FROM RALEIGH'S OFFICIAL POLICE FILES

TAKUN PAKUN BUNUN BUNUN

THE CRIME BEAT

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE)

ACCUSED OF THEFT

Miss Juanita Taylor, 415 E. Hargett Street, reported to Officer Gabriel Sanders at 8:15 p.m. Thursday, that Isaac Taylor, Jr., 19, came into her room and stole eight dollars, which was in a purse in a dresser drawer in her bedroom. She said Taylor is her cousin, but she will sign a larceny warrant to get her money back. Taylor's home state was listed as South Carolina.

MAN STABS WOMAN

Miss Carmela Teresa Har-vey, 23, 513 S. Wilmington St., told Officer J.D. Narron at 12:11 a.m. Friday, that James Edward Hockaday, 19, 652 Coleman Street, accused her of not riding the bus home from Roy's Restaurant, Hillsborough St., where she is believed to be employed. She said the man went downstairs at her house with a knife and came back upstairs. She said, at this time, "he tried to put his hands on me when I opened the door."

The woman said that when she jumped back, he stabbed her with a butcher knife, in the back. She said the point of the knife was broken off, but it was still about seven inches long. Hockaday was jailed and charged with assault with a deadly weapon.

HAD PILLS - JAILED

Officer Raymond Devone reported at 1:17 p.m. Thursday as follows: "I arrested a Negro male subject at 201 E. Hargett Street for larceny and public intoxication. During the search, I found barbituates in his left front pocket. I immediatedly advised the subject of his rights and brought him before the Wake County magistrate. Subject had five pills. Arrested was Ernest Sanders, 29, 1201 Oakwood Avenue. The charge was illegal possession of drugs, plus the other two raps. BEATEN WITH STICK

Melvin Alston, 802 S. Blount * Street, told a cop at 7:14 p. m. Saturday, that he was inside his room when he heard someone at the door. A few minutes later, he declared, he saw Leroy Wilson, 50, same address, coming from his (Alston's) room, and they exchanged some words "And before I knew anything, Leroy came into my room with a two foot long stick and hit me beside the head." He exhibited a cut on the right side of his face. Wilson was "hauled off" to jail on an assualt the head. Price, 27, then "split and battery charge.

CUT ON ARM, SIDE

Miss Wilma Jean Collins, 34, 1314 S. East Street, informed Officer C. R. Smith at 9:01 p. m. Saturday, that she was approached by Jesse Martin Mc-Laurin, 37, same address, and during an argument, he cut her on the arm and side. Both sault with a deadly weapon warrant was signed against Mc-Laurin, who was arrested. The woman suffered two one inch cuts on the left arm and a small cut on the left side of her body.

FANNY FRY "FRIED"

Billy Roy Holder, an employee at the Union Bus Terminal, 217 W. Morgan Street, reported to a cop at 11:33 p. m. Saturday, that a Miss Fanny Fry, 57, Route 2, Hickory, came to the station and had been loitering there for several days. Holder said he asked the woman to leave, but Miss Fry allegedly jerked his badge from his shirt, threw it on the floor and

AMATEUR PHOTO ELLIS R. JONES PHONE 828-3625

Miss Wanda Deleres Hinton

Surprise, Surprise, I'll bet you didn't expect to see this dear; Mom now has to buy more Carolinians To send both far and proceeded to strike the man about the face with her hands, then left the bus station.

WAS NOT ARRESTED Charles Coleman Williams, 22, who was listed in this same column last week under a heading which read, "Gets Self Arrested," was not arrested at all, but John C. Duell, 50, 1906 Atlins Drive (Kingwood Forest), was jailed on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon after he allegedly pointed a pistol at Williams and threatened him with, "You think you are smart, but I will shoot the s . . . out of you." We apologize to Mr. Williams, but the investigating officer, J. W.

