

NAACP Moves To Combat Brutality

Session Held In 'Bull City'

★★★★

★★★★

★★★★

★★★★

At Raleigh Facility

Women Prisoners Back On Jobs

THE CAROLINIAN

North Carolina's Leading Weekly

VOL. 34 NO. 35

RALEIGH, N.C., SATURDAY, JUNE 28, 1975

SINGLE COPY 20c

Local Man Is

SHOT NEAR HEART

★★★★

★★★★

★★★★

For Entire State

Miss Black Teen Crowned

Registers

Self At Hospital

BY STAFF WRITER

A 27-year-old Raleigh man, with a bullet lodged dangerously near his heart, allegedly walked almost a mile to the hospital with the deadly missile still inside. At last reports, Marvin McLean, was still alive, however. He was shot with a .22 calibre pistol.

MARVIN WINFIELD, JR.

MS. PATTIE J. GRIFFIN

Ex-Comic To Speak At Dinner

WASHINGTON—Social satirist, comedian and political activist Dick Gregory will be the featured speaker at the Youth Freedom Awards dinner and dance being held on Thursday, July 3, at the Shoreham Hotel in Washington, D. C. during the 66th annual convention of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Sheila Anderson, president of the Association's New York State Youth Conference, will preside at the dinner, one of the highlights of the convention, taking place in the nation's capital from June 30 through July 4.

The NAACP Youth Councils, with branches in 49 states including Hawaii and Alaska, are composed of young people of junior high, high school and college age. The councils form the largest body of organized youth in the civil rights movement and more than 1,000 are expected to attend the convention.

Among the topics to be discussed in workshops during the five days, according to Ms. Anderson, are education, career guidance, the high

EX-COMIC, P. 2)

St. Aug.'s Drive Now Over 60Gs

With over $45,000 reported at the luncheon meeting of the Campaign Committee, held on Thursday, at St. Augustine's College, support for the $1,000,000 Fine Arts Building now stands at $607,899.68, co-chairmen Dick Helms and Joe Sansom announced.

Helms said that with this report, the commitment received totaled: 1) from the board of trustees of the college, $72,800; 2) the faculty and staff of the college, $52,350; 3) foundations $160,000; 4) businesses and industries, $102,516.68; 5) financial institutions, $47,400; 6) with other agencies and individuals making up the remainder.

Helms noted that there was still another month for the fund-raising program to run in which to raise the remaining $392,000. He said, "We are gratified with the support St. Augustine's College has re-

(See ST. AUG.'S, P. 2)

Senior Citizens, Blind Feted In Capital City

The South Park Floral Club sponsored an All-American Neighborhood Celebration and a Senior Citizens Recognition Day at the Bloodworth Street YMCA Sunday at 3:30 p.m., with Mrs. Mabel Jordan, president, presiding.

Ernest Raiford, executive director of the "Y", presented awards to the honorees as follows: Messrs Arthur Byrd, Charlie Langston and Fred

Washington and Mesdames Ella Gadsen, Odella Haskew, Laura Haywood, Estelle Jones, Olene Lee, Lena Smith and Hattie Toole.

Participants on the program included Mrs. Lillie Blalock, Mrs. Ella Cheatham and Mrs. Edna Haywood.

The Lion's Club of Wake County will sponsor their annual dinner to blind persons of the county at the Bloodworth Street YMCA Sunday, June 29, at 2 p.m. Ernest Raiford, executive director of the "Y" will officially welcome the approximately 150 persons who are expected to attend.

Special music features have been arranged. Prizes and awards will be presented to each blind person present.

President Of Kittrell Is Mourned

KITTRELL — Friends and well wishers of Kittrell College, along with members of the African Methodist Episcopal Church are beginning to wonder if it is to be visited by 7 destroying plagues when word reached the campus that Dr. John A. Middleton, who recently was appointed to head the institution after a most hectic 5 years, was dead.

Dr. Middleton is reported to have died in an Atlanta motel (see KITTRELL'S, P. 2)

Raleigh-Wake Citizens Group To Attack Problems Of Blacks

BY MS JEANETTE HICKS

The members of the Raleigh-Wake Citizens Association enjoyed the innovative program presented at the June meeting, held last Thursday at 8 p.m. at St. Ambrose Episcopal Church as president Ralph Campbell presented George Spaulding, the vice president, to discuss some ideas possible for the group to consider in attacking the issues and services demanded by the black community. The blueprint as outlined by Spaulding would include the following: board of directors (executive committee), president, vice president, secretary, student or others and standing committees such as education, program, industrial, membership, budget and political action.

By means of working through this structure the committees would bring stimulating speakers armed with facts for the education of the association, as well as basis for intelligent action.

Mr. Spaulding also spoke of sponsoring attractive and meaningful programs to benefit the youth—summer jobs, recreational activities, etc. A special effort will be made to enlist programs for young adults. A greater effort will be made to enlist the membership and representatives of civic and religious organizations countywide. The plan was enthusiastically endorsed by R-WCA.

Mr. Campbell announced that a student of Shaw University, Urban Affairs (see R-WCA GROUP, P. 2)

Appreciation Checks Claimed By Two Here

Two people were the recipients of $10 checks each last week as they saw their names listed in THE CAROLINIAN Appreciation Money Feature, sponsored by this newspaper and the participating merchants, located on the back page of the first section of this newspaper.

