

Church Confab Elects Eighteen For Mobile

The most interesting feature of the 91st session of the annual meeting of the Central North Carolina Conference, A. M. E. Zion Church, which was held at Rush Metropolitan Church this week, was the election of delegates to the General Conference, which will be held in Mobile, Ala., May 1972.

Marion George, Fayetteville; George Zeigler, Maxton; Mrs. Estella D. Robinson, Red Springs and Miss Katie Frye, Sanford.

AMTRACK NEEDS FUNDS
The government's new national Railroad Passenger Corporation has asked Congress to supply an extra $170 million to keep the trains moving for another year.

ON UNFILLED JOBS
An Associated Press survey shows that many blue-collar and other jobs requiring a broad range of technical skills are going begging. Programs in technical and vocational schools are designed to prepare students for immediate employment in specialized positions.

After the clouds settled and the counting over it was found that the following ministers were elected: C. V. Flack, Cummock; J. A. Brown, Henderson; M. F. Ward, Fayetteville; S. P. Rawlings, Dunn; E. H. Beebee, Fayetteville; S. J. Farrar, Cary; Grant J. Price, Erwin; L. A. Miller, Durham and DeWitt Womack, Sanford. Due to the large number of laymen present, many of whom were candidates, the "Lay College" was held at St. Matthews A.M.E. Church, the following were elected: Alexander Barnes, Durham; Mrs. Dorothy Johnson, Sanford; Mrs. Arletia M. Perry, Raleigh; Miss Rebecca Black, Laurinburg; Guy Mazyck, Durham; Attorney

WELCOME TO CAIRO-Cairo: Egyptian President Anwar Sadat (C) welcomes President Leopold Senghor of Senegal (L) and President Joseph Mobutu of Zaire (R) upon their arrival here November 5 from Israel. Along with two other African presidents—Ahmadou Ahidjo of Cameroun and Gen. Uakubu Gowon of Nigeria—Senghor and Mobutu comprise a Middle East peace mission. Official talks between the visiting group and Sadat were scheduled to begin November 6. (UPI).

Roseboro News

BY MISS CARLA D. TATUM
ROSEBORO—The morning services at St. Thomas A.M.E. Zion were opened with the senior choir rendering the music. The pastor, Rev. T. R. Singletary, read the scripture lesson from John, 1st chapter, and the Rev. John Edwards read the morning message. The pastor also delivered the message. His text was taken from St. John, 1st chapter and his subject was, "The power of God." In his sermon, he said that the word was God, and that He can make things come into existence that do not exist. It was a very dynamic sermon. In the afternoon services, there was an appreciation service held for Rev. Singletary. The speaker was Mr. A. H. Williamson, a teacher at Union High School. His subject was, "What about man?" In his discussion, he asked if man had made the perfection of accepting everyone as brothers. Many churches such as First Baptist, Smith Chapel, Sams Spring, and St. Thomas gave the pastor many gifts. At the Holy Tabernacle Church, the Rev. Samuel Clemon delivered the message. His subject was, "I am one of them." His text was taken from St. Luke 17:11-17. Rev.

Clemon has taken a trip to the Holy Land and everyone is glad that he has had the chance to visit this great land. At Robinson Chapel, the senior choir rendered the music, with Mrs. E. Melvin as pianist. Rev. Hair, the pastor, brought forth the morning message. His subject was, "I am a witness for Jesus." In his message, he said that everyone should be a witness for the Lord and should be proud of it. His sermon was a very soul-searching one.

Too many of us waste too much time on petty matters.

Your Weekly Horoscope

November 13 through November 19, 1971

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Whimsical week ahead, Ari. The new and unusual are highlighted. You are ripe for chance-taking. Your fiery imagination is ignited. Keep bucket of water handy, just in case blaze should get out of control. Sound advice available from trusted friend. But you must ASK for it.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): You, Taurus, are a national resource, and key in week ahead is CONSERVATION. Meaning not only your time and energy, but emotions as well. Temptation in past has been to spread yourself too thin in these areas. Try coasting in days ahead. Energy may be low.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Ambivalent attitudes concerning partner/mate could tear you to smithereens, Gem. Understand that loving and loathing are two sides of the same coin, and don't flip. Muddle through week as best you can, dear, and by last day you relax. A mite.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Advancement is yours in week ahead, Moonlove, if you heed Olga's advice: Don't attempt to walk the wire without a net under you. Your hunches will be strong, and you will interpret message correctly. Get money matters in order. As week wanes, secret plans begin to take shape.

LEO (July 23-August 22): Very busy week ahead, Leo baby. Personal plans take priority. Apprehension fades gradually and confidence in future builds. Before last day, one who has been a cause of your anxiety gets his/her come-uppance.

VIRGO (August 23-September 22): Creative juices flow like crazy during coming week, Virg. Trendy newcomer stimulates you. Observe your present career/family situation realistically. You have much to offer. Friends in mood to listen, so no need to be shy. (No need for pomposity either.) Moderation does it, pet.

LIBRA (September 23-October 22): Remember when you were little and told not to bite your fingernails, Lib? Olga hopes you stopped that bad habit, for in days ahead you'll need your fingernails just to hang on cliff you are approaching. For the sake of your safety, (and sanity) move toward new ventures gingerly.

SCORPIO (October 23-November 21): Hoop-la week ahead, Scorp. Implacable situation which has caused you many a headache is suddenly changed. You take reins and ride off into the sunset. With a secret smile on your sassy Scorp face.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22-December 21): Change surrounds you, Saij. Olga suggests you be most cautious about jumping into any new situation. Message comes your way. Keep info to yourself. Pretend you are the Sphinx. Thus you profit. Blab, and all is down the drain. Week ends on note of appreciation.

CAPRICORN (December 22-January 19): Tranquility in week ahead, Cap, just could be calm before the You Know What. These are no-nonsense days, love, so knuckle down to biz. You make meaningful connection. On last day, problems fade, and fun chases you down a different street.

AQUARIUS (January 20-February 18): You make big waves in week ahead, Aquari. And there is one who waits quietly on the shore to ride the turbulence. Probably a Pisces, who is an excellent surfer, and will not lose his/her sense of balance. A Taurus is also involved. A complicated week. But fun.

PISCES (February 19-March 20): One with a big mouth and a small intellect aches to spread gossip. Turn deaf ear to the little juicy this person peddles. Important tasks need your undivided attention. Concentrate on getting scratch for trip you plan. Week ends on note of A for Anticipation.
