

FROM RALEIGH'S OFFICIAL POLICE FILES
THE CRIME BEAT

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE)

TRIES TO KILL SELF

Samuel Eugene Evans, 22, 816 Bringham Road, told Officer J. T. Davis at 1:03 a. m. last Tuesday, that he and his wife had been having problems for about two weeks. The man said that on this date, after she threatened to leave him, he swallowed a bottle of twenty-four aspirin. He was taken to Rex Hospital, where he was given medicine to induce vomiting.

WOMAN STABS WOMAN

Miss Catherine Elaine Alston, 18, 1127 S. State Street, Apt. 3, reported to Officer W. B. Holland at 2:09 a.m. Thursday, that she and Miss Martha McNeill, 608 E. Cabarrus, and some other girls were at a night club in the 400 block of S. Bloodworth Street, when she and Miss McNeill got into a "fuss" and began fighting, but said some colored males broke them up. Miss Alston said she then went home and came back to the club. Upon her arrival, Miss McNeill was standing on the street with a knife. Miss McNeill told Miss Alston she was going to kill her and they started fighting again and Miss Alston was stabbed in the back and "cut in several places," including the right hand. A witness was Johnny Johnson of 208 E. Lenox Street.

STEREO IS "SWIPPED"

Earl Miles, 504 Smithfield Street, informed Officer L. R. Hall at 11:40 p. m. Wednesday, that when he left home that morning, his portable stereo was still there. However, he declared, when he returned home that evening from work, he found it to be missing. Mr. Miles said the only person seen near the house that day was a man who rooms upstairs and drives a 1965 or 1966 Ford with Maryland license plates on it. Miles said the doors of the house were open all day. The stereo was valued at $60.

JANDED FOR CAR DAMAGE

Miss Wilma Jean Collins, 1314 S. East Street, told Officer R. E. Keeter at 12:38 a. m. Saturday, that Miss Boyce Garrett, 39, 717 S. Bloodworth Street, threw a brick and broke out the rear glass of her 1960 Chevrolet in the 700 block of S. Bloodworth. She signed a damage to property warrant against the woman, who was arrested on that rap.

STEALS CIGARETTES

Danny Luther Jons, an employee at the A&P Store, 201 E. Hargett Street, related to Officer B. R. Turner at 12:19 p. m. Saturday, that he saw Louis Scarborough, 51, 1114 S. Bloodworth Street, in the parking lot of the store with two cartons of Salem cigarettes. Scarborough was refused by the magistrate.

tea, valued at $4.80, which he took without paying for. Scarborough admitted taking the merchandise with the intent of getting caught and going to jail. He realized his desire. He was "carted off" to Wake County Jail on a larceny charge.

THROWS WAGON WHEEL

Jesse Martin McLaurin, 38, 1314 S. East Street, reported to a cop at 11:40 a. m. Saturday, that Miss Wilma Jean Collins, 35, same address, threw a wagon wheel at him, striking him on the right forehead at 715 S. Bloodworth Street. He said he would sign an assault with a deadly weapon warrant against the woman. McLaurin suffered a laceration on his forehead, two inches in length.

MAN IS ASSAULTED

Phillip Ivey, 58, 711 S. Bloodworth Street, told Officer C. K. Womble at 9:08 p. m. Saturday, that Everette Scott, 35, address unlisted, and another colored male, stopped him at the corner of Dawson and Dorothea Drive, and demanded that he give them some cigarettes. Ivey said he gave them some and then they demanded the entire pack. Ivey refused to give it up and they "jumped on me and held me to the ground and took all of my cigarettes. Then Everette Scott picked up a brick and struck me in the back, near my ribs." Mr. Ivey said he did not know where Scott lives. He suffered a large bruise on the back.

THREATENED BY DAD

Miss Alberta Banks, 24, 535 Dorothea Drive, reported to the cops at 5:35 p. m. Saturday, that she was threatened by her father, Herman Banks, 60, with a knife, during an argument about a check. The woman went before Magistrate Smith, who issued a warrant against Banks, charging disorderly conduct. Miss Banks signed the warrant and Banks was "hauled off" to Wake County Jail. A warrant, charging assault with a deadly weapon was refused by the magistrate.

