Five great sermons. They were truly enjoyed by all and will be remembered.

Apex

APEX NEWS BY MISS IDA HAYES
APEX - The First Baptist Church Sunday School was omitted Sunday morning, Aug. 26th, in order for candidates to be baptized, following revival services, Aug. 20th-24th. The Rev. A. H. Parker was the evangelist for the week. Those who were baptized were Linda Ray, Debbie McDonald, Mrs. Christine Horton, Morris Ray and Leon Janney Ray.

The chancel choir was in charge of the music for the 11 a.m. worship service with Mrs. Merian Horton at the piano. The morning message was delivered by the pastor, Rev. J. E. Perkins. His text was taken from the book of Psalm 119:25-29 and he used for a subject, Lord, Make Me. The baptizing was held at the New Hill Baptist Church in New Hill. Visitors are always welcome at First Baptist. The morning message on Aug. 19th, was delivered by Rev. R. L. Thomas from Washington, D.C. (a mistake on last week's written copy).

On Monday, August 20th, the revival dinners were served each evening at 6:30 p.m. Prayer service was held Monday at 7:30 p.m. Mr. E. J. Byrd and Linsey Pointer and music was by the male chorus Rev. Parker, pastor of Mt. Zion Baptist Church in Durham, delivered the message. His text was taken from St. John 4:11-17 and used for a subject, Everlasting Life. Tuesday night, prayer meeting was conducted by Miss Ida Hayes and Mrs. Mattie Morrow. Music was by the young adult choir. Rev. Parker's text was taken from St. John 6:5-7 and he used for a subject, A God That Make A Way. Other ministers present were Rev. Herman Fuqua, Rev. James Stewart from Durham and about 14 of Rev. Stewart and son's friend from Baltimore, Md. and New York City. On Wednesday night, prayer service was conducted by Ida Hayes and Mrs. Jeanetta Thorpe. Music was by the chancel choir. Rev. Parker's text was taken from St. Matthew 26:14-16 and he used for a subject, A Christ Of The Soul; Thursday night, prayer service was by Mrs. Lattie Payne and Mrs. Swany Beasley. The senior choir was in charge and music was rendered by Rev. Parker's gospel choir from Mt. Zion Baptist Church in Durham. His text was taken from Hebrew 1:1-3 and he used for a subject, He Fixed It For Us.

Remarks were made by Rev. J. W. Albright, who left for Philadelphia Friday, Aug. 24th, at 2 p.m. and will preach there Sunday, Aug. 26 at the 11 a.m. service at the Memorial Baptist Church in Philadelphia and will return home on Tuesday or Wednesday. We bid him God's speed.

On the last night, Friday, prayer service was conducted by Mrs. Jessie McCullers and Miss Ida Hayes. The gospel choir rendered the music. Rev. Parker took his text from St. Matthew 12:43-45 and he used for a subject, Being Self Reformed. The revival dinner chairman was Mrs. Bernice Bullock, who wishes to thank all the ladies who came out each evening and brought dinner and served.

Birthday greetings goes out to the following persons: Miss Linda Ray, Eddie Davis and Leon Ray. May God bless them and we hope for them many more birthdays to come. Preston Herndon also celebrated a birthday on August 27th.

PERSONALS

Louisburg

BY MRS. LOUISE K. DAVIS
LOUISBURG - If it wasn't for the Lord, tell me what would I do. He's everything to me.

Greetings in the name of Jesus. I'm so thankful He has spared us again.

First on hand, the Mt. Hebron United Holy Church of America, invites you to worship with them on Sunday. Services are as follows: BCS at 10 a.m., morning worship at 11 a.m., YPHA at 6 p.m. and evening worship at 7. The pastor, Bishop S. G. McCoy, will be in charge.

Well, school time is here again and we realize fall and winter are right at the door. Sometimes it makes me tremble when I realize just how fast time passes. When I was a child it seemed as though Christ-mas never would come, but now it comes so quick, that it seems almost as if they touch each other. Many of our young people are returning to college and many are entering for the first time. We wish them all the best of blessings and above all, God's speed.

We want to mention another one of our great undertakers in the persons of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Richardson. These are truly two of the finest, humble and friendly to all people that they come in contact with. Sometimes we stand afar off when it comes to getting to know someone and to justify our own actions, we say that the other person is selfish or stuck-up, but if we just give a little smile, and a kind word we may start a great and lasting friendship.

