Miller To Serve As Professor At Shaw For Business Course

WILLIAM MILLER
William Miller, Manager, Corporate Safety & Women's Compensation Administration at Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., Akron, O., will serve as a visiting professor in the National Urban League's Black Executive Exchange Program (BEEP) Business Administration course at Shaw University on February 7 and 8. BEEP, sponsored by the National Urban League, augments the curriculum at black colleges and universities. Black executives, borrowed from business and industry, add a vivid dimension to classroom theory through examples drawn from on-the-job experience. Each week, a different executive lectures for two consecutive days on his or her area of expertise as part of a college planned, credit-bearing course. Throughout the term, students learn in depth about the tools and skills necessary for success in a variety of career fields. He has a B.S. in biology from Tennessee A&I State and an M.S. in education from the University of Akron. He serves as a vice president of Amer. Soc. of Safety Engineers and is active in other community and professional groups.

Boykin, allegedly cut her as she was leaving the house. She received a one-inch cut on the right arm. Complainant stated she would sign a warrant.

DEMANDS MONEY

Rosa Lee Massenburg, 1115 Walnut St. reported to Officer A. C. Brannan and J. G. Moore on Feb. 4 at 11:30 that Herman Petterson, 34, 313 Bledsoe Ave., came to her residence demanding money. She told him she did not have any. He fired a shot into the air. Mrs. Massenburg at this point left her apartment and the suspect, Petterson, reportedly pointed the gun at

NCCU Food Facility Praised

DURHAM - North Carolina Central University's "food service facilities are among the finest in the United States," according to the director of the International Food Research and Educational Center in North Easton, Mass.

Brother Herman E. Zaccarelli said after a visit to the NCCU facilities. "In my capacity as Director of the International Food Research and Educational Center, I have had the opportunity of visiting many university food service facilities in the United States and elsewhere. North Carolina Central University has one of the most unique college food services in the country."

BRYANT'S SWEET SHOP ENTERED

On February 4, at 8:33 a.m., Officer J. T. Fisher investigated the break-in at Bryant's Sweet Shop, 524 S. Swain Street. The owner, Benjamin Bryant, told him that he opened the store at 7:45 a.m. on Sunday, Feb. 4 and discovered that someone had entered the premises through a hole that is cut out in the wall to accommodate a refrigerator in the back room. Entrance was gained by pushing or pulling the refrigerator away from the hole. Twenty-five ten-pack cartons of assorted cigarettes, valued at $50 and 60 ten cent packages of chewing gum, valued at $6.00 were taken.

CALLED OUTSIDE, ASSAULTED

Roberta Caesar, 36 559 E. Martin Street, called the Raleigh Police Dept. on Sunday, Feb. 4 at 10 a.m. and reported to Officer W. Barnes, who answered the call, that Sam Gauthier, 42, same address, called her and asked her to come outside. (She was in the apartment at the above address.) He then allegedly started a fight - hitting her about the body with a piece of wood. She suffered a one-inch cut near the left eye. The police report did not state what the argument was about or if a warrant would be signed against the suspect.

TAKES ASPIRIN OVERDOSE

Vickie Shaw Burton, 19, 509 Florence St. was treated and released from Wake Memorial Hospital on Feb. 2 after she allegedly took 8-12 aspirin tablets. The police report indicates that "she didn't know why she took so many" that she wasn't trying to hurt herself.

CONCEALS MERCHANDISE

Betty Pridgen was on the scene at Hudson Belk Dept. Store, 319 Fayetteville St. on Saturday, Jan. 27 and witnessed the concealment of one gold ring, $2, and gold pendant, into the left coat pocket of alleged suspect Frederick Alexander Mail, 727 Quarry St. The subject was apprehended inside the store. Other merchandise found concealed in a Hudson-Belk bag were two plastic fishing corks and one Wilson basketball. Total value of merchandise was $10.48.

VANDALISM REPORTED

Katie Bell Clifton, 908 E. Jones St. reported to Officer A. Redmond on Jan. 27 that she was sitting in her living room at 10:15 watching TV when she heard glass breaking. She then saw a car drive away but could not get a description. A storm door glass suffered $25 in damages.

FORGETS TO PAY

Everette L. Branch, who works at Keith's Grocery at 5115 Western Blvd., complained to Officer M. A. Carroll on Jan. 27 that alleged suspect, Johnny Furman Hunter, 23, Rt. 1, Box 150, Apex, received $1.00 worth of premium gas and reported the scene without paying for it.

HIT IN MOUTH

Isaiah Howard, Jr., 19, of Goldsboro told Officer D. B. Jones on Jan. 27 that he went into Bob's Grill and approached the bar. A white male wearing a brown 3/4 length coat approached, and grabbed him, striking him in the mouth with his fist. Arrested on an assault and battery charge was Larry F. Matthews, 26, of 1605 S. Thompson St. Howard suffered a 1/2 inch cut on the upper lip.