BEATEN IN STREET

According to Willie McCullough, James Privette, 31, 414 S. Bloodworth Street, told Officer R. L. Sauls at 1:12 a.m. Saturday, he was standing at 408 E. Davie Street when he was struck beside the head and knocled to the pavement, cutting the back of his head. McCullough, 220 S. East St., also stated that he helped Privette when he was taken to the hospital.

that he had placed his shotgun in the corner of his bedroom when his nephew, Floyd Lee Montague, 20, 12 Granville Terrace, came in and stole the weapon. The gun was valued at $68 and a warrant was advised against young Montague.

BEATEN IN STREET

According to Willie McCullough, James Privette, 31, 414 S. Bloodworth Street, told Officer R. L. Sauls at 1:12 a.m. Saturday, he was standing at 408 E. Davie Street when he was struck beside the head and knocled to the pavement, cutting the back of his head. McCullough, 220 S. East St., also stated that he helped Privette when he was taken to the hospital.

MAN SEVERELY BEATEN

David Henry Rogers, 37, told two cops at 6:22 p. m. Friday, that he and two other occupants were headed into Raleigh on Highway 70 from Durham when they stopped for a light at Glenwood Avenue and Leadmine Road. A Coastal Lines truck came up to Rogers' car, stopped to the rear and the truck driver and another black male got out and came up to the car and proceeded to threaten him and the other occupants, then assaulted Rogers and the others with their feet and fists. Rogers said he can identify the driver of the truck. Rogers, a white man, was treated for a cut on the right lip, suffered three loose teeth and bruises on the left side of the upper torso.

WOMAN ATTACKED

Miss Vanessa Gay Wright, 17, informed Officer F. L. Rountree at 3:33 a. m. Friday that she was engaging in an affair with Miss Evonne Gatham in the 700 block of E. Martin Street. Miss Gatham, 16, of the 700 block of E. Martin, said they were fighting over a young man. Miss Wright said the young man was Leon Young, a witness, of 1109 Smithfield Street.

NABBED FOR STEALING

Mrs. Maggie Smith, 910 E. Jones Street, informed Officer D. N. Scott at 4:50 p. m. Saturday, that when the mailman came to her house, Johnny Goggins, 51, same address, met him on the front porch and received her welfare check. The woman signed a larceny warrant and Goggins was incarcerated in jail.

SHOTGUN "LIFTED"

Haywood Sanders, 1331-A Holman Street, reported to an officer at 12:31 a.m. Sunday that he had placed his shotgun in the corner of his bedroom when his nephew, Floyd Lee Montague, 20, 12 Granville Terrace, came in and stole the weapon. The gun was valued at $68 and a warrant was advised against young Montague.

STEALS TELEVISION SET

Plummer Lee Hinton, 524 E. Hargett Street, related to Officer R. DeVone at 10:32 a. m. last Wednesday, that he last saw his Philco portable, black and white television in his living room that morning. A witness, he stated, Mrs. Elma Marie Porter, same address, saw Lewis Dew leave Hinton's house with the television set. The set was valued at $469.90.

STEALS TELEVISION SET

Plummer Lee Hinton, 524 E. Hargett Street, related to Officer R. DeVone at 10:32 a. m. last Wednesday, that he last saw his Philco portable, black and white television in his living room that morning. A witness, he stated, Mrs. Elma Marie Porter, same address, saw Lewis Dew leave Hinton's house with the television set. The set was valued at $469.90.

WALKS IN, STEALS

Mrs. Magdalene Hall Woodall, an employee of J. C. Penney's Store, 400 Daniels St., told Officer James E. (Sonny) Lane at 8:41 p. m. Wednesday, that a suspect, believed to be James Talloferro Moss, 302 Normandy Street, Durham, walked into the store and picked up a Fencrest nine inch portable black and white television set and placed it in the trunk of a car. Raleigh police were unable to retrieve the set because the automobile had gone back to Durham before they arrived on the scene. Arrested, however, was Miss Evelyn Barnes 23, 1472 Sedgfield St., Durham. She was charged with larceny.

CELEBRATES 81ST BIRTHDAY

Sister Effie Daley, 211 Freeman Street, observed her eighty-first birthday on Tuesday, July 4. She is the founder-president of the Sunshine Band, which consists of children who go around with her to different churches, singing the songs of Zion. The mother of three children, Lorenza Carson of Raleigh; Herbert, Spokane, Washington, and Mrs. Amelia Albritton of Boston, Mass. She has several grandchildren, including Edward Carson, immediate past president of the Raleigh Citizens Association, Lorenza Carson, Jr., Buffalo, N.Y., Mrs. Mary Lee Carson Jones, Newark, N. J., Zeb Albritton, Jr., New York and Nina Albritton, also of New York. Sister Daley has eleven great grandchildren.

