BY MRS. A. H. THORPE TELEPHONE- 832-3029

A LITTLE TOUCH LORD When my heart is weak in despair.

There is a need of you Lord somewhere Then I kneel down and pray and I get a little touch Lord

You led me from the dark road of sin, Give me peace and joy deep

You seem to brighten up the

and I know the reason why Because I had a little touch from you Lord!

RECENT HOLIDAY GUESTS Mrs. Eva Mae Coadie of 1315 Jones Street had as her recent guests during the holidays her sisters, Mrs. Annie Belle Cherry and Mrs. Chris Covington, both of Monroe, also her brother, Mr. Alex D. Coess of Washington, D. C. They reported a most enjoyable time with Sis. Hurry back. FLY TO DETROIT Miss Erma Bennie and Mr. Sidney Mimms of 552 Fountain they enjoyed the holidays with relatives and friends. They have reported an exciting and enjoyable trip. ENJOYS HOLIDAY WITH

CHILDREN IN NEW YORK Mrs. Bernice Dunston Hall of

717 E Lenior Street and Mrs. Annie Tate Webb of New Bern Avenue enjoyed the holidays with their children in New York While there, they had a chance wisit with some of their school mates. Mr. and Mrs. James Mrs. Rogers is the former Lalla Watts of this city also Miss Alma Nicholson. Surpris ingly but true they ran into Prof. High. A one time coach around here.

They two have reported an enjoyable and exciting trip.

THE MELODIC SINGERS ENTERTAIN
The Melodic Singers held their annual Christmas Party for the patients and nurses at the Wake County Home. The program opened with the singing of Joy To The World singing of Joy To The World. Prayer was offered by Bro. Clarence Henry Christmas remarks were given by Mrs. Alma Jones and Mrs. Lessie Harris, a duet was by Master Charles Brooks and sister Susan. They enjoyed the eating of cake and punch. The cake is baked each punch. The cake is baked each Anderson and decorated with one enjoyed themselves just fine and each one received a

Bryant, Catherine Hough, Annie Pugh, Claudie Peoples. Elmo Walker Irene Scales, Mary Raines, and Ethel

Johnson. Each one present expressed their delight and having enjoyed a lovely even-

The Ministers' Wives Alliance

held their Party at the Martin Street Baptist Church annex.

The inclement weather did not disturb the royal entertainment provided for by the hostess. The beautiful. The Christmas Story was read by Mrs. P. H. Johnson.

Games were led by Mesdames Delany, Avery and Edgerton.
They were lively and the question interesting, several participants won prizes. Fol-lowing the activities gifts were exchanged. Mr. Charles Jones distributed the the gifts. The hostess served a delicious repast. Hostesses were Mes-

Roberts and Naomi Debnam

their wives. Rev. and Mrs. Leotha Debnam, Rev. and Mrs.

P. H. Johnson and daughter Rev. and Mrs. C.W. Ward, Rev and Mrs. W. J. Wilson, Rev and Mrs. Charles Jones, Rev. and Mrs. Brown.

Other guests were Mrs. Williams, Brenda and James Young. Members present, Mesdames J. D. Henry, M. B. Sapp, V. L. Sanders, Clyde Walton, L. E. Young, Lucille Clemons May we say thanks to you and

May we say thanks to you and remember that I am as near to and Lolleta Avery. Sever ministers were the guests

Christmas decorations

CHRISTMAS PARTY HELD

Mary Raines,

gift. We want to thank all the guests that helped in anyways to make it a joyous and happy affair. Thanks very much the president, Mrs. Jessie Raines.

HOSTESS TO NEW YEAR'S PARTY PARTY

Mrs. Laura McClera of 441 Fowle St. was hostess to the Pauline Missionary Group as they held their New Year's Party. They enjoyed many different kinds of games and then was served a dinner of turkey with all the trimmings. Portsmouth, Va. in 1942 - "She is a gem in any church."

