

The students will participate is a political education, orientation and awareness project sponsored by the Howard University Political Science Society. They will take part in a door-to-ooor campaign, conduct voter education seminars, and distribute campaign literature. Many will serve also as poll watchers,

Reese Stone, Associate Director of Student Life, and advisor to the Political Science Society explained that the Political Science Society's project "growing apathy among Black students toward the American

(See STUDENTS TO, P. 2)

Concern Is Rising In Rape Case

RICHMOND, Va. - Public concern is rising about the case of Thomas Wansley, a young black man who has been in prison for the last nine years for allegedly raping a white woman. There is a campaign on foot to Wansley's supporters believe that he was the victim of a wave of hysteria that swept Virginia in 1962 -- at a time of intense civil - rights struggles in his hometown of Lynchburg and elsewhere in the state.

Wansley was 17 when he was arrested in December, 1962, after what was described as "the most intensive manhunt" in the history of Lynchburg. He was charged with raping Miss Annie Carter, who was 59 at the time. An all - white, all - male jury found him guilty and sentenced him to death.

Movement lawyers became involved in the case and won a reversal from the Virginia Supreme Court in 1964. A second trial, in 1965, ended witha hung jury and was declared a mistrial. In 1967, Wansley was convicted again and sentenced to life in prison. The U.S. Supreme Court refused to review the case in June, 1970.

Wansley's lawyers -- Philip Hirschkop of Alexandria, Va., and William M. Kunstler of New York -- are continuing the legal struggle by filing a motion for declaratory judgment and a pe-

thee CONCERN TR. P. ES

Dr. Robinson Issues Sincerity Challenge

"Whether we are able to sur- national leadership of this counvive during this decade or this try to create a more just, hucentury, will in my opinion, de- mane, economic and social orpend upon the sincerity of the

(See ROBINSON. P. 2) Pitt County's Blacks Say Frinks 'Welcome'

In a regular meeting of the Golden Frinks and the SCLC Pitt County Coalition at York in Greenville and Pitt County. Memorial AME Zion Church, It was unanimously agreed that Tuesday, October 12, 1971 Golden Frinks and the SCLC when the matter came up about (See G. FRINKS, P. 2)

HOSEA WILLIAMS, WIFE IN HONG KONG- Hong Kong: American civil rights leader, Rev. Nosea Williams of Atlanta, Ga., and his wife return here October 17 after completing a four-week visit to mainland China. The couple said they are on a "goodwill brotherhood" around the world trip sponsored by the Southern Christian Leadership Conference. (UPI).

tent to kill after 25year-old Arthur Nathaniel Hartsfield, 213 Linden Avenue, was shot in the forehead with a .22 calibre pistol at the Jaguar Club, 1825 Rock Quarry Rd. The shooting is alleged to have climaxed an argument between the two men inside the Jaguar. Hartsfield, who was rushed to Wake Memorial Hospital, told Officer D. W. Martin at 5:15 the club." He also said it (See MEDLIN HELD, P 2) Ex-Sergeant Chosen In Spring Lake

a.m. Sunday, that he was shot by James Medlin "while inside

SPRING LAKE - For the first time in the history of Cumberland County, a Black has been appointed temporary chief of police of this city.

Billy H. Manning a retired Army sergeant major, was picked recently to succeed James Farrington who resigned. His appointment is temporary until the Town Council

(See BLACK COP, P. 2)

INQUIRING REPORTER HEY BY STAFF WRITER

Do you think restaurants and other licensed establishments should be allowed to sell beer on

"I think so because no one should be able to dictate whether you want to do. It should be a Mrs. Martha Saundors, Raloigh

"No because Sunday is a day we should respect as God's day. We have six other days to the week to sell beer or do anything else but I think Sunday should be set aside as a day for religious ceremonies." Mrs. Insz Price,

Deplores Strategy Of Nixon

WASHINGTON, D.C. - President Nixon should stop playing musical appointments with the Supreme Court and dignify the Court once again with appointees of quality, President Nixon may get to Peking and to Moscow, he may even get to the moon, but if he succeeds in his apparent effort to degrade the Supreme Court, he may very well be remembered for subverting American civil rights and liberties. The incessant politicking surrounding Court appointments is an apparent effort to satisfy the demands of Nixon's Southern strategy and out finesse George Wallace. It would appear that Mr. Nixon's consistent policy of appointing Southerners with unsatisfactory civil rights records would confirm allegations that he promised the Court to the South in 1968 in exchange for support from Southern Republican state delegations. Though the evidence is still circumstantial the case grows stronger with each new appointment list. The absence of possible conservative nominees of quality and stature would seem

(See DEPLORES, P. 2)

Raleigh "I think they should be able to sell beer on Sunday because they sell it every other day. If they don't sell it on Sunday at these places, people will have other outlets to purchase beer anyway." Donald Small,

Raleigh "Yes, because there are not many places to go on Sunday and I think people need some means of relaxation and this will be a way to relax." Miss Carolyn Heath, and Samuel F. Yette -- believe black Americans are threatened with genocide and will explain the foundation for their fears on the Public Broadcasting Service program.

