

FROM RALEIGH'S OFFICIAL POLICE FILES
THE CRIME BEAT

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE)

GETS SELF ARRESTED
Charles Coleman Williams, 22, 908 E. Hargett Street, told Officer J.W. Howard at 1:51 p.m. Monday, that he was going west in the 500 block of E. Davie Street and a 1965 Chevrolet was going east. He said their two cars met and at that part of the street, only one vehicle could pass. Williams said he backed up and the subject in the Chevrolet pulled up beside him and pointed a pistol at him and stated, "You think you are smart, but I will shoot the s--- out of you." Listed as a suspect was John C. Duell, 50, 1906 Atkins Drive, but Mr. Williams was arrested and charged with assault with a deadly weapon. This is one report that the editor of this column doesn't understand, so don't feel "put out."

FLEES OWN HOUSE
Charles Meadow Scott, 31, 522 W. Lenoir Street, informed Officer J.E. Beasley at 2:15 p.m. Monday, that Ben Thomas, 29, 518 W. Lenoir, and his girlfriend came to his house about 12:30 a.m. that day. Thomas said they were drinking until about 4 a.m., when they got into an argument because Mr. Scott would not let the suspect use his bed. The girlfriend left about 4:30 a.m. and Thomas allegedly grabbed two butcher knives, locked the door and told Scott that he was going to kill him. At this point, Scott "split the scene" from his own house with Thomas in hot pursuit, the report ended. A warrant is on file, charging Thomas with assault with a deadly weapon.

STRUGGLES WITH COP
Officer Michael Leroy Warren, 23, arrested Anthony Jerome Taylor, 25, 1501 Tierney Circle (Madonna Acres), last Saturday and charged him with damage to property. He was then taken to the magistrate's office. "During the process of filling out the commitment, the subject began to scream, hit his fist against the wall and kicked at one of the doors." Warren approached Taylor, who reportedly struck him in the chest, while attempting to grab the cop's shirt and tie. The officer's shirt was damaged in the amount of $5, while $3 in damage was placed on his tie pin. Taylor was charged with damage to property and assault on an officer.

HINTON INVOLVED AGAIN
Miss Cathaline Terrell, 413 Dakar Street (between E. Cabarrus and E. Davie Streets), told two cops at 11:40 p. m. Tuesday, that a subject, whom she identified as Jarvis Hinton, 27, 10 Lincoln Terrace, came to her front door and demanded entrance. The woman said she refused him entrance whereupon the subject kicked the door in and began fighting Lonnie Junior McNeil. The woman said she ran out of the house and called "the law." Hinton was arrested for breaking and entering.

WHITE WOMAN 'FINGERED'
Mrs. Janice Marie Hinton, 1601 1/2 Pender Street, reported to two officers at 9:45 p. m. Wednesday, that Mrs. Ernestine Foster, white resident of 4355 Poole Road, drove up in a white Chevrolet pickup truck. She said the woman got out of the truck yelling, "James," then threw one can of Comet and one can of Keer floor wax through a front window at Mrs. Hinton's house. The complainant stated she would sign a damage to property warrant against Mrs. Foster. Damages were as follows: one screen window, $10; one window pane, $7.50; and one Christmas tree fixture, $1.97.

NABS WOULD-BE THIEF
Officer W.G. Arnold reported at 10:58 p.m. Wednesday's follows: "I received a radiomessage at 10:54 p. m. that the alarm at Sears was going off. Upon arrival at the scene, I began a check for a break-in. A window on the Cameron St. side had been knocked out with a bottle. A subject went through the opening and took articles of clothing from the racks and placed them next to the opening. As we were waiting for someone with a key to open the door, a person was seen inside the building. As we entered the building, the person went out a window on the Smallwood Drive side (approximately twenty feet from the ground.) Vernon B. Fenner, Jr., 28, 838 E. Lenoir Street, was "hauled off" to Wake County Jail on a breaking and entering rap.

