

GABBING About Town

BY MRS. A. H. THORPE
TELEPHONE - 832-3029

IT'S UP TO YOU
Have you made someone happy or made someone sad?
What have you done with the day that you had?
God gave it to you to do as you would.
Did you do what was wicked or do what was good?
Did you hand out a smile or just gave 'em a frown?
Did you lift someone up or push someone down?
Did you lighten some load or some progress impede?
Did you look for a rose or just gathered a weed?
What did you do with your beautiful day?
God gave it to you, did you throw it away?

RETURNS FROM CONFERENCE
We have just returned from Southern Pines, where we were in attendance of the 98th session of the Central North Carolina Conference of the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church. Bishop W. A. Hilliard, presiding prelate. We served as a part of the secretariat. This, being our 12th year, we also served as delegate for Rush Metropolitan Church. We are happy to welcome to our parish, Rev. B. C. Young, Sr., for another conference year. Also returning to his charge in the city was the Rev. J. A. Boyd to Grace A.M.E. Zion Church. Other officers from Rush Metropolitan who were in attendance were Mrs. Marie Moore and Mrs. Lucille J. Smith.

SYMPATHY EXTENDED
Our love and deepest sympathy are being extended to the Sanders family in the passing of their mother and sister, Mrs. Ioberta Sanders. She was funeralized on Sunday. To them, may we say, may it be comforting to you to know that death has no sorrows that

HEAVEN CAN'T HEAL PATIENT ALPHEA HOSPITAL

Friends of Mr. Leroy Richburg of 123 Waldrop St., will be sorry to learn that he is a patient at Rex Hospital, Room 108. He was scheduled for surgery and has undergone the same. Our prayer is that he will soon be well, up and out again.
Remember, God still sits on the throne, likewise, taking good care of His own. Just trust Him.

The many friends of Mrs. Emma O. Jones of 712 Cumberland St. are happy to know that she is recuperating nicely at home following recent confinement and surgery at Wake Medical Center. Mrs. Jones wishes to express sincere appreciation for the numerous and varied expressions received. Her close affiliations are First Congregational United Church of Christ, the Prestige Club and the World Mutual Service are to be especially recognized in this gesture of appreciation. She asks God's benediction on all who remembered her in any way.

On Sunday, Nov. 12, Mr. and Mrs. Travis Dixon of Ayden visited Mrs. Emma Jones and Mrs. Leola Shearin Dixon and Mrs. Jones were high school classmates at Franklinton Christian College, Franklinton. Mr. and Mrs. Dixon also visited briefly with Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Charles of 716 Calloway Dr. These were visitations of mutual enjoyment.
Mrs. Cecelia Lawrence Goodrum of Pleasantville, N. J. and Mrs. Margaret Charles Hayes of Raleigh also visited Mrs. Emma Jones last Sunday. Mrs. Goodrum is the younger daughter of the late Rev. E. C. Lawrence, former pastor of First Congregational Church, 1922-1951.

CAROLINIAN CITED BY N. C. BAPTISTS—Fayetteville—Dr. Joy Joseph Johnson, right, president of the General Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, Inc., is shown presenting a plaque to Charles R. Jones, managing editor of THE CAROLINIAN, Raleigh, citing newspaper and its editor-publisher, P. R. Jerry, Sr., for "Outstanding Religious News Reporting." The presentation was made at the conclusion of the 35th convention of the Convention, during the President's Prayer Breakfast, at the St. James Inn, Fayetteville, on Thursday, Oct. 26. Over 300 persons attended the breakfast. (Photo by Rev. Isaac B. Horton, Goldsboro)

THE GOSPEL WORLD

BY JAMES THOMAS

Revival services are in progress at McKnight's Funeral Home Chapel, 1515 New Bern Avenue, with a different speaker each night at 8 p.m. Morning worship will be Sunday morning at 11 a.m. with Sister Jessie Peacock in charge at the same location.
Revival services are in progress at The Way To Christ Church of the Apostolic Faith, 809 S. Massey Street, Selma. Bishop Jaddy Street is the speaker nightly at 7:30.
The Capital City Five will sing Sunday afternoon at BRO. THOMAS 3:30 at the St. Mark A.M.E. Church on Roxboro Street in Durham.
The Royal Lights are sponsoring a musical program Sunday night at 7 at St. James Holiness Church on Bart Street. The Silver Stars and others will be on program.
The Davis Inspirational Singers will observe their 1st anniversary in a two-part program at Battle Street Baptist Church, near Fuquay-Varina, Saturday evening at 8 p.m., and Sunday afternoon at 3 p.m.

The Gospel Choir of Young's Missionary Temple Church will celebrate its 14th Anniversary Sunday at 2 p.m. at the church, featuring the Young Adult Choir of Smith Temple Baptist Church, the Children of Joy of Knightdale, and others.
Dedication service will be held Sunday at 12 noon at the Resurrection Church of Jesus Christ, 819 Hillsborough St.

The Woodland Chapel Senior Choir will celebrate its 19th anniversary Sunday afternoon at 1. On the program will be the Devine Travelers of Roseville, Variety Jubilees of Cary and others.
A week of services are in progress at the Merry Grove Church, Zebulon, with a different speaker each night at 8 p.m. Homecoming will be observed Sunday at the same location.
A Christmas Bazaar, sponsored by United Methodist Women will be Saturday, 9 a.m. to 2 p.m., at First United Methodist Church, Cary.
Fall revival services are in progress at Providence Holy Church, 915 S. Bloodworth St. Rev. Harry Cohen of Reidsville is the speaker nightly at 7:30.
The Children of Joy will celebrate their 2nd Anniversary Sunday night at 7 at the St. Augustine's College Fine Arts Building, featuring the Gospel Jubilees, The Gospel Tones, St. Augustine's Gospel Choir and others.
Revival services are in progress at the Church of God of Prophecy, 706 Bragg St., nightly at 7:30. Bro. Floyd Collins of High Point is the speaker.