It was in Rev. W. A Jennings' Members present were Mr. and Mrs. James Stroud. Mesdames Amie Avery, Josephine White-head, Vera Murphy, Josephine great revival taht she again demonstrated her versatility. During that revival the choir herself a moving spirit, but Mrs. Wortham was not through, her touch, her ability to interpret the mood of the hearers, and combine the spirit of the hymns; the chants and the subtems. She was the "meet" of her ear is affected, but wherever she gets the chance, to attend church, her place at the console is expected.

etc. to purchase a piano at the Crosby-Garfield School. The late Mrs. Julia Amey Williams was the principal. As far as I have been able to recall, nobody else was to play that piano Well, there were some few exceptions. "Little" Will Baras given a chance. Cool Diton came and gave a program for us. Prof Haggor Dorn, who had formerly been the head of the music departition. ment at Meredith College, was the first head of the city school music dept. As a kid, I can remember some of the original tunes - The Soliders Chorus From Townehouser - "Battl From Townehouser "Battle Hymn of the Republic" and "Over There." This was a period around World War I. This was a time when physical education was not taught as such in the public schools. Mrs. Wortham teamed up with Miss Leva Hunter, on Field Day Dumb Bell Drills, folk dancing, sprints, relays and what-haveyou filled the gamut of the day. So that the honor student, general student, super athlete, slow learner all learned to love Mrs. Celia and to adore and respect her musical ability. Friend Alma T. Williams, 714 S. East St., was confined to her home last week. She had as her guest, an old friend, Lucile Simon Williams of Wilmington. Lucile has already retired from

Mr. Charlie Hodge, Jr., the cry popular son of Mr. Charlie lodge, Sr. and Mrs. Lula B. Hodge Burnette, was a Christnas isitor in our fair city.

I had a fine chat with "Doll"

I had a fine chat with "Doil Haywood Irst week at Ross Fowler's Barber Shop. At the finale he had his same old homespun philosophy. "Doll" is doing all right; he is spending more time at his home on S. Fact St. for a good reason. "Si East St. for a good reason - his St. for a good reason - his urday, January 13, from "noor urday, January 13, from "noor to none." And in addition Carrie confined

Mrs. Rena B. Carmichael, Newcombe Rd., was hospitalized last week. Mrs. Carmichael is an important cog in the church life of St. Matthew A.M.E. Scout program. We wish seeing him to eard of contact me! Last heard of Charlie was in the New York

Last weekend, Smiling Lillie Turner, Gladys Phillips, Carrie Morgan, Lillian Baker, and their friends held forth at the Elks Home. They had loaded plates of food for all who luckily plates of food for all who luckily dropped by. Why don't you plan to drop by Saturday. They're going to do it again.

William "Doodlum" Tate came home a different way. He was the big full-spirited, easy-going-buoyant personality of the past "Doodlum" had been sick real sick. Many had, at times, to think of him in terms of lost things. Many terms of lost things. Many thought of him as he made the trip with the Raleigh Teachers to Philadelphia last summer But that was a different "Doodlum." Many remember him as the big bustling fullback in the Napoleon Johnson. "Bobo" Hunter era "Dood-lum" was different Others remembered him as the one-two punch on Coach Pete Williams' championship baseball clubs When his weight, his speed atoot, his skill made him most not vocal he could not talk

Morgan, Lillie Turner, Bertha Musgrave, Lillian Barker, Gladys Phillips, Gladys Bridgers and Mary Turner would serve as hostesses. I surely hore that it more should he could not run, he could not surely hope that it passes ok.

