BY MRS. J. T. HOOD
God put the church in the world, but it is Satan who seeks to put the world in the Church.
On January 7, the Bazzle Creek Sunday School opened at its usual hour, with the supt., Mr. Robert E. Norris, Sr., in charge.

The scripture was read by the secretary, Miss Jennifer Hicks, the introduction was read by Mrs. Lucille Norris. Prayer was offered by Deacon Romie Burt, Sr.

Subject of the lesson was "The New Covenant." The scripture of the lesson was chosen from the book of Jeremiah. This wonderful lesson was reviewed by the pastor, Rev. Carroway, which was explained very beautiful and was enjoyed by all.

At 11:30, the morning services began with Mrs. Mazie Baldwin at the organ, and the senior choir in charge of the service and opening prayer was by the pastor. Scripture was read by Rev. J. O. Stinson of Raleigh and prayer was by Rev. E. Jones of Raleigh.

Mission offering was lifted by the senior ushers dept. and deacon Dewar of St. Agusta offered prayer. There was also a special New Year prayer by the pastor.

After the sermon hymn was given, the pastor came forth with his text. The subject was "This I do Resolve." This was good food for thoughts.

The doors of the church were opened, but no one was united. The general offering was lifted by the senior ushers, with Mr. John Green in charge. The offering prayer was by Mr. Green, also our visitors for the morning worship were Rev. and Mrs. E. Jones and family of Raleigh, Deacon and Mrs. Wilson Dewar and family, Mr. Romie Burt, Jr. and daughter, Mr. James Garrett all of Fuquay-Varina and Mr. David Sneed. Visitors are always welcome to worship with us on the first and third Sundays.

Miss Jannett Jones, of A&T, was home visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Jones of Fuquay-Varina; Miss Geraldine Norris and Mr. Rome Norris, students of North Carolina Central, Durham, was also home visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Norris, Sr. Our prayers goes out for our sick and shut-in: Mrs. Bessie Stuart, Mrs. Jude Beckwith, Mr. Willie Jackson, Mrs. Amelia Hood, Mrs. Margaret Adams, and Mrs. Enmilie Judd.

Our deepest sympathy goes out to Mrs. Susie McKinnie and family and to Mr. Paul Washington in the loss of their love one, Mrs. Mary Helen McKinnie Washington, who was funeralized on Thursday at United Church of Christ, Holly Springs. Our deepest sympathy goes out to the Holland family in the loss of their father, Mr. Thomas Ray Holland, who passed on Saturday. The funeral was held on Tuesday at 2 p.m. at Bazzle Creek Baptist Church. Burial in the church cemetery.

THOUGHT
What is in the well of your heart is bound to come up in the bucket of your speech; Your life each day is a sermon, be careful therefore what you preach by your deeds.

Happy to know Mrs. Brenda Kizer has brought her baby home from the hospital after a stay of two months.

THOUGHT
Blessed are they that mourn; for they shall be comforted.

FUQUAY-VARINA - Sunday School opened at all local churches with the superintendents in charge of the devotions.

First Baptist held Sunday School at 10 a.m. with the supt., Alford siding and Miss signing and Miss Wanda Robinson acting as secretary. The scripture and prayer were offered by the supt. Each teacher took charge of his class for 30 minutes.

The subject of the lesson was Prophet To Displaced People from Ezekiel 1:1-13. The memory selection was Son of Man. I have made thee a watchman unto the house of Israel. Therefore hear the word at my mouth and give them warning from me, Ezekiel 3:17.

Following Sunday School at First Baptist Church, morning worship services were held at 11 by St. Agusta Freewill Baptist Church. The pastor is Rev. Vandergriff. Music was rendered by the junior and senior choirs. The scripture was by Rev. Vandergriff from St. Luke 15:18. Prayer was offered by Deacon Henry Cutts of Angier.

The mission offering was lifted by the senior ushers. Announcements were made by Mrs. Eula M. Smith. Mrs. Martha Moore acknowledged visitors. The invocation was by Rev. Vandergriff. Prayer was offered for the sick and shut-in.

The sermon was chosen from St. Luke 17:18 with the subject being Time Will Bring You In. An invitation is extended to all to visit and worship with us each second and fourth Sunday.

Following Sunday School at the Pine Acre Community Center, morning worship service was held at 11. The pastor, Rev. J. M. Jackson, presided. You are welcome to visit the services every second and fourth Sundays.

Morning worship services were held at Rogers Chapel Church at 11 with the pastor, Rev. H. W. Isaac in charge. Music was rendered by the Gospel Chorus. You are always welcome to visit Rogers Chapel every second Sunday.

Our sick and shut-ins are Mrs. Agnes Speed, Mrs. Virginia McDougal, Mrs. Maude Cutts, Mrs. Alice McKoy and Mrs. Bell Heggie.

SYMPATHY
We extend sympathy to the Holland family in the loss of their father, Ray Holland and the Heggie family in the loss of their son.