Not only are Mr. and Mrs. Richardson kind and friendly, but they are very capable in their profession. They give all of the help and sympathy one can ask for in your hour of grief and sorrow and are attentive to they very last detail. So feel free to approach the Richardson's at any time. They lime many other business places, are more than generous in their giving to every cause that serves the public and to the churches as well. They serve well the living and the dead and we are really proud of them, too.

They give the Citizens For Better Living Conditions, their full support in all we undertake. They are with us in person whenever we go before the town council or county commissioners and this is truly the moral support we need from, not only every business person, but from everyone else and when they do this, it shows that they are interested in the affairs of the poor and they realize that they are their brothers keepers.

The Richardson's have two young children that are just as friendly as their parents. They are neither shy nor selfish and this is really good for those so young in age.

Rev. G. J. McKnight and his companion are on their vacation this week. I pray they are having a good time. Rev. McKnight is pastor of South Main St. Baptist Church and is employed by Franklin, Vance, Warren Opportunities and is located at the Community Action Center on West River Road. Rev. McKnight has been a big help to many people in the capacity of his work. He and Mrs. Barbara Parker are a real blessing to Franklin County. Although neither of them live here, they are real concerned about the people in this area. They put in much time, far beyond the call of duty, in order to serve the people of this area. Even Mr. Parker will come down from Vance County in the evening and help Mrs. Parker and Rev. McKnight in whatever way he can and I call this real dedication on the part of these three very fine people. We should be ever grateful to them and the cause they serve. Therefore, let us strive to help them all we can in whatever way we can. Rev. McKnight is dedicated to the church, just as he is to his job. Not one or two, but every member of his church and everyone he meets, he does all he can to help and encourage them in all that they do. Both the South Main Street Church and the Community Action Program are really blessed to have one so dedicated to his work.

We would like to thank all of the subscribers of THE CAROLINIAN in this area. Your dedication to this paper is second to none and we thank you to the highest. May God ever bless and keep you in his will.

Now, with the youngsters returning to school, the streets and our yards will have a certain silence most of the day. We will miss their cheerful laughs and all the other sounds of the young.

Holly Spring

BY MRS. C. J. MERRITT
HOLLY SPRINGS - Let us go back to our Father's praying ground was in action last week as the annual revival was held at the United Church of Christ. The evangelist for the week was Rev. Wade Mangum of Durham.

The messages were: Monday night, How Much Do I Owe Him?; Tuesday night, Jesus' Conversation With Nicodemus; Wednesday night, It's Coming Up Again; Thursday night, Jesus Meets A Divorced; and Friday night, If Your God Isn't Real, Try Mine, He Is Alive. Each sermon was well planned, very impressive and spiritual. Thirteen were added to the church as candidates for baptism.

On Sunday, Youth Day was observed at First Baptist Church. The youth were in charge all day, beginning with Sunday School. The morning message was delivered by Rev. John Lee from Butler. He chose his text from St. Luke 15:11-12. The theme drawn from this passage was A Call Of The Wild. Rev. Lee expressed the importance of being able to recognize the wild call, and stated to the youth that if they error and accept the wild call, leave home in the condition that you will be able to return. He concluded by saying, "when you hear the wild call, pray to God for guidance."

The music was rendered by the gospel chorus of Poplar Springs United Church of Christ, Raleigh. The spiritual was uplifting for the youth.

Visiting the services, were Mrs. Lee, the speaker's wife; Deacon Herbert Johnson of Baltimore, Md., a former resident of Holly Springs and Mr. James Cotton of Philadelphia, Pa. There were others whose name, unfortunately, I failed to record. We were happy to welcome all of them.

Mrs. Georgia Betts is visiting her mother and other relatives in New Jersey. Mrs. Betts is the former Miss Georgia Taylor of Eagle Rock, N.J. and Mrs. James Richardson visited relatives in Philadelphia, Pa and Newark, N.J.

Jermaine Kersey celebrated his first birthday August 22. Mrs. Alberta Leslie celebrated a birthday on Monday, Aug. 27th. Mr. William H. King and Miss Earnie L. Leslie celebrated birthdays on Aug. 28th. Mr. King reached 51.

