastor, who also delivered a very spiritual sermon, followed by communion. After singing the closing hymn, quietly, the congregation went out.

On Oct. 10 at 11 we will be highly honored to have our own governor, the Honorable Bob Scott as our guest speaker to Men's Day. You are invited to come.

12 CHAVIS WAY - 832-0159

At 5, we had baptizing service. At 6 p.m., BTU after which at 7 p.m. the to ushers held their 1st anniversary. They had a wonderful program planned and all the children did great.

The evening message was given by Rev. Ratcliff with scripture taken from St. John, 3 chapter.

The General Baptist State Convention will be held at First Cosmopolitan Baptist Church the 1st week in November. We are asking all members, friends and associates to participate and help make this a great event.

If you are interested in housing delegates for the State Convention please contact Mrs. J. D. Rowe at 828-6311. Please come out Sunday and enjoy our services. You are always welcome at First Cosmopolitan Baptist Church.

Remember the sick and less fortunate with a prayer, visit or a call. See you in Church Sunday. Church reporter is Mrs. Nancy Atwater.

MT. OLIVE HOLY - Sunday school began at 10 o'clock with Deacon Daniels in charge. The title of the lesson was "God Calls Man," taken from Exodus 3:1-14. Thoughts from the lessons are that God's call to man is not based on any dependence on them. It rests on His love and His grace. His call always carries with it the promise that He will be with us and will enable us to do what He commands.

Morning worship began at 11 with the senior choir in charge of the music. The pastor, Rev. Sis. Celia Hayes delivered a wonderful and inspiring message, taken from the 14th chapter of St. John, entitled, "Going to Our Father."

Evening worship service began at 8.

The public is always welcome to come worship with the pastor and members of the Mt. Olive Holy Church.

The Smith Temple senior usher board observed its 33rd Anniversary Sunday, September 26. The opening selection was given by the Smith Temple chorus, "Leaning On The Everlasting Arms." Scripture was read by Mr. Tommie Garner. Prayer was offered by Deacon Julius Young. Another song was given by the chorus, "The Lord laid His Hand On Me." The welcome address was given by Miss Joan Moore. The response by Deacon Hayes from Poplar Spring Christian Church. Another selection was given by the chorus, "God is Still on the Throne." The history of the Usher Board was read by Mrs. Lydia Garner. Another song was sung by the Smith Temple Choir, "Just a Little Talk with Jesus." The introduction of the speaker by the president, Deacon James Upchurch. Deacon Joseph Whitaker of the First Cosmopolitan Baptist Church's subject was, "Beacon for a Dark World," Matthew 5:14-16. It was enjoyed by everyone. We closed with this thought: "Joy is not in things; it is in us."

Despite the fact that they represent only 11 percent of the civilian labor force, toria M. Walters, Primrose Jackson, Addie H. Perry, Louise Maye, George H. Manly, Nannie Wooten, Edith M. Trice and Ruth M. Bethea.

The members of the sorority sympathize deeply with Soror Ballentine in the death of her sister, who lived in New York.

Sorors are planning for their area meeting in Fayetteville very soon.

BLACK STRAND Hair Coloring promises you younger looking hair.

Only $1.19 COMPLETE

Your professional hairdresser knows the answer...

Was haircoloring first done in Africa?

Centuries ago in Africa (before it was explored by Europeans) beautiful black women used herbs and other ingredients to change the color of their hair. It was one way to complement their dark rich complexions - to accent their natural warmth and beauty. Whether or not Africans were the first to use this method, no one is sure. Yet, they are among the first in terms of recorded history to go through the then-tedious process of coloring their hair.

Today changing your hair color can be as quick and as brief as a visit to your professional hairdresser. That's because many professional hairdressers use Miss Clairol's Hair Color to lighten hair, to make slight color changes and to cover gray. Hairdressing experts know that exotic blacks and browns are generally gorgeous for darker skin tones. Golden or red shades are stunning for lighter tan complexions.

Today black pride brings you closer to the cultural ways of your African heritage. Haircoloring is a part of black history too. Ask your professional hairdresser about changing your hair color with Miss Clairol's - and be more beautiful than you already are.
