"OTHERS"

"Lord, help me live from day to day.
In such a self-forgetful way:
That even when I kneel to pray,
My prayer shall be for Others.

Others, Lord, yes Others,
Let this my motto be:
That I may live for Others,
That they might live like Thee."

In 1963, Wyoming passed a "right to work" law, becoming the 19th State to enact legislation which forbids contracts requiring an employee to become or remain a member of a labor union as a condition of employment. Both the agency shop and union shop are banned by this law.

Seek Ye first the kingdom of God, and His righteousness and all these things shall be added unto you. Matthew 6:33. As we read from II Kings, which tells of Gehazi, scripture's original nowhere man. How truly he said your servant went nowhere. He followed his lust for material wealth and returned to nothingness. Covetousness, led him to fraud and lying, greed compromised the character of this servant of Elisha. It could have been so different for Gehazi. This personal servant and favored student of Elisha traded his favored position for two talents of silver and a few pieces of clothing and lost himself in the process. A poor bargain, indeed, for gain without God is the worst kind of poverty. To want material wealth is not wrong. Christ recognized its value and taught the proper attitude concerning it to seek the spiritual first. God delights to give both the spiritual and the material. Reversing the order, we are apt to find neither. Let us pray.

Dear Father, teach us the right relations between spiritual and material riches. Help us to seek them aright and we shall use them properly. Help us to be Thy grateful children. May we be mindful of all the benefits we receive from Thee and from our friends. Teach us to put thanksgiving in our hearts and thank You often upon our lips in Jesus' name Amen.

The pastor, officers, and congregation bow in deep sympathy with the family of the late, Sister Sallie Triwell.

When our work here is done and the life crown is won and our troubles and trials are over, all our sorrow will end and our voices will blend with the loved ones who have gone on before.

RUSH METROPOLITAN AME ZION - Church School began as usual at 9:45 a.m. with all supts. at their posts, and the supt., Mr. Leslie Campbell was in charge. Following the regular devotional period with all classes assembled, a 30 minute lesson study was conducted by all classes. After the reassembling of classes a brief review of the lesson was given by Mrs. Irene Hall. Reports and dismissal followed.

The regular morning worship services were then conducted by the pastor, Rev. B. C. Young, Sr., assisted by Bro. Neal Sanders. Music was rendered by both the senior choir and spiritual chorus of the church. Mrs. Ethel Jeffrey is the minister of music.

Rev. Young then brought a very inspiring message. His text was taken from Romans 8:1-3. Subject, What The Law Could Not Do, But Grace Saved Us.

The minister began by saying that sin reveals our wrongness, then expounded greatly on our Moral Duty which is to do unto others as you would have them to do unto you. This duty carries with it much thought along with ones willingness to abide by the same.

Many are our visitors each Sunday and we invite others to come and worship with us at your earliest convenience. Mrs. Annie H. Thorpe is church reporter.

UNITED HOUSE OF PRAYER - Grace Sunday School began at 9 a.m. The subject of the lesson was "You Are Known by Your Works." The lesson was taken from St. Matthew 7:15-27.

The classes were divided. A general discussion was given by Elder Kearney. In this lesson Jesus was teaching on the mountain how a christian or a saint of God can be known if you are a true born christian and profess to be Christ-like you will bring forward good fruit.

General gospel service began at 11 a.m. The subject of the sermon was "Standing by The Banks of Jordan." The pastor, Elder T. Dillard, took his text from II Kings 2:12-13.

the pastor, Rev. J. A. Boyd, was in charge of the service.

Music was rendered by the senior choir with the accompanist, Mr. William Vandergriff. Souls were inspired by the song "Sweet Bye and Bye" which gave an uplift to all.

The pastor's scripture was taken from St. Luke 22:13-20. The subject for the sermon was "Everlasting Memory." He stressed the importance of remembering the life of Jesus who shed His blood to save us so that we may be free. If the memory of Jesus was constantly reviewed the world would be a better place in which to live, for we would do our utmost to strive for perfection.

A warm welcome is extended to visiting friends who worshipped with us. We hope that you were made to feel at home and that you will come again.

The church reporter is Mary B. Harris.

TRINITY F R E W I L L BAPTIST - At one o'clock Sunday, Feb. 4 the call to worship was made by the pastor, Rev. C. Alford of Fayetteville. After the pastoral prayer, the audience song "My Faith Look Up To Thee." The scripture was then read after which Bro. Banks prayed from the bottom of his heart.

The next beautiful hymn was "He Leadeth Me." From his scripture Rev. Alford used as a theme, "God is Still in the Delivering Business." From that subject, he preached a heart felt sermon.

Holy Communion was then held. We had a spiritual time. Those of you who haven't committed yourselves to any church, we invite you to worship with us each 1st and 3rd Sundays at one o'clock at the YMCA on South Bloodworth Street.

SMITH TEMPLE FREE WILL BAPTIST - Services were held on Sunday, February 4 at 10 a.m. with the supt., Deacon Julius Young, in charge. DON'T LET THE DEVIL RIDE BY DEBORAH CURTIS

Some people let the devil just ride on in.

Some try to get rid of him but find out he's back in them again.

Some go to Church and try to be holy and sanctified.

And as soon as they leave church They give the devil a ride.

Not a ride in their car, but in their bodies and mind.

When it's time for him to make trouble he's right on time.

Never underestimate the devil because he'll take the front seat and a lot of hardships and trouble your soul shall meet.

Don't let the devil ride because if he do, Your soul is bound for hell and he accomplished what he wanted to.

So get right people and put God on your side.

And if you need company, just let God ride