But lest I appear evosive let me make the number one announcement of the year.
Smiling Lillie Turner has been elevated to Cuisive Chairman for 1973. I was sorely disturbed for I did not know how my friend of long standing-Lillian Barker would take it I had tried to intimate it to her some months ago that something was about to take place but to no avail. Mrs. Turner brings year of exper-ience and know how to the office plus her friendliness to Mrs. Barker, assures the Lodge of a co-operativeness never before experienced. And while I am talking about Mrs. Barker let me pew some flowers. under Mrs. Barker. The Elks kitchen has become the most talked about kitchen in Negro journal-ism. Under Mrs. Barker, the co-operation of the Lodge has let a new high. At an early hour in the evening for the most part they old ut signs have to be displayed. Her deep desire to work with every person on any committee had ways of showing itself in the sale successes of the kitchen. Lillian is gratified for all that. But above, she is "Beanie Miais, as Charles was affectionately c a lied, has numerous friends here. His social schedule is always "tops" when he arrives. If he did not get to see you this time. grateful to Simon Penny-Most of the readers might have forgotten Simon but I haven't At one time, Lillian needed some chores done and in the door walked Simon. Simon im-Twas really heart-warming to me to feel the touch of Jim mediately did what Lillian asked, said Lillian The Lord must have brought you. But as last week when I went to his office, the register of deeds, to find out who had "received their the evening wore on somehow Simon vexed Lillian. Lillian papers." Jim made his office wide open to me. Take a good Simon vexed Lillian. Lillian asked, When is the Lord coming back after you. But Lillian temper did not always run the gament except where I was concerned. Exalted Ruler Glenwood Arreary Crudup, 21. of Raleigh and Cathie Ann Upchurch, 23, or Wake Forest. Haywood Vance and the general public of dinner eaters join me in saying Well done. Lillian. But Lillian was not the only source of news. My good friend, Rose DeLane, called me over to where she was seated and where she was seated and invited me to evaute her news of one Mrs. Flossie Hunter. What a Command? What an utter impossibility? At that same table sat Mrs. George Gooch, Henderson, Mr. and Gooch, Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. Gooch were not strangers, they were major contributors of good humor to the gathering. Rev. Upchurch was there and believe it or not his feet were at ease. Roy, as usual was in great spirit. He frequently helps Oates McCabe, Harden Lee and Gil Morgan put the finishing touches on the job of panelling touches on the job or paneling the interior of the home. Yes, McCabe. Lee Morgan and Upchurch were much apart of the evening. Pete Moss, my man, from Chapel Hill and Durham area, came in. The house woke up at his coming. He is just that type of winsome personality Brother Braxton and Ike "Fat-Daddy" McClain added much to my day.

Mr. Florence Sanders, lany Drive, continues on the sick and shut in list. Her many friends wish for her a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Susan Leach, 612 E. Mrs. Susan Leach, 612 E. Davie St., remains on the sick and shut in list. It is our wish for her that recovery will be speedy. Mrs. Rosa Beard, Freeman a member of St. Matthew AME Church, is reported "much improved." from her original home, Mount Pleasant th Carolina. Ir. and Mrs. James Gaines

West Point, New York were the recent guests of Mrs. Gaines' mother, Mrs. Rose DeLaine, 318 E. Cabarrus St

Mr. and Mrs. Newell Hunter and family visited Mrs. Flossie Hunter, 416 E. Morgan St. They The Widows Club

The Widows Club gave a Christmas party at Pretty's Place, Dec. 30. The party featured live music, from 9 until

Come to Church? 12 CHAVIS WAY - 832-0159 IBY MRS. MAE L. BROADIE Virgie Beckwith Morning The church reporter is Elder Mildred Ruffin me with all your heart. Jeremiah 29:13.

Ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall searcheth

The hard, and at times, discouraging search of the wise men had been going on for a long time. Finally, the Star hovered over the place where the long awaited Saviour lay. In all their finery and with all their gifts, they went into the house these great and wise men from the East. They fell on their knees before the Child and worshipped Him. They came prepared to offer Him rich gifts, their finest gifts - gold, frankincense, and myrrh. To fill the emptiness and loneliness in our hearts, many of us have searched a long time before finding Christ as our personal

Do we not have the duty to share our experiences with others on their journey in life?
The 17th chapter of St. John is appropriately called a prayer of intercession. The word intercession of the pleading of cession means the pleading of one person for another. What the world needs today is for all Christians to be sincere and bold intercessors. Our God continues to be a prayer hearing God, he is ever waiting to hear our intercessions on behalf of the world - countries, govern-ments, societies, homes, and

