COMPLETES ADVANCED TRAINING—Fort Benning, Ga.—Pvt. Michael Vines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie M. Vines, Sr., 198 St. Francis Court, Rocky Mount, N. C., recently completed seven weeks of advanced individual training at Fort Benning, Ga. The training included weapons qualifications, squad tactics, patrolling, landmine warfare, field communications and combat operations. This qualified him as a light weapons infantryman and as an indirect fire crewman. He was taught to perform many of the duties in a rifle or mortar squad. Vines is the first in his family to graduate from Rocky Mount High School.

ECSU In Independent Extension

CHAPEL HILL — Elizabeth City State University (ECSU) has become the seventh member of the University of North Carolina system to join the Independent Study by Extension consortium.

ECSU joins Appalachian State University, East Carolina University, N. C. State University, UNC-Asheville, UNC-Chapel Hill and UNC-Greensboro in the inter-institutional program for correspondence instruction.

Established in 1951 as a normal school for teaching black common school instructors, ECSU currently enrolls 1,800 students. Chancellor Marion D. Thorpe says the institution is planning to extend its academic programs throughout northeastern North Carolina and eventually become a regional university center, complete with graduate programs.

Dr. Louis V. Nadeau, assistant academic dean for special programs at ECSU, will be the representative to the Independent Study Advisory Committee, which includes members from each institution within the Independent Study consortium. Future plans include cross-listing courses originating at ECSU and other consortium institutions and the development of new courses.

With the added academic resources of ECSU, Independent Study by Extension, established in 1975, is comprised of UNC institutions, ranging from the Albemarle Sound to the mountains of western North Carolina.

Shape a rich holiday pie crust by substituting light cream or sour cream for the water called for on a package of pie crust.

Dress your holiday bird to tee with this easy-to-do Herbed Cornbread Dressing. Cook 1 pound bulk pork sausage until crumbly. Add 1 1/2 cups chopped onion and 1 cup chopped celery. Cook until tender. Drain fat. Add 4 teaspoons Lawry's Pinch of Herbs, 6 cups coarsely crumbled cornbread, 1/2 cup dry sherry and 1/4 cup light cream. Mix lightly; pack dressing loosely in turkey cavity. Left-over dressing may be baked in a covered casserole. Makes 9 cups dressing, enough for a 14 pound turkey.

Want to soften hard butter in a hurry? Try this little trick. Fill a bowl with very hot water and let sit for a few minutes. Drain and dry bowl, then invert over sticks of butter.

It's never too early to think Christmas and gifts. Why not select a Seasoned Sertex for your favorite cook. The folks at Lawry's have packaged six bottled seasoning blends including Garlic Salt and Lemon Pepper in an attractive woodgrain styrofoam spice rack. They call it a Sertex. To order yours, just send $7.00 (includes shipping) to Lawry's Foods, Inc., Gift Pack Dept., 568 San Fernando Road, Los Angeles, CA 90066.

The first Thanksgiving dinner was really a breakfast. In addition to roast native turkey the pilgrims and their Indian guests feasted on none other than popcorn, which as we all know has become an American institution.

The Humphrey-Hawkins Bill declares, for the first time in law, that inflation is a major national problem.