Happy birthday wishes go out to Mrs. Geraldine Walker, and her mother, Mrs. Theima McLean.

THOUGHT
Christian faith is action faith. Our deepest sympathy is also extended to the McKoy family in the loss of Willie Worthman.

Princeton

BY MRS. GOLDIE HARDY
PRINCETON - Little River Primitive Church morning worship services began at 11 with the pastor, Elder F. L. Coley, presiding. The morning hymns were sung by the congregation.

The scripture was read by the pastor from Romans 8:35-39. Prayer was offered by Deacon Andrew Coley. The sermon was delivered by the pastor. He used Romans 8:35 for his text on the subject, Who Shall Separate Us from the Love of Christ? It was very inspirational. The church had one candidate for baptism, Brother Felix Lenn of Goldsboro.

Jo Ann, Mike Kenyon, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Matthews and son visited Mr. and Mrs. Jack Smith in Washington, D.C. and Robert Powell in Hyattsville, Md. during the holidays.

Mrs. Annie Boyley, her daughters and son visited in Washington, D.C. during the Christmas weekend.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK:
Do not underestimate your faith. Do not seek a substitute for it. Do not shirk your privilege and responsibility of using faith.

THOUGHT
You may not be able to leave your children great inheritances, but day by day you may be weaving coats for them which they will wear throughout all eternity.

Smithfield

BY MRS. LILLIE M. LEE
SMITHFIELD - The members of the junior choir of St. Mark AME Church made their way to the Evans Chapel Church Sunday afternoon to render service for a special occasion. At the St. Mark Church on Sunday morning, Rev. R. L. McCarmick delivered a wonderful message that was very much enjoyed. After the service Holy Communion was held.

Members of the First Baptist Church enjoyed services all day long last Sunday in the celebration of their pastor's second anniversary. Rev. J. B. Woodhouse chose for his subject, God's Recipe For A New Year. It is our wish that Rev. Woodhouse will let Jesus use his hands to do His work, use his feet to lead men in His way, use his tongue to tell men how He died; and do all he can to bring them to His side.

3 o'clock services were rendered by the Rev. G. A. Jones and his choir of the Juniper Grove Baptist of Garner. In spite of bad weather and we had a wonderful crowd and if by any chance you missed this program you certainly missed a treat. God blessed us all and we are grateful. The bad weather didn't stop a large crowd from attending the grand march Sunday night at First Baptist Church in Selma. They had a financial report of $1,200.00. This was great!

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fellows and Mrs. Carrie Watson visited friends in Raleigh recently.

Mr. Bobby Mitchell left Saturday for Germany after spending several days with his parents and friends.

Mrs. Ruby Sanders of Brooklyn, N.Y. is spending some time with Mrs. Eva Evans and family. The Woodhouse brothers and cousins of Elizabeth City spent the weekend here with Rev. J. B. Woodhouse. We do thank and appreciate all of our friends and neighbors for coming our way Sunday morning and will you please come again. You are always welcome.

Our sick and shut-in include Mesdames Rosa Frink, Priscilla Finch, Seretha Richardson, Maggie Bryant, Selina Clark, Mable Bryant, Lena Atkinson, Cremo Sanders, Messrs. Herbert Vinson, G.W. Bryant, Willie Mitchell. Let us pray for these persons in the hope that they will soon be well again.

Denise Willie and Elaine Gunter have returned to school from their vacations. Lots of luck, girls for the rest of the school year.

News reached here last week concerning the death of Mrs. Sallie Mae Crech Monroe of Brooklyn, N. Y. My deepest sympathy to the Monroe family and to the family of Mr. and Mrs. Lamor Richardson. May God bless and heal your wounded hearts.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK
If Jesus came to your house today, how would you greet Him and what would you say?

Clinton

BY MRS. A. M. JOHNSON

Feltonville

BY MRS. MARY MOSS
Sunday School met at the usual hour at Felton Grove Baptist Church. Deacon Charles Baker was supt. and Gloria Blackman, secretary. The subject of the lesson was Ezekiel 1:1-3 and 3:14. It was a very inspiring lesson.

Worship services began at 11 with Rev. Mac Baker delivering the message. His text was found in the Book of St. Matthew 13:24-27. He used as a theme He Didn't Have To Do It, But He Did.

At 2 p.m., Sis. Catherine Moss and Sis. Mahalia Cozart sponsored a program. Appearing were people of the community - the Cozart Sisters, the Lyon Sisters, Mrs. Louise Jones, Mrs. Joan Baker, Mrs. Annie Mae Lewis, and Mrs. Ida Mae McKeithan.

On Sunday the pastor, Rev. Thompson will deliver the sermon. You are always welcome to worship with us any first through third Sunday.

On our sick list this week are Bro. John Lee Cozart, Bro. James Percell, Jacob and Jeffrey Smith, George McKeithan and Deldie Moss. Our prayers go out to them.