LET US PRAY () Father, we thank You for everything. We thank You for keepiong us near Thee and for all Thy many blessings. Keep us mindful of those searching for an answer, one which we can an answer, one which we can help them find. Use us to guide them to Christ so that their search may end in rejoicing. Teach us to intercede for others. even while we are in the mids of persecution and trials. In ntorcy forgive us our sins, may we receive mercy and find grace in the hour of need. We ask these things in Thy name. FIRST CONGREGATIONAL

UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST - Christ Church School began at 9:45 with the general director, Mr. Lawrence Wilder, in charge. Morning worship was held at 11 with the call to worship by the Rev. Howard Cunningham. Invocation was followed by the threefold Amen. The morning lesson was read by the Rev. H. Cunningham. Morning prayer was offered by the Rev. Mr. Williamson of High Point. The officers, members and congregation extended a warm welcome to the new pastor, the Rev. Donald Ingram, who brought a very powerful sermon from the book of St. Matthew on the subject Lip Service. Everyone seemed very well pleased with the message. The Rev. Howard Cunningham young adult choir rendered music under the direction of Mr. Leonard Wilson. Communion was held at the end of the regardiners. The pastor, officers, and members bow in sympathy with the family of the late Mr. Harold Wade. Precious promise God hath given to the weary passers by on the way from will guide thee

WILSON TEMPLE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH CHRIST - Church S School CHRIST - Church School began at 9:30 with the general director, Mrs. C. S. Haywood, in charge. Morning worship began at 11 with the call to worship by the pastor, Rev. T. V. Carter, Sr. Invocation was followed by choral response by the senior choir, who rendered music for the morning under the direction of Mrs. Darlean Coleman. Morning lesson and prayer were given by the pastor who also brought a very rich sermon to the congregation. Communion was administered with mine eye.

BAPTIST Church School opened at 9:30 with the superintendent, Fire derick Smith, presiding Moraing wor-ship began at 11 with the senior choir in charge of the music under the direction of Mrs.

lam. All enjoyed an evening of fun. President Rose Delane, secretary Jessie Brown, trea-surer. Mrs Carrie Burgess.

Mrs Louise Evans, 20 Chavis Way, is improving nicely to the delight of her many friends.

prayer was led by the Rev. John Hicks. Scripture was read by the pastor, Rev. Leotha Deb-nam from Phil. 3:1-16. The was New Year's Resolutions Communion followed the ser-

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

 Sunday School began at 9:30 with the general director, Mrs.
 M.T. James in charge in the beginners department. Prayer was led by Little Miss Jewell Ellis. Morning worship was held at 11 with the call to worship given by the pastor, Dr. C. W. Ward, Sr. with invocation followed by choral response. The combined choir rendered music for the morning ser-under the direction of M Jesse Branche and accompanied at the piano by Mrs. N.G. Ward. The first hymn of the morning was O God Our Help in Ages Past. Responsive reading The Model Christian, was led by the pastor who also read the morning lesson from the book of Psalms. the 90th division. Morning prayer was by the Rev. E.E. Henry following was choral response. Offering was taken by the senior men ushers and deacons under the leadership of Mr. M.C. Hill. Following the hymn of meditation, th pastor delivered a wonderful pastor delivered a wonderful sermon on the subject, A New Calendar. The closing hymn was led by Deacon J. W. Yeargin. On our sick list are Mrs. E.M.M. Kelly and Mr. Earnest Davis. Our prayers go out to each of them. The pastor, officers, and members join in sympathy along with the members of the Good Samaritan Baptist Church in the passing of Mrs. Everleen Sanders Jones. We say to the family, there is never a day so dreary, but God can make it bright and to the Soul that trust Him, he giveth pure delight Him, he giveth pure delight There never is a path so hidden but God will show the way, if we will seek His guidance and patiently wait. There is never a heart so broken, but Jesus Christ can heal the heart once pierced on Calvary. He will ever fulfill His promise, His word can never fail. God is our help in trouble, our strength when foes assail. GETHSEMANE EVER READY HOLINESS — Sunday School began at 9:45 with our supt., Bro. Ronald Williams, in charge. The first hymn was by Miss Rose Marie Ruffin. Prayer was led by Deacon Benjamin Allen. The scripture was read by our supt. from St. Luke 6:1-10. The subject of the lesson was The New Covenant. The memory verse was "But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel. I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall be my people." Jeremiah 31:33.

