Christmas Can Be Beautiful When You Spend It With Christ

The Youth Crusaders of Deliverance Center, held their second banquet. It was held in the Elizabeth Ball Room in the Sir Walter Hotel. The wear was formal and the menu was turkey and dressing, fluff potatoes, southern string beans, fruit cup, salad, hot rolls, cranberry sauce, tea or coffee and apple pie. The motto for that great occasion, Dec. 23,

1972 was "A Beautiful Christmas Is When You Spend It With Christ." The banquet started off with a bang. Pastor Bishop Nisbitt of Deliverance Center came and brought many friends with her and sold more tickets for the banquet than anyone. The welcome address was given by Evang. and junior pastor of Deliverance Center, Sis. Sadie Ellis and prayer was led by

Rev. Wadell of Greensboro, Power House of Deliverance. Then the entertainment was introduced by Sis. Paulette Canady and first vice president Sis. Denise Mitchell Knight. The entertainment was rendered by the Gospel Keys of Spring Hope and The Gospel Jubilees of Raleigh. The first guest speaker was introduced by our president Evang. Irene Scott who was none other than Evang. Rochell High of The Oneal Revival

Tabernacle, zebulon, with her topic being "Producing After Death." The second guest speaker was introduced by Evang. Bette Warren, who was none other than Evang. Larry Blackwell, from Burlington, a graduate of The Miracle Valley Bible College. He spoke on the subject "A Yielded Vessel." Both speakers were dynamic. A gift was presented to the person selling the most tickets. Mr. Albert Copper received that award. The speakers were also presented two beautifully wrapped gifts and pastor Cecelia Hayes of Mt. Olive Church received many gifts.

Rev. Penny Still Active At Age 83

Reverend Richard Penny's ministerial service began in 1925 in Johnston County. About three years later, he was asked to serve as substitute pastor at Green Hill Baptist Church. After the death of their pastor, Rev. H. M. Jones, Rev. Penny was called as permanent pastor. He is 83 years old. He had never been ordained, so immediate steps were taken to get it done. This meant being examined by the Ministerial Board. The board said of him, "We have examined Brother Penny and have found him to be the best prepared young man that has ever been before us. He is worthy of ordaining." He was then ordained at Good Samaritan Baptist Church, where he was and still is a member.

Here at Good Samaritan, he has served as interim pastor four times, after Reverends: L. E. Johnson, C. H. Heath, W. Green Hill Baptist Church, Smith, and W. E. Egerton. We believe that there is nowhere to be found a more dedicated christian and minister than he. We will always thank God for him and pray that he will continue to give those rich gospel messages in words and in deeds all the days of his life.

The New Careers Program, administered by the Manpower Administration of the U. S. Department of Labor, opens up new types of jobs to the poor and unemployed. Enrollees in the program are trained as assistants to teachers, nurses, librarians, and other professional workers.
