

Rep. Michaux 1st Black U. S. Attorney In South Solon Is

As NC Justice Department Intern

Pick Of Edmisten Hires Lee's Kin President

North Carolina's Leading Weekly

RALEIGH, N.C., THURSDAY, JUNE 16, 1977

SINGLE COPY 20c

Death Penalty To Be Sought

FAndy Young One Of Great 2 He Assets,'Jewish Leaders Told

In Support Of Wilmington Ten

predecessors in the past have failed - to demonstrate to the world what our country is really all about. He has made clear that we are flexible in our approach to other countries including those that may disagree with us - and that America is prepared to return to its traditional commitment to humam rights after the dreadful detour of the past decade." "There is a growing sense 'March' On City Talked interest in a growing sense now in the world that the United States is ready to take the risks inherent in breaking out of the old diplomatic mold into new ways of dealing with other states and new solutions to issues that have divided us from those countries.

VOL 36 NO. 33

"By this candor and openness, Andy Young has told the world that the Carter Administration is determined to reduce human suffering that we have the courage and wisdom to open our ranks to all who would join us. This is no small achievement.

"Those Americans who found Daniel Moynihan arefreshing and unfettered soul at the UN should be especially appreciative of Andrew Young's plain speaking The extraordinary effect of his (See YOUNG IS. P. 2) SMITHFIELD — The death penalty may be exercised in North Carolina again. Possible victims are two black men, Henry Smith. 29, and David Stewart, 25, both of Benson. The two men were charged on June 10 with the fatal shooting of Dennis Wilbert Allen, 23, a Four Oaks policeman and Linwood "Big Boy" Johnson, 49, a truck driver. Both of the dead men are white. Smith and Stewart have both maintained their innocence to reporters.

both maintenance of the properties.

Smith and Stewart are the first men to be charged with a capital offenses since the North Carolian General Assembly reinstated the death penalty in North Carolian, in effect as of June 1, 1977.

Both men cooperated with law enforcement officers and law enforcement officers and law enforcement officers and law enforcement officers and law enforcement of their many statements of their various statements of their various was reported to be light across Virginia in the democratic primary. (UPI) North Carolina, in effec: as of June 1, 1972. — Surrounded With June 2 and June 2, and June 2, and June 2, and and out campaign literature to at a downtown Richmond freely gave statements of their whereabouts on the evening of June 2 and the early morning hours of June 3 when Allen was found dead of multiple bullet wounds and Johnson was last seen alive.

wounds and Johnson was last seen alive.

Rounded-up from their beds on Friday monring, June 3, at the dangerous end of more than 50 gunpoints, the two said they answered law officers' questions nearly all day Friday, except for a few hours in mid-day.

The two said they were the two saids they were the saids they were the two saids they were the two saids they were the two saids they were the saids the sa

(See 2 HELD, P. 2

Minorities

To Hire

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Golden Frinks, national coordinator for the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), said Sunday that he is discussing with black leaders in North Carolina the feasibility of a march from Wilmington to Raleigh in support of the Wilmington 10 mothers to get their sons and daughter pardoned by Gov. James Hunt. Staff Told

WASHINGTON, D. C.
President Carter has instructed all senior staff members who make employment decisions for the White House staff or the Vitee President's Office to "take all steps mereasary to recruit and hire qualified individuals from groups which have historically suffered discrimination."

The instructions were included in a memorandum outling equal employment opportunity guidelines for the offices of the President and Vice President is tis the general policy "of the President and Vice President to insure that all personnel decisions affecting their staffs are made without discrimina. Usee STAFF TOLD, P. 2)

Twenty dollars in Appreciation Money Page on the Appreciat they roomed heir names on the Appreciation Money Page on the back of See APPRECIATION P. 2)

Was ALEXANDER BARKES AP EXCLUSIVE still be a perceive that appeared in The CAROLINIAN a few weeks ago, which told of an alleged move in North Carolina political circles to graph Hammocks Beach from black control, began unfolding after than was anticipated, causing a stir that is believed to be purely ractial. The concern stems from the found their names on the Appreciation Money Page on the back of See HAMMOCKS. P. 2)

march from Wilmington to Raleigh in support of the Wilmington 10 mothers to get their sons and daughter pardoned by Gov. James Frinks said that he has also called upon the North Carolina Human Relations Commission to place on their agenda a recommendation to be sent to Gov. Hunt to pardon the Wilmington 10. The Wilmington 10, sentenced to a total of 282 years in 1972 for arson and assault on emergency personnel, were denied a new trial last month by Judge George Fountain's ruling, and expects no justice from the North Carolina Courts. Meanwhile, Wilmington 10, said he was not surprised by Fountain's ruling, and expects no justice from the North Carolina Courts. Meanwhile, Wilmington 10 supporters have apparently been marshalling efforts Change At Hammocks Is Opposed BY ALEXANDER BARNES An exclusive story that appeared in The CAROLINIAN a few weeks ago, which told of an alleged move in North Carolina political circles to grab Hammocks Beach from black control, began unfolding faster than was anticipated, causing a stir that is believed to be purely racial. The concern stems from the fact that a bill was sent to the House Committee on State Properties, dated June 10, to rename the vast expanse of the wast of sure of the North Carolina Political circles to grab Hammoncks Beach from black control, began unfolding faster than was anticipated, causing a stir that is believed to be purely racial. The concern stems from the fact that a bill was sent to the House Committee on State Properties, dated June 10, to rename the vast expanse of the Carolina Knight said that the grace was well as the grace of the North Carolina political circles to grace the properties of the North Carolina political circles to grace the properties of the North Carolina political circles to grace the properties of the North Carolina political circles to grace the properties of the North Carolina political circles to grace the properties of the North Carolina political circles to grace the properties of the North Carolina political circl

Appreciation Money SPOTLIGHT THIS WEEK

EN AND PAPER HOUSE, INC.

