THE CAROLINIAN-SAT., MAY 5, 1973-PAGE 2 B. GRAHAM (Continued from page 1)

think that it was the Lord who brought about the change." Evangelist Graham told how he fought very hard in trying to get legislature passed for the federally funded programs and other civil rights bills especial-ud during the administration ly during the administration of late President L. B Johnson. Graham went on to say there should be some way in American to bridge the gap between the rich and the poor.

Several topics, religious, political and social were discussed at the 50-minute press conference. Rev Gra-ham refused to take a stand on 'capital punishment but said he was studying the question very keriously now and also be was studying the question very beriously now and also he plodged the question about fiquor by the drink. Graham did say that some of the greatest problems in America loday are caused by drinking . In recent years about 70 percent of the people attending the crusades conducted by the crusades conducted by Graham have been under 25-years old The 54-year evangelist said "Today they pre asking soul searching guestions whereas a few years ago questions dealt primarily with science and religion " science and religion. Relating to his upcoming Korth Carolina crusade Gra-fam said "Iknow our visit here will not solve all the problems in North Carolina, but I hope In North Caronna , but the meeting will create a better improsphere. I hope the young people will come out to the crusade and they will feel the impact from the meetings Central Carolina Billy Gra-pam Crusade Christian Life and Witness classes are being field at several churches in Durham and Balath Instruc-Durham and Raleigh Instruc-lors from the Billy Graham Crusade heading up the classes pre Norman Sanders, Harry Williams and Donald Tabb An Raleigh, these four week Classes are being held at First Baptist Church, St. Marks Baptist Church, St Marks United Methodist Church, Mvatt Presbyterian and Forest Hills rnest hurch Baptist Church. Durham has three locations for the classes - Union Baptist Church, Grey Stone Baptist Church and Epworth United Methodist Church "The classes began this week aud will run for the next three weeks Classes will be held for the next three Monday nights of 700 at three Monday to Classes are being held for the next three Tuesday nights at 7:30 at St. Mark's United Methodist Church

Classes will begin Thursday at the Ernest Myatt Presby-terian Church and also the Forest Hills Baptist Church. Morning classes are scheduled for Ernest Myatt Presbyterian Church at 10 o'clock. 7:30 classes will c-nyene at Forest Hills Baptist Church. Grey Stone Baptist Church is conducting Monday exemine

Grey Stone Baptist Church is conducting Monday evening classes for the next three weeks at 7:30 each Monday night. Union Baptist is con-ducting Tuesday classes at 7:30 p.m. for the next three weeks. Epworth United Methodist Church is holding Wednesday morning classes at 10 o'clock.

SHOOTINGS

(Continued from page 1) condition was listed as fair early Wednesday morning of this week.

early this week. Mrs Watson is being held in Wake County Jail under a bond of $10,000. Arrested in the shooting of Miss Deborah Ann Barnes, 19, 424 Alston Street here early Sunday was Louis Buffaloe, 24, 1314 Walnut Street (Walnut Terrace), who has been charged with assault with a deadly weapon with intert to charged with assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill. The shooting took place near the Lion's Den, 400 block of Hillsborough Street, and involved a 38 calıbre revolver. According to police reports. Miss Barnes was shot shortly after midnight Saturday in the Darking lo of the night olub cal.

after midnight Saturday in the parking lot of the night club at 404 Hillsborough. She was taken to Wake Memorial Hospital, where her condition was listed as fair by officials of the facility. Police also stated that the bullet entered the left side of the woman's jaw and excerct the woman's jaw and emerged on the right side of her neck. Buffaloe was released from jail after posting a bond of $5,000, stated the magistrate's office.

CITY TUTOR

(Continued from page 1) interview last weekend. After having learned the details concerning the situation one detective stated that it should have never been recorded. Mrs. Sanders stated that "It's really unfortunate that some-thing of this nature meets the public eye in the wrong perspective when there are so many constructive aspects of the school program. the school program that people need to be aware of." No official charges have ever been made against Mrs Sanders concerning this situa-tion

In an interview with George

L Foxwell, principal of the Fred J Carnage Junior High School, he informed Charles R School, he informed tharles R Jones, managing editor of The CAROLINIAN, last Friday, that some students are unmanageable and hard to control and he also stated that Mrs Sanders was not the only teacher who has had tempts teacher who has had trouble with this 14-year-old boy