Our sick list include Mrs. Rochell Morris who is in Wake Memorial Hospital in Apex. Mr. Benjamin Arnold who is in Veteran's Hospital in Durham and Mr. James Cofield at home.

Rhamkatte

BY MRS. LUCILLE ALSTON
RHAMKATTE - Sunday School opened at Watts Chapel Baptist Church at 9:45 a.m. with all classes taking part. Dr. F. B. Weaver was our 11 a.m. speaker.

He spoke from Isaiah 24:9. His subject was, What Is Wrong With Our World? Music was furnished by the young adult choir with Mr. E. C. McClain at the organ.

Spiritual remarks: This world is in a mess, our christians should be concerned about the condition the world is in. We have too much war and war is sin. This is a wicked world and the wages of sin is death. We have too many wrong things in the Mrs. Alston world. We must go back to God and we must not waste our lives. God is forgiving and He gives us a little more time. Dr. Weaver's message was food for the soul. We all greatly enjoyed his message.

Marriage counseling is held at Watts Chapel Baptist Church every fourth Sunday at 4 p.m. Everyone is invited to come who needs help.

BTU began at 6 p.m. followed by our evening service. Rev. G. A. Jones, Jr. was our 7:30 speaker. He spoke from Isaiah 40:31 on the subject, Wait On The Lord. We need to tarry a little while longer and we need to wait to hear from heaven. We were very glad to have Rev. Jones to speak to us.

ANNOUNCEMENTS
 Our 4th quarterly conference will be held at St. John AME Church, Sept. 2.

Homecoming Day will be held at Watts Chapel Baptist Church Sept. 9. Rev. L. Miller, pastor of AME Zion Church, Durham, will be the 11 a.m. guest speaker with his chorus accompanying him.

Our sick - William Tucker, Sadie Hopkins, Mrs. Robena Ashe, William McNeil, Mrs. Florence McMaster, Mrs. Ernestine Glenn, William Glenn and Mrs. Annie Allemen who is in the rest home. Let us pray for the sick everywhere. God still sits on the throne and I do know He does take care of His own.

School days have started again. Please drive with care. The child's life you may save, might be your own.

Dunn

BY MRS. M. B. HARGROVE
DUNN - Dunn Chapel held its regular Youth service on Sunday, as is custom for the fourth Sundays. Sunday School was guided by our junior supt., Mr. Larry Burnett, with our senior supt., Deacon C. C. Rave, Sr. present for needed assistance. A beautiful lesson was discussed and after reports, the junior ushers, junior choir and youth choir found their respective places under the direction of our adult junior leaders. Elder Elliott, our assistant pastor, was always at his post.

Lots of our young people who had been out of town on various jobs, were in, as school is due to be in session this week.

Rev. and Mrs. Henry McLean of 909 E. Edenton, attended the Sunday School Convention at Lillington Grove FW Baptist Church in Lillington, Rev. McLean is president of the convention and Mrs. McLean is the program director. They held interesting Bible quizzes for both youth and adults, which were very enlightening and interesting.

Rev. McLean also attended revival all last week in Elloby and reports a most happy spent week.

The members of St. Mark's Disciple Church of N. Jackson St., wish to thank all their friends for taking part at the plate sale held in the Fellowship Hall at Dunn Chapel F.W. Baptist Church on Saturday, Aug. 25th. The financial report was very gratifying. Mrs. E. Maynor, Miss Pearl Sanders and many others extend their thanks. Rev. Williams is the pastor.

The AME Church of N. King Ave., with Rev. Rufus Washington of Fayetteville as its pastor, is making great progress in its building effort. The membership, being very small, causes the noticeable comparison by ratio of churches in the area. No church has surpassed, according to the number of members. Mrs. Seaberry is secretary.

Mrs. Bessie Williams and daughter, Callie, spent approximately 6 weeks in Fla., visiting with Mr. Everett L. Williams, for the summer. They were welcomed home by their many friends. The Williams' reside at 1010 E. Edgerton St. Mr. Williams is employed in Florida.