(See THEY SAY. P. 2)

Williams deals fictionally with the theme of genocide in his novel "The Man Who Cried I Am," Yette, a former associate editor of Ebony, and official of the Office of Economic Opportunity, documents what he calls "existing factors of genocide" in The Choice: The Issue of Black Survival in America.

Yette, now a Washington correspondent for Newsweek, has cited "essential aspects of genocide" in our society:" ... (See ARE BLACKS, P. 2)

State's SCLC Seeking $70,000 By Dec.11

The North Carolina Chapter for the Black family, b. Paraof the Southern Christian Lead- professionals will be trained in counseling parents and youth ership Conference has announcin health problems. II. Polied Phase I of an intended fundraising campaign designed to tical Action; a, SCLC will promote workshops for voter reraise $70,000 between October gistration. b. SCLC will assist 1 and December 11. disadvantaged families with free Church bodies and auxilaries of every denomination, community organizations, private organizations, SCLC county solicitors and county boosters all have been asked to commit themselves to the fund-raising task.

Also an important part of the Phase I fund-raising banquet a benefit 1-to be held in is November.

The state chapter of SCLC has reorganized much of its philosophy and objectives to meet the needs of the community, thus creating a more relevant body to deal with con- al program throughout North ditions that have long been neg- Carolina, V. Financial Thrust: lected.

In order to deal with these neglected conditions, more services must be created. Therefore, in order to create and develop these services for the poor and disadvantaged, a more elaborate financial structure has been developed.

Bobby Jones is executive di-rector of the N.C. SCLC and O. A. Dupree is president.

Those objectives of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference are introduced by the statement: SCLC has organized a comprehensive program that will meet the needs of the Black community, It includes: I. Education; a. Professionals will be trained to serve as counselors

Mother Says Government

Should Grant Amnesties

ginia Collins, mother of a black draft resister, says the government should grant amnesty to all persons punished for opposing the way and the draft.

She told an audience at the University of Louisville that "more than half a million men and women have been jailed, exiled, indicted, fired from jobs, or otherwise disabled for fighting against these two evils."

LC will seek to improve small businesses and will provide professional counsel for the establishing of new businesses,

b. SCLC will serve as placement bureaus that will assist in providing jobs for the jobless. IV. Creativity; a. Programs will be sponsored by SC-

LC to encourage creative talent, literature, art, science and industrial education. b. SCLC will employ directors and train ers for a large scale education-

. $70,000 Phase I fund-raising drive in a statewide program effort. b. Fund raising programs

Mrs. Collins's son, Walter, LOUISVILLE, Ky-Mrs. Vir- is serving a five-year sentence in federal prison at Texarkana, Texas, for refusing to be drafted by an all-white draft board in New Orleans, La. He has been locked up almost a year. (See GRANT AMNESTY, P. 2)

> CRIME From Raleign's Official Palice Files

* EDITOR'S NOTE: This column or feature is produced in the pub-lic interest with an aim towards eliminating its contents. Numer-ous individuals have requested that they be given the considera-tion of overlooking their listing on the police blotter. This we would like to do. However, it is not our position to be judge or la-ry. We merely publish the facts as we find them reported by the arresting officers. To keep out of The Crime Beat Columns, merely means not being registered by a police officer in reporting his findings while on duty. So sim-ply keep off the "Blotter" and you won't be in The Crime Beat. EDITOR'S NOTE: This column legal counseling services. III, COPS INVALE HOME Economic Development; a. SC-

Detectives E. Curtis Winston and C. J. Williams obtained search warrants and invaded the home of Miss Ann Wall, 29, and Clyde Ruffin, both of 221 Smithfied Street, Apartment 3. On the evening of Saturday, October 16, the search warrants were executed by Records and Identification and Lt. Williams, and a quantity of heroin and cocaine were found on the peson of Miss Wall. She was arrested for the possession of heroin and cocaine. A bond of $5,000 was posted by Bondsman Willie Glenn and her trial date has been set for Wednesday, November 17, at 2 p.m. in Wake District Court.

Sunday? Miss Janis Strong,

Raleigh or not you can do certain things freedom of choice."