Morning worship began at 11 with the choir marching in singing Devotions were led by Mother Williams and Deacon Daniel Sampson. Prayer was led by Mother Williams. The scripture was from Acts 2:2-27 The gospel message was given by our chairman, Bishop M. Smiley on the subject, Launch out Into The Deep from St.
Luke 5:1-15. The service was enjoyed by all. Remarks were made by Elder Mildred Ruffin.
The second part of the morning was in the hands of the choir president, Sister Beatrice Sampson. After the choir had rendered three beautiful selections, the offering was lifted by Deacon Willis Gaskins and Deacon Daniel Sampson. The service was closed with a prayer YPBS begins at 6:30 on Wednesday evening. There is a speaker each week.

TUPPER MEMORIAL Boy Scout leader. Deacon APTIST - Church School Albert Taylor is in charge. An On Friday night at 6:30 the boys wishing to join, call 834-4222.

On Saturday at 5:30 the choir will rehearse with Sister Beatrice Sampson in charge. THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

"Lord, as we look out upor your beautiful snow-covered world, we are struck by its splendor. We wonder at the perfect design of each tiny snowflake and we are reminded of the words of the psalmist who said, wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow."

MORNING STAR BAPTIST MORNING STAR BAPTIST
-- Sunday School began with the superintendent in charge. The first song was "Stand Up For Jesus." Next we had oraver
The subject discussed was The New Covenant." Jeremiah 31:33.

Worship services began by singing "Holy, Holy, Holy," Next, we had reesponsive reading from Matthew 25:34-46 Scripture and prayer followed.
Our pastor delivered a wonderful message from Ephesians 5:25, entitled The Head of POPLAR SPRINGS UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST — The first Sunday in January was Communion Day, along with the regular pastoral day. The senior choir rendered the music Invocation was given by the pastor.

Scripture was read by the pastor. He read from Ecclesiastes 11. Morning prayer was led by Deacon L. R. Whitaker. Deacon George Height, Jr. took charge of the mission offering. Apprource. mission offering. Announce-ments were made by Miss Brenda Sapp, secretary.

Rev. Albright extended a cordial welcome to the visitors to worship with us each first and third Sundays. Deacon Nord

Hayes lifted the public offering. Remarks came from the pastor, concerning the wonder-ful conference meeting held at the church last Thursday night. He stated how happy he was to be here today. A few days ago Rev. Albright was ill at Alamance County Hospital. He asked for the prayers of the congregation in his continued recovery The senior choir sang a spiritual followed by a brief message by the pastor on The Last Supper He delivered a wonderful sermon Communion followed the regular service.

Our sick and shut-in include Sister Alice Allen, Brother Abe Scott, Jr., and Sister Daisy

SMITH TEMPLE FREE WILL BAPTIST - Sunday School began at 10 with the supt Deacon Julius Young, in Deacon Julius Young, in charge. At 11 the call to worship was given by the pastor, Rev. McAllister. The senior choir was in charge of the music. The scripture was read from Acta 3:1-12 by Rev. Sanders. The invocation was given by Rev. Sis. Jordan. The mission was lifted as the choir sang Offertory prayer followed by Deacon Upchurch. Announce ments and recognition visitors were given by Mrs

Rev. McAllister delivered a soul stirring message from the subject Let Us Love One

