COCU Holds Meeting On New Rules

LOS ANGELES. Calif Should churches baptize infants or adults? Should they use a lot of water or just a little? Should syong children be given communion immediately after baptism. or should they wait until they are older?

These issues have divided Christians since the Sixteenth Century and are a major source of difference between Protest and denominations today.

A new baptismal liturgy authorized today by the Executive Committee of the Consultation on Church Union may change all that. The new ligurgly can be adapted to suit the traditions of each of the eight COCU denominations.

The Executive Committee of CICU met December 18-20 at the Lim Angelea Hilton.