MAN ASSAULTS COP
Officer Raymond Devone, Jr. reported at 12:48 p.m. Thursday that Ernest Sanders, 29, 1201 Oakwood Avenue, had been arrested for larceny and public intoxication and was brought to the magistrate's office in the basement of Wake County Courthouse for booking. However, while at the office, Sanders allegedly attempted to strike the manager of the A&P store. Officer Devone stopped Sanders from attacking the manager, so Sanders then turned his wrath on the cop and attacked him. Devone, who suffered bruises on the chest and arms, restrained the subject and added another charge--assault on an officer.

BEATEN OVER 'GRASS'
Miss Sara Catherine Furr, white resident of 4813 B Bluebird Court, told officers B.G. Hamilton and R.H. Phillips at 1:50 a. m. last Saturday, that John Wayne Ferrell, 20, 1017 S. Person Street, demanded to be given some heroin and "grass," after being informed that she didn't have any. The woman said she told them she would take them some place where they could get some, but "was afraid he would rape me." She said Ferrell gave a knife which he had to another subject to indicate she wouldn't get hurt. Then Ferrell dragged the woman to a driveway, near the corner of Oberlin Road and Hillsborough Street, into the dark, "but made no other attempt." The woman suffered abrasions on the left and right elbows and hands. Ferrell was charged with assault on a female.

THREATENS WITH KNIFE
Dana Earl Sterner, white resident of 225 Forest Road, told Officer R.H. Phillips, Jr., at 11:50 a. m. Saturday, that while "they were around the car, he said something to his two assailants and James

IN A HURRY
DIAL 833-4486
INDEPENDENT
CAB SERVICE

Earl Jones, 21, 1013 E. Edenton Street, put a hawk bill knife to my throat and said something to me." Sterner said he then stepped back. Jones was later arrested and charged with assault with a deadly weapon.

FACES ANOTHER RAP
Miss Julie Ruth Sanders, 48-13 B Bluebird Court, reported to two cops at 1:50 a. m. Saturday, that she and three other companions were around their car at the parking lot near the Players' Retreat, 100 block of Oberlin Road. She declared that as they were talking, two black males came up to the car and demanded that they give them some money. They told the two they didn't have any, so one of them pulled a hawk bill knife on Miss Sanders and later, a shotgun. The subjects then asked for some heroin and "grass" and were told they had neither. "Hauled off" to Wake County Jail on an assault with a deadly weapon charge was James Earl Jones, 1013 E. Edenton Street.

SAYS SHE'S CRAZY
Mrs. Leater Hinton, 22, 608 E. South Street, informed Officer E. Williams at 12:45 p.m. Saturday that "she was crazy and needed some help." She also stated that she had taken a whole bottle of "ministrating pills." "She was heavily under the influence of alcoholic beverages, but she didn't try to take her own life," ended the officer's report.

'FINGERS' 'BOSSMAN'
Miss Lelnd Marie Smith, 23, 303 Dorothea Drive, told Officer W. B. Holland at 11:24 p. m. Friday, that she had been to a laundromat in the 200 block of W. South Street and was walking home in the 700 block of S. Dawson Street at about 10 p. m. that day when a colored male, known as "Bossman," stopped her and asked her if she wanted a drink. The young woman said she refused the offer and continued walking up the street, then realized someone was walking behind her. She said "someone then grabbed my arm and twisted it behind my back and threw me to the ground. He said he was going to get what he wanted then." The complainant said she reached for a knife and he got up and ran down the street. She also stated that "Bossman" is big and heavy and was wearing a brown workshirt and gray pants." His age was listed at about 40.