METROPOLITAN RUSH AME ZION began at 9:45 a.m., despite the very inclement weather. Both supts., were on hand, but the assistant supt., Mr. Jesse Degraffenreidt was in charge. Following a short devotional period with all classes resembled. They moved to their respective classes for a 15 minute lesson study. After the reassembling of classes a brief summary of the lesson was given by Bro. Leslie Graham, dismissal followed. The regular morning worship services were conducted by our pastor, Rev. B. C. Young, Sr. pastor, Rev. B. C. Young, Sr. assisted by Bro. Neal Sanders. Music was rendered by both the senior choir and spiritual chorus of the church. Rev. Young preached our souls happy with his spiritual mes-sage. He chose his discourse from 2 passage of scripture, 2:20 Romans 8:29. ject, Identified With Christ. The minister began by saving every walk life we must have save identification. We need to measure our attributes. Identified by taking on the way of Christ.Then we must love like At 4 n m . all the captures of the debt retirement fund met with the pastor and perfected plans and means by which to begin working on the same. Certainly if we follow through as he has outlined it, there can be no failure. Visitors are always welcomed to our services. Mrs.Annie H. Thorpe is church reporter.

CUTTING THE CAKE - Miss Eva Jane Jones and William Joseph Fields were married recently in the bonte of the bride 1920 Hadley Rd. The Rev. W. A. Perry officiated. A reception tollowed

Mel Tomlinson, a Raleigh youth, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Tomlinson of 1216 Bunche Drive and a ...dent at the North Carolina School of the

Raleigh's Mel Tomlinson Is

In "Nutcracker" Ballet In NC

Arts, again recently toured surrounding areas of the state in the traditional Christmas "Nutcracker" ballet. Only this year the young man danced two leading roles that of Mous Kill of the first act and the Russian of ' act. He TrePak 1 from all

Having spent Christmas at received go the news medir a d was well received by full houses each home with his family, Mel departed December 26th for Augusta, Ga. where he danced for the Augusta Civic Ballet during the last week of December. After two days of in May.

rehearsal the dance was televised and was to be seen January 7th on Channel 12 in Augusta, Ga.

Then from Augusta, on Dec 31, he flew to Atlanta to dance with the Southern Atlanta Ballet Company until January 6. This dance, a rock number choreographed by Ginger Prince Hall was filmed for Educational Television and should premiere in Feb. Because it is a film, it will be shown from time to time during the year. It will be seen on Channel 8 (WGTV-TV) in Georgia, and hopefully Channe (our educational channel), in The a forementional televised performances will be done live at the Southern Regional Ballet Festival, which, this year, will be held in Richmond, Virginia

THE GOSPEL WORLD

Trueway Holy

Church in Apex

Sunday morning at 11 a.m Sister Lilliar

Asborne will be the speaker

Praver service

THOMAS

will be held at the same location on Wednesday night. Sister Beckwith will be the speaker.

ender a musical program unday at 7:30 p. m. at the same location.

Bro. Thomas Jackson and the Gospel Travellers will sponsor a program at the Young's Chapel Church on State Street Sunday night at 7 p.m. On program will be The Gospel Tones, Little Silver Star, Bro. Turner Watkins' Trio, Bro. Mitchell and others Bro Douglas Powell will celebrate his 28th singing anniversary, Jan 14th at Riley Hill School

Until next week, here is our thought for today. "God never changes, it is we who become confused and get off course.

on and the Evening Five will sing at the junior choir will render services Old Stage Road, Sunday at 7:30 at the Clifton Chapel Church in Spring Hope Sunday at 3:30 There will be

Brother Ed Hall and the Faith Tabernacle Holiness SMART - STYLISH RINGS We think these rings are really thing, if you don't agree, send for a full refund, No questions

FOR BIRTHSTONE RINGS
Please give month you were born.......
Please check LADIES [] or MEN'S [] YOUR RING SIZE IS.......

write for FREE 1973 CATALOG filled with New Wigs, Jewelry, Girdles and Bras, Half and Skin Aids etc... GOLD MEDAL PRODUCTS Dept 4 , Inwood, L.I.,N.Y.11696 which she was assigned Mrs Wortham started playing for St. Paul Church in her youth, while her father, the late Norfleet Jeffries, was an officer.