ATTACKED ON STREET

Joseph Leroy Poole, 22, white male of 540 North Blount St., informed Officer R. L. Hawley at 5:08 p. m. last Tuesday, that he was walking across Fayetteville Street, in the 200 block, when Johnny Williams, 21, 13 Lincoln Terrace (Chavis Heights), came at him. He said Williams kicked his feet out from under him, then struck him on the arm and chest with his fists. Williams was arrested on an assault and battery rap.

BREAKS DOWN DOOR

Miss Emma Jean McNeill, 28, 620 Grantland Drive (Apollo Heights), told Officer Freddie W. Mitchell at 10:29 p. m. Thursday, that Willie Johnson McNeill, Jr., 25, same address, "broke down the back door, came inside and started beating on me." Damage to the door was placed at $50. Her injuries were not listed. The man was jailed and charged with assault on a female.

WOMAN FLIM-FLAMMED

Miss Eileen Sheila Fawkes, an employee at Uncle Don's Barbecue, 2850 S. Wilmington Street, reported to Officer F. D. McLamb at 7:25 p.m. Thursday, that she walked on a black customer, about 21, after which she received a $10 bill. The woman said she gave him his money, and asked for more change. She admitted he got her confused and when he left, she was $30 short. The barbecue business called "the law" about 10 p. m. and the manager said the same subject came back and tried his flim-flam again, but left before the officer arrived again.

CLAIMS "HIS WOMAN"

Robert Taylor, 28, 314 Heck Street, reported to Officer W. B. Holland at 4:33 a. m. Saturday, that he was at 72 E. Davie Street and was talking with a girl. He also stated that Alvin Yates, 209 Linden Avenue, came up, pulled the girl away and said, "This is my woman." Taylor also stated that they went outside to fight and Yates pulled a pistol from his hip pocket and said, "Come on and fight." Taylor said he told Yates that he would not fight that way. A warrant charging assault with a deadly weapon, was advised.

cause the automobile had gone back to Durham before they arrived on the scene. Arrested, however, was Miss Evelyn Barnes 23, 1472 Sedgfield St., Durham. She was charged with larceny.

TAMPERS WITH BUS

David Howard, an employee at Carolina Trailways Garage, 1301 E. Blount Street, reported to two cops at 1:27 a. m. Wednesday, that he received a call from Joe Black, 321 Davian Road, a yard worker at the garage, that he should call the police because there was a person in a bus and had started it several times, but was unable to keep the vehicle in motion, due to the air brakes. He also said that the person inside the bus was neither a driver nor a mechanic. Inside the bus when the cops arrived was John Mitchell, 22-year-old black man of 5900 North Ave., Portsmouth, Va. He was charged with tampering with an auto.

ATTACKED ON STREET

Joseph Leroy Poole, 22, white male of 540 North Blount St., informed Officer R. L. Hawley at 5:08 p. m. last Tuesday, that he was walking across Fayetteville Street, in the 200 block, when Johnny Williams, 21, 13 Lincoln Terrace (Chavis Heights), came at him. He said Williams kicked his feet out from under him, then struck him on the arm and chest with his fists. Williams was arrested on an assault and battery rap.

BREAKS DOWN DOOR

Miss Emma Jean McNeill, 28, 620 Grantland Drive (Apollo Heights), told Officer Freddie W. Mitchell at 10:29 p. m. Thursday, that Willie Johnson McNeill, Jr., 25, same address, "broke down the back door, came inside and started beating on me." Damage to the door was placed at $50. Her injuries were not listed. The man was jailed and charged with assault on a female.

SISTER BETTY

You've seen her on T.V. Read about her in the papers. NOW SEE HER IN PERSON. Touch of her hand will heal you. She has God-given power to heal by prayer. Are you suffering? Are you sick? Do you need help. Do you have bad luck? Bring your problems to Sister Betty. Advise on all affairs of life. There is no problem so great that she can't solve. (How to hold your job when you've failed and how to succeed). She has devoted a life-time to this work. Men and women have come to her from the four corners of the world. Guaranteed to remove evil influence and bad luck. There's no pity for those knowing they're in hard luck and need help and do not come for it. One visit will convince you. Lifts you out of sorrow and darkness and starts you on the way to success and happiness. She invites you to her home. Open seven days a week: 7 a.m. to 10 p.m.