APPRECIATION

Continued from page 1 everyone Mrs. Banks, who resides at 713 Cumberland Street, saw her name in the Kerr Ben Franklin advertisement on page 12 last week Kerr Ben Franklin is located in the Longview Shoping Center. The motto at Kerr Ben Franklin is motto at Kerr Ben Frankin is "We strive to please by having what you want - when you want it and at the most reasonable prices " You, too, may be a winner. Check the advertisements on page 10 of this week's paper. Persons who see their names in the ads. SHOULD NOT go directly to the merchants involved but come FIRST to the office of this newspaper. located at 518 E. Martin Street, so that we can identify you. Please remember that the deadline for claiming your price: deadline for claiming your money is noon on the Monday following the appearance of your name in the paper, this week on page 10 The CAROLINIAN WILL

The CAROLINIAN WILL NOT PAY Appreciation Money to survivors of deceased persons whose names happen to be chosen out of the City Directory as are all of the names

STATE ELKS

Continued from page 1 North Carolina's youngest and most influential, heads for the state meet in Durham this weekend Miller with less than two years membership in the order, has made himself felt. He is not only the pride of th lodge he is the darling of the Temple He has done a most extraordinary job with the youth Here in Raleigh alone, he has garnered more than the thirty three youngsters who feel much at home and who have displayed marked enthu-siasm for the marching and siasm for the marching and parade chores. Wherever they have appear-ed they have been well received. Elks all over North Carolina are pleased with his leadership. He also works with the Educational Committee.

ABERNATHY (Continued from page 1)

brutality Listed brutality Listed among workshops chairmen are Honorable Ralph H. Metcalfe (D-III.), Michigan State Senator Coleman A. Young, Renault Robinson of the Afro-American Patrol-men's League. Haywood Burns, National Director, National Conference of Black Lawyers and Irma Zeigas of Womens Strike for Peace Registration of delegates to Womens Strike for Peace Registration of delegates to the conference will take place on the evening of May 11. Further information can be obtained from the organizing committee for the confervnce at 150 Fifth Ave., Rm. 425, New York City. 10011 (212-243-8555) or 606 South Ashland Ave., Chicago 60612 (312-421-7271).

TASK FORCE

Continued from page 1/ North Carolina Central Uni-versity, Durham, Mr. Jarmond Winton. He is a native of Winton. He attended A&T State University, where he received his degree. Jarmond has been living in Raleigh for the last three years. The organization will consist area. For total effectiveness, smaller groups will be formed in each area with the Task Force chairman available to these smaller groups. Instrumental in forming this Instrumental in forming this group was Lawrence Wray of the City of Raleigh's Commun-ity Relations Office. A general meeting will be held Monday. May 7. 1973 at 7:30. The meeting will be held at the Saint Ambrose Episcopal Church. Church.

VOLUNTEER

Continued from page 1) Army as in real life for success." Gen Becton made these comments during a press conference at the Top of the Mart in the Southern Furniture Exposition Building prior to speaking at the A&T Uni-versity Air Force and Army ROTC banquet and ball. In the broad ranging press conference, the 46-year-old general predicted that amnes-ty eventually would be granted to those who fied the country to evade the draft. Gen. Becton said he supported the Nixon evade the draft. Gen. Becton said he supported the Nixon Administration's present po-licy because he didn't think these persons could be granted amnesty so soon after any way. "They will be granted amnes-ty." he said. "but not today.-maybe next year or in the years to come. But I think they should be handled on an individual basis." As for the Administration's recent cutbacks in the number of military bases, Gen. Becton

of military bases, Gen. Bector of military bases, Gen. Becton said "this is usually done after every war." He warned, however, against "lowering our defenses." Asked for his reaction on the downing of the first American aircraft in the recently resumed air war over Laos and Cambedia Gen Berton exit Cambodia, Gen. Becton said, "we must recognize that as long as we fly combat missions we are going to lose pilots." He said the armed services are not responsible for the test statement responsible for the Indochina responsible for the Indochina conflict. "This was a decision of the leaders of this country, and the armed services did what they were told to do." The 26-year veteran admit-ted "it will take some time" for the armed service to live down the effort of the live for the armed service to live down the effects of the Viet Nam war and such incidences as the My Lai massacre. "But we are already getting back to the place where we once were I can see it at the colleges and universities and cities wherever I go." he said. "In the past there were places where you couldn't even go wearing a uniform. That is no longer the case." Gen Becton said that with the reforms in the armed services and the new op-portunities available, it will attract persons from all walks of life. He said, "I think it (the volunteer army concept) will work, but it all depends on how society views the army and the armed services. But if a man, who joins the service, cannot be accepted in society and is criticized, it won't work." be accepted in soceity and is criticized, it won't work."

