Three persons could have won checks in the amount of $10 each had they checked that page for their names. Be sure to look this week. Your name just might be there.

Calls For A 10 Percent Cut In Nation's Taxes

WASHINGTON — Dr. Andrew F. Brimmer, the only black to have served as a member of the Federal Reserve Board, has called for a 10 percent cut in the taxes Americans will owe next April in order to stimulate the lagging economy.

In letters to President Ford and congressional leaders, Brimmer, the one-shot outback in federal income taxes is needed to put more purchasing power into the hands of consumers at a time when production is lagging and unemployment is rising.

Taxpayers would have extra money to spend either through smaller final tax payments or through larger refunds of money withheld on their 1974 income.

"I think most of it would be spent," Brimmer said, "and this spending is needed to restore production."

Total individual income tax liabilities are estimated at $132 billion. This a 10 percent cut would give taxpayers $13.2 billion to spend, in addition to the $18 billion expected to be refunded to taxpayers under existing law.

EDITOR'S NOTE: This column or feature is produced in the public interest with an aim towards eliminating its contents. Numerous individuals have requested that they be given the consideration of overlooking their listing on the police blotter. This we would like to do, however, it is not our position to judge or jury. We merely publish the facts as we find them reported by the arresting officers. To keep out of the Crime Beat columns, merely means not being registered by a police officer in reporting his findings while on duty. So simply keep off the "Blotter" and you won't be in the Crime Beat.

Bail Is Ordered In Case

There was a time in the life of Mrs. Jo Ann Little that all hope had faded and she felt that all was lost. 1975 brings her new hope and faith in her fellowman.

She was forlorn when she was convicted during the early part of 1974 for breaking, entering and larceny. In connection with these alleged crimes, she received a prison sentence. She appealed the verdict and was lodged in the Beaufort County jail. While awaiting the outcome of the appeal, she is alleged to have stabbed the white jailer to death, in the wee hours of an August morning, for what she termed attempted rape, on the part of 62-year-old Clarence Hobgood, who was serving as night jailer.

She enjoyed a few hours of freedom, by freeing herself from the jail, after the encounter with the jailer. When he was found dead, all law enforcement agencies, of the areas, instituted a search for the female prisoner, searching every conceivable place she might be. They were both embarrassed and amazed when it was disclosed that she had been hiding in the home of an unsuspected friend.

Through the efforts of the relentless Golden Frinks, she was returned to the Beaufort County Jail. When her story was told, it had such resounding affect until member of both races rallied to her cause. On September, she was transferred to Raleigh's Woman Prison, where she awaited the result of her appeal. She was denied a bond, due to the fact she was being held on a capital offense. The Court of Appeals directed Superior Court Judge Joshua James to hold another hearing. Judge James dismissed the larceny charge and imposed a sentence of 7-10 years.

BY HOWARD EVERETT
National Black News Service
WASHINGTON — Ms. Barbara M. Watson, the highest-ranking black woman in the U. S. State Department until she was removed by President Ford, has received the department's Luther I. Replogle Award for Management Improvement.

Ms. Watson, who has served for more than six years as Administrator of the Bureau of Security and Consular Affairs, is leaving her post effective Dec. 31.

She was "fired" by President Ford when he accepted the pro-forma resignation which she submitted when he became President. She had been the target of more than a year of clandestine efforts in the Nixon administration to remove her. (See MS. WATSON, P. 2)