SPECIAL READING $1 WITH THIS AD
330 E. Hargett St. Raleigh, N. C. 834-2007

Lightner Insurance Agency

Life -- Retirement --- Education --- Mortgage

THOMAS MIAL LEWYN HAYES, JR.

Insurance Programming and Financial Planning Specialists

CORNERSTONE FINANCIAL SERVICES INCORPORATED
(A Subsidiary of Keystone Custodian Funds, Inc.)

LEWYN HAYES, JR. Registered Representative 312 Smithfield St. Business 833-1677 Home 825-7642

LINCOLN THEATRE ROBBED
Miss Jean Alston, cashier at the Lincoln Theatre, 128 E. Cabarrus Street, informed Officer R. L. Hawley at 9:12 Thursday, that a Negro male walked up to the ticket office and pulled a towel from his hand, revealing a small pistol. The woman also stated that she told the suspect that the cash box wouldn't go through the slot, so he demanded the bills and about this time, Miss Mary Ann Partin, 19, who lives at 809 Colonial Drive, walked out the door with the refreshment money. The suspect grabbed her and took the money from the box. The suspect "split the scene," headed east on E. Cabarrus, but he was $57 richer.

WOMAN FLIM-FLAMMED
Miss Eileen Sheila Fawkes, an employee at Uncle Don's Barbecue, 2850 S. Wilmington Street, reported to Officer F. D. McLamb at 7:25 p.m. Thursday, that she walked on a black customer, about 21, after which she received a $10 bill. The woman said she gave him his money, and asked for more change. She admitted he got her confused and when he left, she was $30 short. The barbecue business called "the law" about 10 p. m. and the manager said the same subject came back and tried his flim-flam again, but left before the officer arrived again.

CLAIMS "HIS WOMAN"
Robert Taylor, 28, 314 Heck Street, reported to Officer W.

Good Gordon's Gin!

Biggest seller. Super-dry is why!

$4.40 4 1/2 Qt. $2.75 Pint

PRODUCT OF U.S.A. 100% MENTAL SPIRITS DISTILLED FROM GRAIN. 50 PROOF. GORDON'S VERY OLD GIN, LTD., LONDON, ENGLAND.

KERR'S BEN FRANKLIN

DISCOUNT HEALTH and BEAUTY AIDS

for your shopping convenience we either have in our stock or can get most items advertised in Kerr's large page ad plus the national Ben Franklin store items.

KERR'S BEN FRANKLIN

We Honor Master Charge and BankAmericard Free At Door Parking 2000 New Bern Avenue Longview Shopping Center RALEIGH - DIAL 828-2159

BEN FRANKLIN

We Honor Master Charge and BankAmericard Free At Door Parking 2000 New Bern Avenue Longview Shopping Center RALEIGH - DIAL 828-2159

Brittain's CHILDREN'S DEPARTMENT

DOWNTOWN RALEIGH ONLY

Thursday-Friday-Saturday

SALE — Girls Spring & Summer DRESSES SPORTSWEAR and Group Boys & Girls Odds & Ends

CHILDREN'S SHOE SALE 1000 Pairs Boys & Girls Spring and Summer Dress & Play SHOES Values $9.95 to $17.95

1/2 off Now 1/2 off

You Can afford Key homes.

CALL 828-0538

Payments $85 - $95 Per Month

Based on Income and Number in Family

The New Section in Kingwood Forest is Now Open

3 and 4 Bedroom Homes. All Electric $17 — $20,000

VA-FHA-235 LIMITED FUNDS

Key Homes

EQUAL HOUSING OPPORTUNITY

828-0538

Salem refreshes naturally!

Natural Menthol is why.

Salem uses only natural menthol, not the kind made in a laboratory. Like our rich, full-flavored tobaccos, our menthol is naturally grown.

Then we blend natural menthol with our superb golden tobaccos. It is a unique blend found in no other cigarette. A blend that gives Salem a taste that's never harsh or hot... a taste as naturally cool and fresh as Springtime.

Warning: The Surgeon General Has Determined That Cigarette Smoking Is Dangerous to Your Health.

20 mg. "tar," 1.1 mg. nicotine av. per cigarette. FTC Report APR. 72.