MCKISSICK

(Continued from page 1)

represented. In addition to workshops, which discussed federal and state contracts, other procurestate contracts, other procure-ment opportunities, and the purpose of the Office of Minority Business Enterprise, a banquet was held Monday night at the Sir Walter Hotel at 7:00 honoring Attorney Floyd McKissick, president of Mc-Kissick Enterprises, and founder of Soul City, North Carolina. Charles Evers, mayor of Carolina. Charles Evers, mayor of Fayette, Mississippi, who has been described as the "Tos-canini of the Magnolia State", was the keynote speaker of that banquet. Evers has said, "The solution to our problems in Mississippi will have to be worked out together and I intend to work toward that goal."

Sorority In Regional Meet In Fayetteville Regional Meet

At Saint Aug.'s

hospitality for an enjoyable and most memorable occasion. The thirty first annual North An entry first annual North Eastern Regional Meeting of Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority Incorporated was held in Favetteville, April 13th and April 14th. Members of the Raleigh local 'Spring Festival' Coronation Held

Members of the Kaleigh local chapters were represented by delegates and attending sorors from Beta Lambda Sigma, Nu and Beta Theta Chapters. With the theme "Know and Grow", the members of the North East Region Darticipated in second At Saint Aug.'s "Echoes of Spring-Whispers of Peace" was the theme of the Spring Festival Coronation, held on the quadrangle of Saint Augustine's College. April 28. The processional included "Miss Freshman." Miss Char-lotte Clark of Bayboro. "Miss Sophomore." Beverly Kneece of Hempsteid. New York, "Miss Junior". Glenda Fay Hargove of Manson, and "Miss Senior". Louretta Boyd of Plainview. Virginia. Highlights of the festivities included the crowning of "Miss Spring Festival of 1973" represented by Miss Brenda Jones. a sophiumore physical education major. from Garner. Brenda received her crown Region participated in several valuable workshops involving ways and means of improving community relations through community action projects.

The highlight of the meeting came when the chapters of Beta Lambda Sigma and Beta Theta received special a-chievements awards for their scholarship projects and the exhibits on display during the convention. convention.

The local undergraduate and alumni chapters of Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority wish to thank the hostess chapter Delta Gamma Sigma of Fayetteville for their gracious

EA-PRISONERS OF WAR RELAX AT DANCE-Maj. William Hardy of Greenville, (second from left) and Air Force Maj. Norman McDaniel (right) relax with their respective wives at the annual A&T State University ROTC ball. Both officers are graduates of A&T. (Photo by Moore).

Mrs. Mary P. Tabb, Widow Of Mortician, Given Rites

WILLIAMSBURG - Mrs. Mary Alice Parker Tabb, 79, died April 15 while visiting a daughter in Philadelphia, Pa. A lifelong resident of the Williamsburg area, she was born in Magruder, now Camp Peary, in York County. Her husband, George E. B. Tabb, who died Feb. 17, founded Whiting and Tabb Funeral Home in 1926. Mrs. Tabb was a member of Mt. Gilead Baptist Church and had sung with the church choir for 65 years. She 11so was a Sunday School teacher, vice president of the Missionary Society, member of the Willing Workers. Pastor's Aid, and Good Samaritan organizations of Mt. Gilead Church. Her interest in church activities extended to such of Mt. Gilead Church. Her interest in church activities extended to such area and state organizations as the State Baptist Convention. Tidewater Peninsula Baptist Association, and the Women's Baptist District Education and Missionary Convention and Sunday School. She was a past president of the Peninsula Baptist Women's Auxiliary. She also was a charter member of Pride of Grove Chapter 181, Eastern Star. Surviving are 10 sons, George Edward Tabb. Jr. John Alexander, The Rev. J. B Tabb and Russell Tabb, all of