Her ardent practices and her zeal to be the best, made her genius easily and early detectable by the casual church attendants. As early as I can remember she was at that post in St. Paul in St. Paul.

was the inspiration for choir members and choristers alike. The late George Harris said "She is not replacable." The Rev. Charles E. Stewart, one of the greatest A.M.E. ministers, told me in

I want to pay an overdue tribute to Mrs. Celia J. Wortham for more than fifty years of faithful service as organist at St. Paul A.M.E. Church, as well as many, many years of outstanding unselfish service in the public schools to even walk. But "Doodlum" was happy to be at home. He had been allowed to come home for one day. And so, "Doodlum" is recovering - but slowly I got a few raps across the knuckles last week for my Christmas articles but I had the joy of knowing that at least they were well read. I have had some comments in the past that the brevity of my regular weekly column was a barometer of my feelings. Using that as a barometer, I must have felt fine Christmas week. Really such is not the case. Some weeks the press of other affairs take its toll. It has never been the publication's intervention in any way. -- This I should like to clear up so that I start the year right. Charlie Mial, an old classmate of mine, when we attended both Crosby-Garfield and Washington, was in the city for the holidays. I didn't see him but I've been assured that he, as always, was the guest of the C.J. Barbers on N. Tarboro St.

PETE'S PICKINS

"Beanie" Mials, as Charles was Rowland's hand on my shoulder

Richard Arriaga, 21, or Peurto

Rica and Pamela Elizabeth Barbee, 25, of Durham.

Herman Sylvester Jones, 23, of Glenn Ray Smith, 19, of Raleigh and Mable Elizabeth Perry, 21,

Word was received that the former Washington High School flash, then known as "Red" Al Williams, was at home for Christmas. Most of the old timers would testify at once in recognition of her amazing feats on the basketball court

Miss Williams is the sister of Mr. Harold Williams of Oberlin

Road and Mrs. Louise Williams

Hester of the same area. Miss

M.B. Bugg, now retired, was the coach of that group. Among the other members of that club were Nannie Allen, Daisy Kelly.

Addie Ashe, Minnie Stanley, Carrie Mitchiner. 'Twas nice to know that "Al" came home. I am certain that she enjoyed

I had a fine Saturday afternoon at the Elks Home, E.

Davie Street. last week. And, justifably so. The occaion was the Annual Wild Life Dinner

Raccoon, Rabbit, spare ribs and lectable vegetables adorned the nenderson, N. C. Gladys Phillips, Bertha Musgrave, Lillian Barker and Fanny McClain displayed their up to the minute skills in serving the watering mouths of a hungering multitude. Perhaps there were Certainly I enjoyed the entire affair. Mr. Alphonso Vance, state officer of Elks was announcement to make. Second der was going to "dinner sell Sat-resent. Finally I saw Exalted Ruler Julius Haywood. It was mandatory that I should see him for I had a most important

Gladys

dishes. Mesdanes Eva Gooch

chicken with three most

Henderson, N.

more assistants.

that the order

Garner and Patricia Whitaker, 23, of Salisbury.

he will when he returns!

look at these:

of Raleigh.

kept the spirit high with the theme song, "I'll Take Jesus For Mine." What a choir! It was in this revival that a young woman, now affectionately known as Sister Gary, made anthems. She was the "poet" of the organ. Even when her sight began to fail, she somehow showed a capacity for spirit indisclosed until this time. Now

It was many, many years ago that a group of school students sold candy, bought snowballs, her teaching post in the "Port for her a quick recovery.

"Old" Charlie Lassiter has eluded me. Anyone see Charlie, please tell him dangerous, "Doodlum" wa vocal But this time "Doodlum immediately after the ceremony in the home of the bride. It was given by her niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. John Witherspoon of Charlotte, and some friends of Raleigh, Mrs. H. P. Coleman, Mrs. Madeline Keith, Mrs. Myrtle Lytle, Mrs. Hattie Vance and Mrs.

Pepsi-Cola Bottling Co., Of Raleigh

2838 WAKE FOREST LOAD RALEIGH, NORTH (AROLINA