Music Notes And Half Notes

By MRS. E. M. KELLY

Hallelujah! For The Lord, God omnipotent reigneth. Praises to all who will and would sing, sing and keep on singing this glorious song of praise. It lifts burdens. It fills all hungry souls.

The First Baptist Church choir, under Mrs. Branche, did a lovely performance of "The Hallelujah" by Handel.

This thrilled all of us and filled us with the MRS. KELLY spirit of the Christ Child. You simply must accept real MUSIC FOR WHAT IT IS AND SAY "OH MUSIC."

Thank God for those who recognize and love it for what it is. God! We thank Thee for the gift of MUSIC. The only art from heaven, which will go back to heaven.

We are prouder and prouder of Mr. John Massenburg, Jr., Mus. B. M. A. Mus.; still doing further work. Orchids to him. He was here Christmas and I am so very happy of his achievement in Detroit, Michigan, at Calvary Baptist Church, Stuart and Concord Streets, Detroit, Michigan-48297. Rev. Charles William Butler, is pastor and John Massenburg, is minister of music and organist.

An unusual program arrangement was on Christmas Eve, 1972. Organ recital-Massenburg. Using Bach and Purvis selections.

This beautifully done, was followed by "A service of lessons, carols and anthems." Butler.

The skeleton of the entire audition was made up of hymns or anthems and readings-from the Bible.

The various choirs did the singing and the pastor, the reading. In all there were nine lessons, six anthems and six hymns, closing with, "Hallelujah"-(Messiah)-Handel. By Youth and Adult choir. The offering, prayer and the benediction followed. Silent Night, Holy Night-Gruber, choir and congregation; O Holy Night-Adam.

And waste a little on the ground, But don't waste time the year around.

Now what did you do with old last year, Use it in boldness, or waste it in fear; Here comes one that is brand new, So mind the course that you persue.

No one makes a year but God, So act intelligent and don't be odd;

Resolve to keep the new year clean, Make it more than an empty dream.

Jesus came and started A. D., Before He came it was B. C.; Time is marked by heaven's King, Let silver bells for new year ring, Keep on buying, playing, singing and listening to GOOD MUSIC.