WHERE OFFICE SUPPLIES ARE OUR FIRST CONCERN"

Of Sec'y Employed

Attorney General Rufus Edmisten last week announced the appointment of Ms. Angela D. Lee as an intern in the Human Resources Section of the North Carolina Department of Justice.

Attorney General Rufus Edmisten last week announced 10 pt. lead
Ms. Lee graduated from Harvard University in Massachusetts in 1976 and received her B. A. degree in philosophy. While attending Harvard, she was very active in the drama program and served on 'he House Committee, Prison Committee and Consumer Affairs Committee and Consumer Affairs Committee and Consumer Affairs Committee. She will begin her first year in Law School at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill this fall.
Ms. Lee is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lee. He is former Mayor of Chapel Hill.
Mr. Lee is now serving as Secretary to the North Carolina Department of Natural and Economic Resources.
Atty. Gen. Edmisten stated, "Angela is a great help to our Human Resources Section. We are delighted to have her serve with us this summer and (Mickey) Michaux, Jr., 46, D-Durham, is scheduled to become the first black U.S. attorney in the south. He was named Monday by President Jimmy Carter to become U.S. Attorney for the Middle District. There are not over four black U.S. attorneys in the country.

"I think the President is committed to putting qualified people in positions, whether they are black or white," Michaux said after his appointment. Confirmations of Michaux and white Raleigh attorney George M. Anderson by the U.S. Senate is expected to be routinely completed in early July Both men were

Talks To Dentists

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lee. He is former Mayor of Chapel Hill. Mr. Lee is now serving as Secretary to the North Carolina Department of Natural and Economic Resources.

Atty. Gen. Edmisten stated, "Angela is a great help to our Human Resources Section. We are delighted to have her serve with us this summer and I know that she will follow in the great tradition of her father." (See EDMISTEN. P. 2)

NC Black

Lawyers In

Opposition

The North Carolina Association of Black Lawyers has filed a brief in the U.S. Supreme Court opposing the argument that special minority admissions programs are unconstitutional. By agreement of counsel in the case, the Black Lawyers Association, has been permitted to file with the Court an Amicus Curiae Brief ("friend of the Court").

The brief opposes the position advanced by Alan Bakke, a white applicate shool, who claims he was denied admission he was denied admission because the school had a speech was directed to the state in the state budget Larkins, the assistant of minority affairs and species of Gov. James Huntpromised the group that hypromised the group that hy

AMIN THREATENS EXECUTION — Nairobi, photo shows President Idi Amia of Uganda being Britons into a Kampala reception. The man in (with mustache is Mr. Cullen (no first name avcharged with spiling. Amin has threatened to ex former manager of the Uganda Transport Comparifound guilty" at the end of the week. (UPI)

Larkins

ATLANTA, Ga. — The number of public offices held by black officials in the South has increased, 2,857 percent since [1865, but the 2,129 black seats held in 1977 represent only 2.8 percent of the total 79,000 public offices in the region, according to the Voter Education Project (VEP). "The Increase from 72 black elected officials in 1975 to 2,129 today, is all the more dramatic when you realize that we're not just talking about numbers," explained Archie E. Allen, VEP administrative director. "We're talking about black mayors, legislators, law enforcement officials, school board members and other officials who are delivering services and producing creative programs from public offices never held by blacks in this century." NAACP TO MEET

The Releigh-Apex Chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People [NAACP] Colored Paople (WARLY) will meet Sunday, Jene 19, at 4 p.m. at RICH Park in Method. The Rev. Charles W. Ward is president of the chapter. The public is invited to attend.

Punish Poor People'

CAROLINIAN

Says Welfare Proposals

Punish Poor People'

New York, N. Y.—
NAACP Administrator Gloster
B. Current said that, based on the Carter Administration's proposals for reforming the welfare system, it is evident that "the only improvement we can expect in assistance to those who need it most will be in semantics and political jargon."
In a lagram to Ben Brown,
Minority
Facts Told

By VEP

ATLANTA, Ga.— The number of public offices held by black officials in the South has increased, 2,857 percent since 1985, but the 2,129 black seats
held in 1977 represent only 2.8
gercent of the total 79,000
public offices in the region,
according to the Voter Education Project (VEP).

"The Increase from 72 black elected officials in 1975 to 2,125
today, is all the more dramatic when you realize that we're not just talking about numbers," explained Archie E. Allen, VEP administrative director.

"We're talking about black

Jones Raps

Wins Sports Award The Merit Awards Contast, sponsored by the National Newspaper Publishers Association (NNPA) was announced this week. The CAROLINIAN placed first for having the best sports page. Awards will be presented on Friday, June 17, at the Brackenridge Pavillion Hotel, St. Louis, Me.

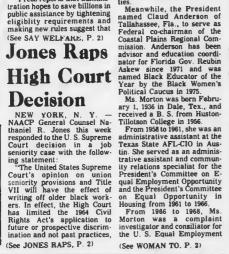

Woman To Sign Currency

WASHINGTON, D. C.—
President Carter has appointed
Ms. Azie T. Morton of Annandale, Va., to serve as Treasurer of the United States. Ms.
Morton, a black, has been serving as staff assistant to the U. S. House District Committee, and has been involved for several years in Equal Employment Opportunity activities.

ployment Opportunity activi-ties.

Meanwhile, the President named Claud Anderson of Tallahassee, Fla., to serve as

AR SCENE OF ESCAPE — Knoxville, Tenn. — Dr. Martin Luther King, Sr. (L) arrives June 11 speaking engagement less than 30 miles from the prison where James Earl Ray, the convicted to file son, civit rights leader Martin Luther King, Jr., and 6 other convicts escaped June 10.