Howard, had Williams' name in the spot where Duell's should ASSAULTS TWO COPS Officers Billy Wayne Hamilton and Lonnie Thomas Wilson reported at 4 p.m. last Monday, that they were on routine patrol and received a call for help. 200 block of E. Martin Street. Officer Wilson struggled with Larry Mitchell Oakley, 21, 311 Camden Street, as Mitchell was "trying to help his friend" believed to have been a James Brown, address unlisted, who was under arrest. Oakley was "hauled off" to Wake County Jail on charges of assault on an officer, (two counts) and resisting arrest. Officer Wilson suffered bruises on a shoulder.

JAILED FOR DAMAGE

Mrs. Octavia Lee Little, 925 E. Lane Street, Apartment 7, told Officer N. A. Carter at 12:29 a.m. Tuesday, that she was looking at television when she heard a commotion outside. She said she saw Miss Laura Theresa Edgerton, 25, address unlisted, come up to her apartment and break out two window panes. Miss Edgerton was arrested and charged with damage to property. Damages to her window was listed at $25.

BEATEN BY EX-TENANT Archie Stanley Terry, 16 N. East Street, reported to Officer J. L. Brown at 5:50 p.m. Monday, that he removed Willie Price's clothes from Price's room at this address Apartment B, (Terry is the landlord), since he was three weeks behind in his rent. He said Price came home and attacked him. Mr. Little, 39, exhibited bruises of the scene" wearing striped pants and a dark shirt.

WOMAN ASSAULTS COP Officer B. W. Hamilton reported at 10:15 p.m. last Saturday, that he received a call for help from Officer R. Clayborne. "As I arrived on the scene, (400 Block, E. Davie), a colored female, Mrs. Elsie Harris, 27, were taken to the magistrate's 812 E. Jones Street, came up office by the cop, where an as- to me and called me a sorry m.f., s.o.b. and then struck me in the stomach with her fists. The subject was then placed under arrest. While putting her into the police vehicle, she bit TANDATAN KANDATAN DAN CALITATAN AN AN AN AN AN AN ANDAN BANDAN AN AN AN ANDARAN AN ANDARAN AN AN AN AN AN AN A me, also." The woman was charged with disorderly conduct, resisting arrest and assault on an officer. The cop, 23, suffered shin abrasions and punctures on his right hand. The woman weighs approximately 165 pounds. The cop's weight is unknown.

BOY STRIKES COPS Officer C. K. Womble stated at 10:15 p.m. last Saturday, that "while trying to assist Officer W. L. Baker in making an arrest on a subject, myself and Officer W. L. Baker were struck by Leon Chavis, Negro male, age 15, 1041 E. Edenton Street, at Gale's Tavern in the 400 block of E. Davie Street. This subject, also, after advising him that he was under arrest, he resisted arrest and gave Officer Baker and myself a great deal of trouble. He tried to incite the other 20 or 30 people around us to help him. "The youth was charged with resisting arrest and assault on an officer (two counts). The officers suf-When they arrived at the scene, fered slight bruises and scratches.

> "FINGERS" HUSBAND Mrs. Debra Faye Bordley, 22, 1603 Pender Street, informed Officers L. R. Hall and D. R. Turnage at 12:15 a.m. Wednesday, that her husband, Gene Alvin Bordley, 28 539 New Bern Avenue, beat her with his hands and feet, while they were in the 100 block of S. Blount Street, at about 12:10 a.m. that day. The woman said they had a "fuss" over another man. She also said that they had not lived together for the past three weeks. Mrs. Bordley stopped the patrol car. She had a bloody nose and abrasions of the left cheek. She signed an assault on a female warrant and Bordley was arrested.

Jobless or underemployed persons who need basic education and language training need them badly. A report recently released by the Department of Labor states that there seems to be many among the Spanish - and Chinese - speaking immigrants who have substantial skills which can be applied only after language competence has been achieved.