Sis. Estelle, president of the Feltonville Community Group, will meet Thursday night with the group and choir. We have many things to do this year.

The Woman's Club did not meet Saturday due to inclement weather, but will meet Saturday at 3 p.m. The women will have their first anniversary the first Sunday in February at 2 p.m. Groups will appear on a musical program.

Visitors were few this weekend. Happy birthday to Cindy Baker and to all who observed birthdays this past week.

Rhamkatte

BY MRS. LUCILLE ALSTON
RHAMKATTE - Sunday School opened at Watts Chapel Baptist Church at 10 a.m. Dr. Frank B. Weaver was our 11 a.m. speaker. He spoke from Solomon 2:15 on the subject Don't Let the Little Folks Get You Down in '73. Morning prayer was by Deacon Hinton. Music was furnished by the senior choir with Mr. E. J. McClain at the organ.

Dr. Weaver left us with great spiritual remarks: What spoils our lives are the little things; give your children the love they need; we need more patience; the teachers can tell children who come from mixed up homes, there is no love there. Your daily routine can spoil your marriage. Don't let the little foxes spoil your marriage, your life. All Christians will have to believe that Jesus died for all of our sins, that He paid it all and all to Him we owe.

We all greatly enjoyed Dr. Weaver's message and we hope everyone got a great spiritual start for the new year in love and peace.

Due to the bad weather there was only one service held. Our sick are Mrs. Evie Stanback, William McNeil, Mrs. Sadie Hopkins, William Tucker, Mrs. Annie Allman and the senior citizens at Evans Rest Home here.

THOUGHT
Remember that God still sits on the throne and He takes care of His own.

Roseboro

BY MRS. NORA MCLAURIN
ROSEBORO - I was glad when they said to me, 'let us go into the House of the Lord.' Sunday School was held at 10 a.m. and morning worship services at 11 at First Baptist Church of which Rev. S. W. Williams is pastor. The junior choir, under the direction of Mrs. J. Annie Wright, and Mrs. Alice Bennett furnished music. Rev. Moore was the guest minister and Clifton Owens of Washington, D.C. also attended the service. Rev. Williams chose for his text John 3:16. His subject was Can You Find A Little Love in Your Heart For Jesus in 1973? We were glad to have our pastor back and happy that his trip was a safe one. He spent a few days in New Orleans, La. and visited many places of interest.

The Williams family was the dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Bule and the Culbreths.

There was a big gospel sing at Christian Hope Pentecostal Holy Church here of which Rev. Sis. Mary Walker is pastor. Groups appearing on the program were the Highland Gospel Singers of Wilson, Hebrew Gospel Singers of Fayetteville, Gospel Souls of Roseboro, the William Singers of Roseboro, Rev. Tim Herring gave some interesting thoughts from the Book of St. Luke as to what it takes to enter the Kingdom of God.

A very fine welcome was extended by Miss Carroll. The scripture was read by Sister Augusta Faison and Sis. Annie McLaurin. Response to the welcome was by Miss Carroll. The service was great. Sis. Walker extended a hearty welcome to all to take part in the master cause.

Mrs. Geraldine Thompson Smith was funeralized Thursday, Jan. 11 at 2:30 p.m. from First Baptist Church in Clinton. Rev. James Leftridge, pastor of Union Star Freewill Baptist Church officiated. Mrs. Smith departed from this life Sunday, Jan. 7 after a brief illness at Sampson Memorial Hospital in Clinton. She was a member of Union Star Freewill Baptist Church.

The Henry Fowler Ladies Auxiliary Legion Post No. 319 of which members served as floral bearers were present. Honorary floral bearers were members of the class of 1948.

Survivors are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Thompson, parents husband, Walter Smith; three children; five brothers; one sister and many other relatives.

Morning worship service for the new year began at St. Thomas Church of which Rev. T. R. Singletary is pastor. He chose for his text Jeremiah 31:32. His subject was A New Covenant. He was the master of his text. The New Covenant is Jesus. The way to keep it is to write it upon your heart, accept Jesus. The question was asked Are you willing to put God first? The senior choir was in charge of the music. Mrs. Belvia Jones was at the piano. Marion McLaurin rendered solo.

Mrs. Lizzie Crumpler returned home New Year's Day after spending 10 days with her daughter and son-in-law. Rev. and Mrs. Curley Brown in

The character of Creon offered a different problem. The central difficulty was in the matter of Polynices, Creon's case was founded upon the equivalent of political purges, assassinations of civil rights leaders, murders and lynchings. This is not to say that the force of Creon's argument has been diminished.

Those of you who will see this performance will find that Creon, played by Clarence Murray, S.C. State's best actor in 1971, is one of the more persuasive dictators ever portrayed on stage. Nothing, absolutely nothing is taken away from the eloquence of this character but something has been added. That indefinable attribute which makes a stage character more human and more realistic makes the play.