Mrs. Alberta F. Sanders Will Speak At First Congregational

Mrs. Alberta F. Sanders will be the Mother's Day speaker Sunday, May 13, 1973 at the 11 worship services at the a.m. irst First Congregational United Church of Christ, corner Manly and South Streets. The service is sponsored by the Willing Workers Fellowship of the church in their annual observ-ance of Mother's Day. Mrs Sanders received her early educational training in her home town of Dunn, N.C. Her undergraduate and gradu-ate work were completed of ate work were completed at North Carolina Central Uni-versity. Durham, receiving the B.S. and M.S. degrees. She taught for several years in Sampson. Harnett and John-ston Counties and is presently teaching Home Economics and Family Life Education at Smithfield.Slema Senior High School Smithfield. The speaker is involved in The speaker is involved in many varied organizations of civic and religious activities some of which are: member of the American Vocational As-sociation, the National Educa-tional Association, the North Carolina Association of Home Economics, the National As-Conomics, the National As-ociation of Colored Women's Tub, the Progressive Women's Tub. Smithfield, and the Funeral services were held Thursday, April 19, at 2 p.m., in Mt. Gilead Baptist Church, with the Rev. Glenwood Morgan officiating. Burial with Eastern Star rites, was in the church comptere rites, wa cemetery.

Homeowner loans.

you're buying your home we can lend you up to $7,500 for any purpose Monthly payments will be tailored to fit your budget See us soon for fast, personalized ervice

Superior Mortgage Company

EXON

DIAL 828-9317

dog ail heat service. Ena-vg and Oil Burnar Servic

An Equal Opportunity Lender 105 E. Martin St. Ph. 834-0190 Raleigh, N.C. Let the "WATCHDOG" Keep you Warm all Winter

37

ROTC OFFICIAL HONORED BY ST. AUG.'S-Left, Dr. Prezell R. Robinson, president Saint Augusinte's College, presents a plaque to Colonel William Lamar Boylston, professor of millitary science, U.S. ROTC, N.C. State University. The citation reads, "In thoughtful recognition tor your unselfish meritorous service, dignified character and leadership ability." The presentation was made during the Students Honor Assembly April 18, at Saint Augustine's College.

POET'S CORNER

While the devil is trying to hurt you and make your life a LIVING FOR GOD OR THE BY DEBORAH CURRIE

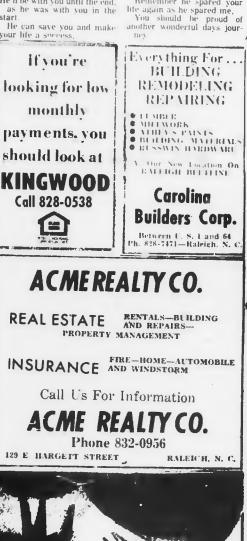

What can the devil do to make

Remember he spared your or live for the devil and statu Or live for the devil and with people you fuss and fight. God is best man to follow and don the people should know. That fighting won't help and they should realize that crime children by a previous marri-

There is no greater love than the love of God. He'll be with you until the end, as he was with you in the start.

your life a species

RAPE TRY

(Continued from page 1) bruises on her neck, but was not treated. No arrest has been made of a working unit related to problems existing in all subdivisions, with each subdivision having a task torce chairman to consummate a total involvement of the individual residing in each

MRS. CARLA Palmist-Medium

Advisor Adv

PHONE 235-4261 Directions: Take U.S. 64 East to Zebulon. ...en take U.S. 264 and come 24 miles past Bailey and look for large hand sign with the nam? Mis Calls

'lub

MRS ALBERTAF SANDERS MRS ALBERTAF SANDERS Raleigh Chapter of the Nation al Association of College Women. She is also Past Worthy Matron and present member of the Order of the Eastern Star and an active member of the First Baptist Church of Smithfield Mrs Sanders has a very deep love for children and people She is the mother of two

ICE & COAL CO. Eyeglasses CONTACT LENSES HEARING AIDS Bring Your Prescription to Ridgeway's OPTICIANS, Inc. FIRST IN THE CAROLINAS RALEIGH-Professional Building BALFIGH-MA St. Marre St. Other Offices: GREENVILLE GREENSBORO-CHARLOTTE

A FAMILY LIMOUSINE .. affords the privacy that the bereaved require on the day of services. That is why a private limousine, driven by a member of our staff, is provided here.

Haywood Funeral Home, Inc. a half century of service to Raleigh and community Raleigh Mutual Burial Association Tow Cost Funeral insurance Available 22 E. CABARRES ST - PHONE 832-2835

Y