William B. Snipes, 1505 Dillon Circle, found his name in the ad of Thompson-Lynch Co. of 20 W. Hargett Street, which specializes in the sale of televisions and other home entertainment equipment.

The other winner was James C. Highsmith of 1712 Fountain Drive. Mr. Highsmith's name (see APPRECIATION, P. 2)

STAND GUARD AT PRISON DORM — Raleigh, N.C. — Prison guards in riot gear stand watch at Dorm B, which was one of the dorms which had violence in it here June 19, after prison authorities used force to end a sit-down boycott here June 19. N.C. Women's Prison had been the scene of demonstrations and violence which began June 19, including two confrontations between inmates and guards. (UPI)

WEAPONS USED IN CONFRONTATION — Raleigh, N.C. — North Carolina director of prisons Ralph Edwards, looks over some of the weapons that inmates improvised for use during violent confrontation with authorities at N.C. Women's Prison, here June 19. (UPI)

Woman Shoemaker To Be Buried In Selma

SELMA — The death of Ms. Asia Ophelia Thompson here Sunday, not only took a highly-respected citizen from the community, but deprived it of an honor it has cherished for about 40 years — having what was believed to be the only woman shoemaker, in private business in the state.

She is said to have come to Selma from her native Lumberton about 40 years ago and to have become an apprentice in what was then the only shoe shop in the city, I. E. Coley & Sons. She completed her apprenticeship and decided to stay. She worked with the owner, I. E. Coley, for a number of years and when he retired, she joined the late Eric Coley and soon became the manager. Upon the death of Eric, she was in complete command and ran the business until she became ill about a month ago.

Funeral services are booked for 2 p.m. Thursday, July 26, at First Baptist Church, with Rev. Laev Simpson officiating.

She was born in Robeson County, March 9, 1908, the daughter of Nathaniel and Gertrude Thompson. She received her education in the schools of her native county upon coming to Selma. She joined the First Baptist Church and served it admirably. She was also quite helpful to the other churches of the community and her civic contributions were many.

She leaves to mourn her (see SHOEMAKER, P. 2)

Quietness Reported At Prison

BY STAFF WRITERS

On Monday of this week, the "striking" prisoners at Raleigh Correctional Center for Women returned to their job assignments for the first time since the violent confrontations of last week. According to newly-appointed superintendent Louis C. Powell, the laundry, sewing room and school were in operation. Also allowed out were inmates who were on study and work release programs.

Violence at the N.C. Correctional Center for Women left 25 people injured as rioting at the institution began when state officials broke off negotiations (see PRISONERS, P. 2)

Many From Raleigh At Moles' Meet

The 1975 Conclave of the Moles convened in Dayton, Ohio recently to observe the 25th anniversary of the organization. National president L. Bernice Plummer of Portsmouth, Virginia, presided. Wilberforce, Ohio was the host chapter.

The Moles were chartered in Norfolk, Va. in 1950, with 14 members and have since grown to approximately 500 members in 24 chapters, located in 11 states and the District of Columbia.

The Moles are primarily a social organization, but they are also involved in at least one civic project at a national level each year. The host chapter (see MOLES' MEET, P. 2)

Anderson Wins Elks' Oratorical

BY J. B. HARRIS

WINTON — The annual regional oratorical contest of the Improved Benevolent Protective Order of Elks of the World (IBPOEW) held here at Hobson R. Reynolds National Elks Shrine, June 22, produced a 14-year-old Atlanta, Ga. boy as the regional winner for Georgia, Florida, North and South Carolina, whose director is Lonnie E. Reynolds, Greensboro, barber and fraternalist.

The first place winner of the 4-states regional contest was Michael Anthony Anderson, 1184 Ewing S.W., Atlanta, Ga. 30301, whose subject was: "Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and The Negro." Milton J. White of Atlanta, is acting director of the Elks educational program in the Atlanta area.

Already the winner of $1,000 in IBPOEW scholarship aid (as are the three runner-up contestants), Mike will have the $1,000 waiting for him when he finishes high school.

Runner-up contestants were Debra Turner, Statesville; (see ANDERSON, P. 2)

PRIEST OFFERS LAST RITES — New York — Priest offers last rites as policeman raises shroud off victim of Eastern Airlines crash near J.F.K. International Airport here June 24. In background, police and rescuers stand near covered bodies of other victims. In far background is wreckage from the ill-fated Boeing 727 airliner. Officials said more than 100 persons were killed and 20 others injured. (UPI)

Appreciation Money SPOTLIGHT THIS WEEK BRIGGS HARDWARE "For The Best In Hardware And Toys"

RETURNS IN TRIUMPH — Lourenco Marques, Mozambique — President-designate Samora Machel (R), is met by a host of admirers as he returns in triumph, June 23, after a 13-year exile fighting to overthrow the Portuguese colonists. At midnight, June 24, the bearded Machel, 42, will assume total control with a FRELIMO (Mozambique Liberation Front) government, dedicated to remold a Marxist Socialist state from the capitalist colony ruled from Lisbon for nearly 5 centuries. (UPI)