Bryon Rodman, sponsored by Diane Rodman; Frankie Williams, Jr., sponsored by Mary Giles; DeAngle Farrar, sponsored by Linda Golvin; Gill Smith, sponsored by Francis Smith; Michael McClain, sponsored by Johnnie McClain and Derrick Adams, sponsored by Geraldine Adams. Some of the main aims of the club is raise money for needy families in areas of trouble, provide toys for children at Christmas and to help those in nursing homes and mental institutions.

Miss Edna Louise Martin, Ocala, became the bride of Benjamin James Bryant, Ocala, Saturday, afternoon at 5 o'clock in the Covenant Missionary Baptist Church, Ocala, with the Rev. O. Van Pukston performing the wedding rites. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth O. Martin, Raleigh, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Enonderious Brant, Ocala. The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Thomas Outlaw, Raleigh. Her maid of honor was Miss Ann E. Martin, Raleigh, and the bridesmaids include Mrs. Beverly Neusman and the Misses Elaine Bryant and Altheria Lemon, all of Ocala, and Miss Barbara Bryant, Ft. Pierce. The flower girl was Kimberly Howard Washington, D.C. and the ringbearer was Anthony L. Outlaw of Raleigh. Charles Rawls, Orlando, served as best man. Ushers were Willie C. Johnson, Randall Brown and Ben McMillan, all of Ocala, and Samuel Bryant, of Tuskegee, Ala. The room chosen for her wedding an empty gown of silk organza applied with Venice lace and daisy trim. The gown was fashioned with a high collared neckline and long Victorian sleeves. The soft A-line skirt extended in the back to form a chapel train. The chapel length veil of illusion, edged with matching daisy trim was caught to a cap of Venice lace and seed pearls, finished with a bow. She carried a cascade bouquet of white flowers centered with an orchid corsage. Her bridesmaids' dresses were of green organza, fashioned with natural waistline, square neckline, short puffed sleeves and full skirts ruffled at the hemline. Pink satin sashes bound the waistlines. The maid of honor and flower girl wore dresses of identical style, but of pink organza and crepe with pink trim. All attendants wore garden hats ribboned in pink and carried colonial bouquets of pink and green carnations. The flower girl carried a basket of rose petals. Guests were entertained by the bride's mother at a reception immediately following the ceremony in the Sunday School chapel.
