ATTACKED AT GAME

Miss Paulette Massenburt, 18, H-14 Washington Terrace, reported to Officer Freddie L. Rountree at 9:30 p.m. last Tuesday, that she had gone to the Enloe-Broughton High School basketball game at Enloe, with some friends. The woman said that while there, she came in contact with a Miss Pearl Mae Simmons and an argument ensued. Miss Massenburt further stated that as she was leaving the game, she and Miss Simmons "had some more words and started fighting." Miss Massenburt was treated at Wake Memorial Hospital for a two inch laceration on the left side of the head and scars about the face. Miss Simmons is said to live "somewhere in Walnut Terrace."

TELEVISION "SWIPED"

Mrs. Ellen Lassiter, 905 New Bern Avenue, Apartment 3, informed Officer Norma Artis at 5:05 p.m. Thursday, that while she was at work, some person broke into her apartment and stole her Philco 18-inch television set, valued at $150. The house was entered by someone removing one glass panel from the front door and unlocking the door from the inside. Damage to the door was set at $5.

3 SHOPLIFTERS JAILED

Officer Lonnie T. Wilson, who works off-duty hours at J. C. Penney's, Inc., 100 North Hills Mall, reported at 12:17 p.m. Wednesday, that he was told by an employee at the store that three colored females had taken two dresses from a junior dress rack. "I approached them in the ladies' shoe department," stated the officer, "and asked them to come with me to the office, which they did. They had two dresses, size five, in a brown swede pocketbook. They were all advised of their rights and signed papers to that effect." Arrested were: Misses Delores Mann Evans, 16, 717 E. Davie Street; Mary Ann Partin, 18, no address listed; and Mary Madelene Hackney, 18, no address listed. All were charged with shoplifting in the theft of the dresses, valued at a total of $38.98.

CONCEALS 5 RECORDS

Officer Robert C. Maynard reported at 11:55 a.m. Wednesday, that Ronnie Roosevelt Chamblee, 16, 1909 Cameron Street, picked up five 45 rpm records at Kerr Rexall Drugs, 2017 Cameron Street, and concealed them under his coat, on the right side. The officer also stated that the suspect left the store, but he caught him and placed him under arrest for larceny. The records were valued at $3.95.

CHARGES TWO IN FIGHT

Mrs. Annie Louise Stewart, 47, 215 Spence Street, called "the law" at 7 p.m. Thursday to report a damage to property at that address. However, when Officers F. L. Rountree and S. B. Price arrived on the scene, they found that Mrs. Stewart had been in an argument and fight with Atlas Wilson, 49, 1611 Cross Street. The officers took both to the magistrate's office, where he issued warrants against both on charges of engaging in a fray. Another warrant was issued against the complainant, charging damage to property. The Stewart woman received a cut on the left side of her forehead. The damaged property was listed as Wilson's 1966 Chevrolet truck. Mrs. Stewart is said to have thrown a block of wood, causing $150 in damage to the windshield and a $20 dent on the hood. The truck is owned by G. S. Tucker and Brothers Furniture, 112 E. Hargett Street.

BEATEN AND ROBBED

Solomon Vaughn, 30, 604 E. Hargett Street, told Officer Jimmy M. Glover at 5:16 p.m. Friday, that he had just left the Family Restaurant, 200 block of S. Blount Street, at 11:30 p.m., the day before, and he got about halfway down the block when five or six colored males, about 18 years of age, jumped him. He declared they kicked him in the side and struck him in the face. One of them, he said, bit a hole in his left ear. He said he got dizzy and weak at this point and did not know which way his assailants went. He was robbed of his shoes, valued at $18; and $50 in cash, the man also exhibited a swollen left eye.

STEALS STEAKS-JAILED

Arnold Lee Yates, an employee of Winn-Dixie Stores, 237-239 S. Wilmington Street, informed Officer B. W. Harris at 5:50 p.m. Friday, that John Lee Jenkins, 43, 314 E. Hargett Street, came into the store about 5:30 p.m. and stayed around the meat section and the subject started out of the store and refused to give the manager back one package of cube steak, valued at $2.29 and one package of cube steak, $1.82. Jenkins was arrested on a larceny rap.

NABS TWO WOMEN

Officer J. E. Beasley reported at 4:15 p.m. Friday as follows: "I was on routine patrol when I observed a disturbance in the 400 block of E. Worth Street. When I circled the block and returned, the below suspects were fighting in the middle of the street. Both subjects were arrested for engaging in an affray. Jailed were Misses Emma Lee Ross, 27, 714 S. Bloodworth Street; and Lesla Quiller, 28, 1522 Southgate Drive.