Rev. J. Mallette, pastor of Christ's Tabernacle Missionary Baptist Church of Philadelphia, Pa., his choir, chorus, ushers and a portion of lay members, were welcomed guests of St. Stephens Disciple Church on Friday evening and night. They were served a delicious dinner at 5 p.m. at the church and at 8, they rendered a musical program, long to be remembered. The talent of the entire group was unusual. The harmony superb and seldom is seen so many with the ability as soloists. The pastor brought the message from Psalm 137 and led us to know that according to the vessels, a glass or pitcher, so much would be filled. This being their second visit, it was urged that it be made into an annual affair. The offering amounted to $75. This was for the prospective lunch room. Rev. S. A. Dais is the pastor and the group will be appearing in South Carolina this weekend.

Mrs. Ernestine Monds visited her husband in the Veterans Hospital in Fayetteville, where he has been a patient for two weeks.

Mr. Willie W. McBryde is back home after spending several weeks at Betsy Johnson Memorial Hospital. He is a member of Dunn Chapel senior choir.

Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Williams of E. Divine St., had as weekend guest, his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Williams from Philadelphia, Pa. Friends will remember Mrs. Williams as the former Miss Rosa Henley, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Julius Henley, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony G. Copeman and children, Valery and Anthony, Jr., left on Wednesday of this week for New York, where Mrs. Copeman will be employed as a teacher. Mr. Copeman is with ABC News as a technician.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Raye of E. Harnett St., was entertaining their children and grandsons last week. A son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Phillips of Baltimore, Md., Mr. Carl R. Herring, Jr. of Greensboro and Mr. Kenneth Herring of Baltimore were also in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brewington, Sr. and Mrs. Ceasar Brewington, Sr., of Dunn, attended and spent the day at Fort Jackson, S.C. with Ceasar, Jr., who leaves for Fort Knox, Kentucky soon. Also attending the exercises from Dunn on the same date, was Vice Bishop and Mrs. G. D. McNeil, Jr., accompanied by Mrs. Virginia Dare McNeill and daughter, Raquell, to visit Dennis McNeill. They are his parents, wife and daughter. McNeill also leaves Fort Jackson for Fort Knox.

Dr. Thomas Brewington, Jr., left San Antonio, Texas, for Fort Jackson, S.C., Aug. 24, where he will be a practicing physician at a hospital there.

Mrs. Edith Whitehead and daughter, Cindy, of E. Wake St., traveled to Washington, D.C. to visit her sister, Mrs. Mary Lou Corbett. On their return, they brought a niece and nephew, Tuey and Charles for a short vacation.

Mrs. Mary Lee Langston of Wilmington, Del., is the weekend guest of her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Cagle and Mrs. Dora Smith, her mother. Mrs. Langston will leave Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alonza Russell, Sr., of N. Fayetteville, are the proud reporters that the veteran son, Alonza Jr., is now affiliated with a responsible position with the U.S. Postal system of Fayetteville.

Fuquay
BY MRS. LOUISE CAESAR
FUQUAY-VARINA - Courage, brother, do not stumble though your path be dark as night. There's a star to guide the humble. Trust in God, and do the right. Perish policy and cunning; whether losing.

The bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David L. Mallette, Sr. of Raleigh, gave the wedding party and family of both bride and groom an after rehearsal dinner on Friday, August 17, at St. James Parrish, in Greensboro.

The bride graduated from A&T, where she majored in office administration and joined the National Collegiate Association for Secretaries. She is employed with Home Federal Savings and Loan Association.

The bridegroom is an architectural engineering student at A&T, where he is the vice president of Architectural Engineering Society. In 1972, he was elected regional director of the Associated Student Chapter of the American Institute of Architects. He was recently employed with Lassiter and Hopkins Engineers of Raleigh.

The couple spent a brief honeymoon in Atlanta, Ga.

whether winning. Trust in God, and do the right. Some will hate you, some will love you. Some will flatter, some will slight; cease from man, and look above you. Trust in God, and do the right.

Sunday School opened at all local churches with the superintendents in charge of the devotion. First Baptist Sunday School opened at 10 a.m. with the supt., Mr. Herbert Sneed, in charge. The scripture was read and prayer was offered by the supt. A song was sung, followed by the teachers taking over their classes for 30 minutes. The subject of the lesson was, Redemptive Love In Action, which was taken from Mark and Galatians. The memory selection: Bear ye one another burdens and so fulfil the law of Christ. Galatians 6:2. Following Sunday School, morning worship service began at 11:30.
