Today, many of us are in a contest for our very beings. Paul tells us who our enemy was when he says, we are not contending against flesh and blood, but against the principalities. Against the powers, if we are on the Lord's side, then we must equip ourselves by putting on the whole armor of God. We must submit our lives to God by means of putting on the helmet of salvation.

O God, thank you for life and for talents, and abilities. Help us to dedicate ourselves to you. So our vine may bear fruit for thee. Help us to pray that we may find strength through which we try to express Christlike love and goodwill. Help us, Father, to realize that every experience in our life today will be an opportunity for good. May we know that with you we may find strength so that we can live a christian life, a victorious life. We pray in Jesus' name. Amen.

You can find a dwelling place in God. To stay in the shadows of God means that He can stay in our souls. The Lord is your refuge, said the Psalmist. If you stay with Him, He will give you victory. God said, He will be with you in season and out of season. If you stay with God and make Him your refuge, the sun will shine in your life. Lastly, he is my refuge, a shelter in the time of storm. If you make God your savior, He will remain with you and build a wall around you. MOUTH OLIVE HOLY - The Mount Olive Sunday School began at 10 with the supt., in charge. The title of the lesson was, "God Judges Nations," taken from Habakkuk 1:5-13; 2:6-8. Thoughts from the lesson were that there were some wrong attitudes in the time of Habakkuk. The dominant one was one of defiance and those who expressed this attitudes fell hard under the judgment of God. These attitudes have not changed much today. Adult christians must see things as the prophet saw them and desire to fulfill the will of God as he fulfilled it. They must ask themselves thoughtfully what role they are playing in the present national drama and in the immediate life of the church. Morning worship began at 11 with the senior choir in charge of the music. The pastor, Sis. Hayes, then brought from St. John 14:16. The message was entitled, "The Promise of The Holy Spirit And His Works." Evening worship began at 8 p.m. with Deacon Daniel in charge of the devotional services. The evening message was taken from the 5th chapter of Exodus. The title of the message was, "Loose The Man." You are always invited to come and worship at the Mount Olive Holy Church.

The General Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, will be held at the First Cosmopolitan Baptist Church, Monday through Thursday. All members, friends and interested persons are asked to attend and help make this event a successful one. On next Sunday afternoon from

Eastside Reminders

BY MRS. RUTH M. BETHEA

We must remind ourselves often of memory gems of life, so that we can live on and on in a world of life, pleasure and congenial attitudes. Watch, for we know neither the day nor the hour when the Son of man cometh.

MRS. BETHEA

"When my father and my mother forsake me, then the Lord will take me up."

Many of our friends and loved ones are leaving this world and crossing over to join those who have gone on before. So vivid are these departures, that it makes us stop, look, and listen, trusting that the Heavenly Bugle is still in the distant land watching and waiting for those who will go to that Heavenly Land.

So many good things are told us to expect in the days to come that we can only watch and wait, looking forward after living a good life, like Roy Wilkins, executive director of the NAACP.

Pray for the sick, asking God to restore them to health. Mrs. Lillian McMillan is in a Chapel Hill hospital; Mrs. Fannie Williams is very ill in Wake Memorial Hospital; and the many others in the homes and hospitals who are sick. Let all of us pray earnestly for them that they may recover.

Your professional hairdresser knows the answer...

Was haircoloring first done in Africa?

Centuries ago in Africa (before it was explored by Europeans) beautiful black women used herbs and other ingredients to change the color of their hair. It was one way to complement their dark rich complexions... to accent their natural warmth and beauty. Whether or not Africans were the first to use this method, no one is sure. Yet they are among the first in terms of recorded history to go through the then-tedious process of coloring their hair.

Today changing your haircolor can be as quick and as brief as a visit to your professional hairdresser. That's because many professional hairdressers use Miss Clairol® Hair Color to lighten hair, to make slight color changes and to cover gray. Hairdressing experts know that exotic blacks and browns are generally gorgeous for darker skin tones. Golden or red shades are stunning for lighter tan complexions.

Today black pride brings you closer to the cultural ways of your African heritage. Haircoloring is a part of black history too. Ask your professional hairdresser about changing your hair color with Miss Clairol® and be more beautiful than you already are.
