

FROM RALEIGH'S OFFICIAL POLICE FILES
THE CRIME BEAT

SHOOTS THROUGH DOOR
Emmanuel Staten, 43, 819 E. Hargett Street, informed Officer J.L. Denning at 9:45 p.m. Sunday, that Paul Hinton, 45, 507 Montague Lane, came to his door, demanding to get inside "to see about a woman." Staten declared that Hinton told him that if he didn't open the door, he (Hinton) would shoot it open. He then shot through the door. The complainant started shouting and Hinton "split the scene." Mr. Staten signed a warrant, charging assault with a deadly weapon. Damage to the door was set at $25. A pistol was used by the assailant.

STRUCK WITH ROCK
Joseph Kenneth Hill, 34, 313 S. Bloodworth Street, reported to Officer J.L. Brown at 12:06 a.m. Sunday, that he was walking on S. East Street, near S. Bloodworth, when he was struck on the head with a rock or a bottle. He was taken to Wake Memorial Hospital, where he was treated for a one and one-half inch laceration of the right temple. He told the cop that he was coming home from work when the incident took place. Mr. Hill also stated that he did not see who threw the missile. "He was covered with shivers of glass," ended the officer's report.

NABBED ON NARCOTICS RAP
Officer Ronald Colman Gay, arrested Robert Edward Smith, 22, 2100 15th Street, Southeast, Washington, D.C. at 10:40 p.m. Saturday and charged him with illegal possession of a narcotic drug. He was placed in Wake County Jail under a bond of $1,000. The case has been set for trial Monday, November 8, in Wake District Court. He was nabbed in the 100 block of W. South Street.

STRUCK WITH WINE BOTTLE
Mrs. Senora Elizabeth Locklear, 204 Selwin Alley, told Officer J.D. Naron at 11:56 a.m. Sunday, that she was attacked by Robert Leroy Locklear (believed to be her husband), at their house, with a quart bottle of Boar's Head wine. The bottle was empty. She suffered a laceration of the nose.

SHOT IN CAFE
Raymond Burnette Stokes, Sr., reported to Officer C.A. Watson at 4:14 p.m. last Thursday, as follows: "I was assaulted by a Negro male. I had to shoot him to protect my life. After I shot him, I stopped a police officer and told him what had happened." Mr. Stokes, a white contractor, also owns R and B's Broasted Chicken.

located at 931 S. Saunders St. The person shot was identified as Sylvester Chavis, 21, no address listed. The report did not list the area of Chavis' body that was shot.

WILDS SAWED OFF SHOTGUN
Maryland Gales, owner of Gales' Tavern, 404 1/2 E. Davie Street, informed Officer Gabriel Sanders at 8:56 p.m. Saturday, that Albert Vance Yates, also known as Vance Albert Yates and another colored male, came into his tavern with a sawed-off shotgun. The person with Yates, Gales said, wore a striped shirt and purple trousers. Was brown skinned and is known by the nickname of "Bo Pete."

WOMAN ATTACKS MAN?
Mrs. Margaret Robinson, 112 Smithfield Street, called "the law" at 5:17 p.m. Saturday. The woman told Officer R.E. Holland that she had heard glass breaking and loud noises at 120 Smithfield. V. B. Bennett, 48, believed to be a resident of 120 Smithfield, suffered a deep laceration of the left side of his forehead, one and one-half inches long, with a spurting artery. He was struck with a wine bottle. Mrs. Melvina Bennett, 28, 5218 Fayetteville Road, was named as a suspect in the case.

STEALS AT PENNY'S
Officer Johnny Wayne Howard reported at 4 p.m. Saturday, as follows: "While working security at J.C. Penny's Company, Inc. (North Hills), I observed Charlie Osborne, 27-year-old Negro male, take, steal and carry out fifteen combs. The subject Osborne placed the combs under the front of his shirt and left through the east exit at the store. He never attempted to pay for the combs. Osborne was jailed for larceny. The combs were valued at a total of $10.35."

MAN SHOT IN FOOT
Officer J.L. Brown reported at 2:45 a.m. Sunday that he received a call to go to the 800 block of Peyton Street (Apollo Heights), on a 101 (someone shooting), and upon arrival at this location, he found no one shooting. He then received a call to go to Wake Memorial Hospital, where he found Cleveland Privitt, Jr., 34, Route 2, Wendell had been shot in the left foot in the 800 block of Peyton Street. He stated that there had been a party. Danny Privitt also told the cop that he started to get into a car when he saw a group of colored males, pretending to be fighting. He said at this time one of the men fired a .22 calibre pistol. He identified his assailant as Danny Sampson, 801 Peiton Street. Sampson was charged with discharging firearms within the city limits. James Henry Smith of Eagle Rock was listed as a witness.

JUMPED BY THREE
Carl Thomas Pearce, 38, 712 E. Edenton Street, informed a cop at 1:40 a.m. Saturday, that he was near Weaver Brothers Rambler, W. Lenoir Street, near the bridge, when three colored males "jumped me and hit me in the face with some kind of stick. One of them asked me, 'what are you holding?' He could give no description, except to say that one of his attackers had on a long sleeve brown shirt."

SAYS HUBBY BEAT SON
Mrs. Libby Mae Bethea, 2109 Atkins Drive, told Officer J.R. Moody at 1:17 p.m. Monday, that after 11:30 p.m. Friday, her husband, John Robert Bethea, 39, same address, beat their son while she was at work. She said her husband told her that he was just spanking the child. She signed a child beating warrant against him Monday. The male child suffered bruises over all of his body.

BEATEN OVER MONEY
Thomas Murray, 57, 116 S. East Street, told Officer B. B. Baucum at 10:02 p.m. Friday, that he was walking in the 200 block of S. East Street when two Negro males came up to him and asked him for some money. Mr. Murray said he did not give them any money and continued walking up the street. He also said, "The next thing I knew, they were striking me and when I turned around, they took off, running." He said he could identify them if he sees them again. He exhibited a cut on the head.