Go to Church Sunday

Artist of the Week

Raleigh's young artist of the week is Miss Winnona Swayze, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Burrus C. Swayze. A senior at Needham Broughton High School, Winnona will participate in the Links Annual Spring Fine Arts Extravaganza. Her sponsor is the Mary Talbert Woman's Club in

Winnona's first interest in the fine arts sprang up in the field of music in the form of piano lessons, which were gradually replaced by her strong involvement in vocal music. Presently the vice president of Broughton's Choral Ensemble, she is entering her third year of membership in the exant Ligon Jubilee Singers. Winnona is also a member of the Martin Street Baptist Church Junior Choir,

MISS WINNONA SWAYZE

Membership in F. J. Carnage's Dramatics Club, while in her ninth grade year, sparked, for Winnona, a burning interest in dramatic art. The past two summers have afforded her the opportunity of professional training in the theatre. In 1970, Miss Swayze attended the summer session of the North Carolina School of the Arts in Winston-Salem, and the following year was selected to attend the North Carolina Governor's School, also in Winston, She has been a cast member of such productions as GENESIS, DARK of the moon, is this what

YOU WANT? and THE COUNT-ING PEOPLE. This interest

IN A HURRY DIAL 833-4486 INDEPENDENT CAB SERVICE

Lightner Insurance Agency

Life --Retirement ---Education ---Mortgage

THOMAS MIAL

LEWYN HAYES. Insurance Programming and Financial Planning

Specialists

CORNERSTONE FINANCIAL SFRVICES INCORPORATED

(A Subsidiary of Keystone Custodian Funds, Inc.

LEWYN HAYES, JR. Registered Representative 312 Smithfield St. Business 833-1677 Home 828-7642

in drama gave birth to her participation in modern dance. Winnona has been active in school student councils since the eighth grade and has been a member of the National Honor Society for two years. She is also interested in creative writing and has been asked to join the council of student writers working on Broughton's literary magazine, 'Winged Words''.

Miss Swayze plans to further her education at an institution of higher learning with stressed study in speech and political

Prospective Teachers Must Sign For NTE

teachers who plan to take the National Teacher Examinations at North Carolina Central University on January 29 must submit their registrations for the tests to educational Testing Service, Princeton, N.J., by January 6, according to Dr. Norman C. Johnson, chairman

RALEIGH, N. C., SATURDAY, JANUARY 1, 1972 or the NCCU Department or Education.

The registration forms must reach the ETS office by the deadline, Dr. Johnson empha-

Bulletins of Information, including registration forms, may be obtained at Dr. Johnson's office or directly from Educational Testing Service in Princeton.

Candidates may take the Common Examinations and one Teaching Area Examination on January 29. The examinations will begin at 8:30 a.m.

SISTER BETTY

NOW SEE HER IN PERSON Touch of her hand will heal you. She has God-given power to heal by prayer. Are you suffering? Are you sick? Do you need help. Do you have bad luck? Bring your problems to Sister Betty. Advise on all affairs of life. There is no problem so great that she can't solve. (How to hold your job when you've failed and how to succeed). She has devoted a life-time to this work. Men and women have come to her from the four corners of the world. Guaranteed to remove evil influence and bad luck. There's no pity for those knowing they're in hard luck and need help and do not come for it. One visit will convince you, lifts you out of sorrow and darkness and starts you on the way to success and happiness. She invites you to her home. Open seven days a week 7 a.m. to 10 p.m. SPECIAL READING $1 WITH THIS AD

330 E. HARGETT ST. 834-2007 RALEIGH, N. C.

INVERHOUSE SCOTCH You've seen her on T.V., Read about her in the papers.

Children's Slacks, Blouses & Pant Suits

1 Rack Children's Coats

Broken Sizes

off

Ages 4 to 14 Includes Some Boys Boots Values $9.95 to $17.95

NOW

Children's Shoes

School & Dress

Styles

For Boys & Girls