BEATEN IN OWN HOUSE
Lonnie McNeil, Jr., 24, 508 E. Cabarrus Street, informed Officers A. Dunbar and O. T. Wester at 11:40 p. m. last Tuesday, that Jarvis Hinton, 27, 10 Lincoln Terrace, assaulted him after Mr. Hinton had broken and entered 413 Dakar St. McNeil said he was struck with an ash tray and beaten with a heavy brass lamp. Mr. McNeil was taken to Wake Memorial Hospital by ambulance treated and released. Mr. Hinton was arrested at the Dakar Street address and charged with assault with a deadly weapon, resulting in serious injury, breaking and entering and assault on an officer. He was placed under a bond of $200 and committed to Wake County Jail, pending a hearing. McNeil suffered a two inch cut on the neck (artery), a one and one-half inch cut on the left forearm, glass imbedded in his left eye and abrasions about the head and neck.

ASSAULTS OFFICER
Officer Anthony Dunbar, 24, related to Officer O. T. Wester at 11:38 p. m. Tuesday, that he was assaulted while attempting to investigate an assault and fight call.

SISTER BETTY

You've seen her on T.V. Read about her in the papers. NOW SEE HER IN PERSON. Touch of her hand will heal you. She has God-given power to heal by prayer. Are you suffering? Are you sick? Do you need help. Do you have bad luck? Bring your problems to Sister Betty. Advise on all affairs of life. There is no problem so great that she can't solve. (How to hold your job when you've failed and how to succeed). She has devoted a life-time to this work. Men and women have come to her from the four corners of the world. Guaranteed to remove evil influence and bad luck. There's no pity for those knowing they're in hard luck and need help and do not come for it. One visit will convince you, lifts you out of sorrow and darkness and starts you on the way to success and happiness. She invites you to her home. Open seven days a week 7 a.m. to 10 p.m. SPECIAL READING $1 WITH THIS AD
330 E. HARGETT ST. 834-2007 RALEIGH, N. C.

Lightner Insurance Agency

Life --
Retirement --
Education --
Mortgage
Insurance Programming and Financial Planning Specialists

CORNERSTONE FINANCIAL SERVICES INCORPORATED
(A Subsidiary of Keystone Custodian Funds, Inc.)

LEWYN HAYES, JR.
Registered Representative
312 Smithfield St.
Business 833-1677
Home 825-7642

6-Year-Old Straight Bourbon Whiskey, 86 Proof, Henry McKenna Distillery, Fairfield, Kentucky

$15
*Christmas
Styles
Just For You*

$14⁹⁵
WIG WAM
400A Downtown Blvd. 828-2186
10 E. Hargett St. 833-3678

AMATEUR PHOTO
ELLIS R. JONES
PHONE 828-3625

Mrs. Ellis Royster Jones
Surprise, Surprise,
I'll bet you didn't expect
to see this dear;
Mom now has to buy
more Carolinians
To send both far and near

Raleigh Memorial Auditorium
December 26, 1971
Two Showings- 2:00 pm and 6:00 pm. Admission- $2.00
Sponsored by Drug Action of Wake County, Inc. and Africana, Inc.
FOR TICKETS: AT DOOR OR CALL 833-1161
GO BY: AFRICANA ARTS CENTER, INC., OLD UNITED CHURCH BUILDING
HILLSBOROUGH & DAWSON STREETS

Table whiskey.
The present of Christmas past.

Currier and Ives can tell you a lot better than we can what this Christmas of long ago was like. (You see, they were around in the 1850's too--when the best of the bourbons were known as table whiskey.) So we've wrapped our bourbon in one of their wonderful holiday scenes.

We believe this scene captures the spirit of table whiskey better than any words ever could. This Christmas, why not give Henry McKenna to someone special. Or put it on your own table. It won't bring back the good old days. But it will give you a taste of them.

Give someone the New Year for Christmas with a lovely Currier and Ives linen calendar showing the scene above. Just send $1 to CALENDAR, P.O. BOX 331, NEW YORK, N.Y. 10046. And please be patient with the holiday mails.

Pint $3.35 Fifth $5.30