CUT BY STRANGERS

Willie McCullers, 25, 220 S. East Street, told Officer W. B. Harrington at 12:32 a.m. Saturday, that he was "talking to a friend of mine" in front of Gales' Tavern, 410 E. Davie Street, when four or five Negro males jumped him. He stated that he did not know any of them. He was cut over the right eye.

STABBED IN HIP

Donnel Stewart, 16 N. East Street, reported to Officer B.M. Perry at 2:49 a.m. Saturday, that he was playing cards in a friend's room at this address

(which is a boarding house), and James Dockery, 42, same address, came into the room and stabbed him in the left hip. Investigative notes revealed that the subject had been drinking when he was stabbed.

RUNS FROM ATTACKERS

Herbert Alford, 20, 710 Manly Street, told two cops at 1:24 a.m. Saturday, that he was walking on Manly Street when three or four Negro males jumped him and fell on top of him. He said one of them cut him on the left leg with a sharp instrument and he finally managed to break free and "split the scene." He was unable to identify any of his attackers or give any description of them. His left leg was lacerated.

DAMAGE AT BROOKS

Wilbert E. Sanders, an employee at Brooks Appliance Company, 120 S. Blount Street, reported to an officer at 7:30 p.m. Friday, that the north door was broken in the building, setting off the burglar alarm. Two subjects were seen running from the building and ran into Oates' Pool Room. Dale Williams, 17, 500 Solar Drive (Apollo Heights), was arrested inside the pool room and Willie Vick, also 17, 1425 Garner Road, was last seen running east on E. Hargett Street. A warrant is on file for him, charging damage to property, as Williams was charged.

WOMAN'S HEAD CUT

Miss Naomi Yvonne Hooker,

34, 112 Cooke Street, told two cops at 8:32 p.m. Sunday, that she was at 1125 Page Street, when she and a Negro male began arguing. The woman stated that the subject was Junior Wiley Ings, 39, 613 Candor Street. She said he struck her on the head with his fist and then with an ash tray. A warrant was signed and Mr. Ings was "hauled off" to Wake County Jail on an assault and battery on a female rap. There were blood stains in the middle room, leading outside. Ings "split the scene" from the house, but was caught moments later on Upchurch Street. Miss Hooker suffered a three inch cut on top of the head.

SLASHED OVER GIRLFRIEND

Lawrence Gist, 52, 822 S. Blount Street, informed Officer P. E. Braswell at 3:30 p.m. Sunday, that a subject with the first name of Curtis 40 of "somewhere in the 200 block of S. Blount," cut him over a girlfriend. Mr. Gist said he was knifed in the living room at 822 S. Blount. Gist declared his attacker "was drunk on wine when the incident took place." Gist said he walked to 1010 Mark Street to call "the law." He also refused to give the officers Curtis' last name. "The complainant had been drinking and was carried to Wake Memorial Hospital to have a stab wound in the top of the left hand treated. The weapon used was a hawk bill knife," ended the police report.

TWO ASSAULT COP

Officer Robert Henry Phillips, 26, reported to Officer A. C. Holt, Jr. at 10:02 a.m. Sunday, that he was attempting to arrest Willie Junior Thorpe, Negro male, 39, for public intoxication, when Thorpe's wife, Mrs. Geraldine Thorpe, 32, both of 532 E. Davie Street, interfered with him. The officer then told Mrs. Thorpe that she was also under arrest, and at this time, Mrs. Thorpe struck him over the head with a board. Both were jailed on assault on an officer charges. The incident took place at the intersection of E. Lenoir Street and Chavis Way. Phillips suffered bruises of the head and neck. A witness was listed as the Rev. Clyde B. Walton, 124 Center Street, Garner. His police cap, valued at $39, was reportedly stolen by Mrs. Thorpe, who was also charged with larceny.

STRUCK WITH SHOVEL

Mrs. Loushala Trenton Edwards, 46, 317 S. Bloodworth Street, informed Officer Anthony Dunbar at 7:40 a.m. Saturday, that she was drinking with a group of subjects in the kitchen at that address and said that she "had words with a subject," whom she knew as Roy Murrat, same address. The woman declared that Murrat got a shovel from behind the kitchen door and struck her with it. Mrs. Edwards said when she "came to" she found herself in the hospital. "The complainant was unconscious and drunk at the time of assault," the officer noted. She suffered a cracked collar bone, concussion, a fractured skull and a two inch laceration of the forehead.

STABBED IN HEAD

Robert Lumford, 46, 213 S.