Revival services are in progress at the Mount Pleasant Holy Church on the Rock, Inc., 1424 Sawyer Road. Elder Verna L. Peterkins is the speaker nightly at 7:45.
The Kingwood Gospel Singers are observing part one of their anniversary Sunday afternoon at 2 at the St. James Holiness Church on Bart Street, featuring L.E. Young Gospel Choir, the Haywood Baptist Church Young Adult Choir and others.

CLUB NEWS

Eagles Meet At K & W Here
Wednesday, Nov. 8th, was a very inimate day, but the Eagles, (retired teachers) were brave and turned out for their third meeting, which was held at the K & W Cafeteria in Cameron Village.
Mrs. Phillis Mann, the president, gave a very broad smiling greeting. Mrs. Eliza Holloway was in charge of the devotion. She read verses from the 100 Psalms after which we repeated the Lord's Prayer in unison. Mrs. Juanita was able to be with us after being absent due to illness. A very sad moment to all of us was when the death of Miss Emma Foreman, an Eagle, was announced. We had a few moments of silent prayer.
Minutes were read by secretary Hargrove. They were accepted and approved. All committees gave reports. We all decided to give a Thanksgiving basket and money to the David Bains family of Fuquay-Varina. After our luncheon, we all had our chats and we thanked the hostesses, Eagles Cheek, Banks, Sacles and McManus for their hospitality.
Members present: Eagles Beulah Jones, Phyllis Mann, C. A. Hargrove, Charlotte Hayman, Mildred L. Chavia, Bertha Wilson, Laura W. Crumby, Thelma J. Syms, Ethel W. Greene, Myrtle C. Crockett, Ruth Pope, Beatie C. Cheek, A. T. Banks, Irene C. Sacles, Hester J. Mcmanus, Vivian T. Brown, Willa A. McIver, Hattie M. Edmondson, Susie V. Perry, Fannie J.

Mrs. A. Webb Entertains Nine & Five Club
The Nine and Five Civic and Social Club met with Mrs. Ann T. Webb on New Bern Avenue, Saturday, November 10. Members were greeted on arrival at the beautiful home by both Mrs. Geneva P. Brown and Mrs. Ann T. Webb. When all had assembled, the president, Mrs. S. B. Sharper, called the meeting to order. This was not a regular business meeting, so the members just chatted for a while before being called by the hostess to dine.
With the approaching Thanksgiving season, the table in the beautiful dining room was decorated to carry out such a motif. The dinner, which was served buffet style, reminded one of the delicious foods served on Thanksgiving Day.
After dining, the members played games and enjoyed a pleasant afternoon. A standing thank you was given to Mrs. Webb as goodbyes were said.
Members present were Mesdames: Sara B. Sharper, LaSenia Murchison, Bertha Wilcox, Geneva P. Brown, Bessie Moore Wesley, Willie Rhodes, Ms. Odell Woods, Mesdames Helen Mitchell, Ann T. Webb and Mary J. Marable.
Guest enjoying the evening with the club members was Mrs. Lillie Ballentine. Assisting the hostess was Mrs. Bertha Wilcox.

Come to Church

BY MRS. C. J. MERRITT

Sing unto the Lord a new song, for He hath done marvelous things; His right hand and His holy arm hath gotten Him the victory. The Lord hath made me known His salvation, His righteousness hath He openly shewed in the sight of the heathen. He hath remembered His mercy and His truth toward the house of Israel; all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God. Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all the earth; make a loud noise and rejoice, and sing praise. Psalms 98:1-4.
GETHEMANE TRUE VINE—Sunday School opened at its usual time. Song, prayer, and scripture reading were held. Then the teachers were asked to take charge of their classes.
Subject of the lesson was, 'Holiday Or Holy Day.' The memory verse was, 'Keep the Sabbath Day to sanctify it, as the Lord thy God hath commanded thee.' The lesson was well explained by each teacher. Offering banner went to class number 2. Visitors are always welcome to all of our services.
Morning worship service was at 11 a.m. Woman's Day was well observed. Devotion was given by Missionary Mary Gaskins, and Mother Rose Peacock. Prayer was rendered by our assistant pastor, Elder Robert Henry. Our Young Adult Choir was in charge of the music. Announcements were made. Altar prayer was given by Evangelist Helen Henry. Offering was taken by our deacons and ushers. The gospel message was rendered by our Vice Bishop, Mildred Ruffin. The subject was, 'What kind of house are you in,' Second Cor. 5th Chapter. Many had remarks.
ANNOUNCEMENTS
Every Wednesday at 7:30 prayer and testimonial service. On Friday at 7 p.m. the Young Adult Choir will rehearse. There will also be prayer. This Sunday Men's Day will be observed with Elder Robert Henry in charge at 10 a.m. our Sunday School will get underway, and at 11 a.m. morning worship service, featuring Evangelist Leon Douglas of Washington, N.C., will begin. Monday night a great soul stirring revival will begin at the church. There will be a different speaker each night. Come and enjoy Jesus with us. He is real and knows all things.
RAND STREET UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST—Morning worship services began at 11:15 a.m. with the senior choir rendering music Rev. Charlie Mayo gave the scripture lesson. It was taken from St. Luke 5:1-10. Rev. Coefield prayed the consecration prayer. Deacon Elvia Hodge and Cedric Cliff lifted the mission offering. Deacon Jack Coefield blessed the offering. Mrs. Bertha M. Harris gave the announcements and acknowledged the visitors. The Garner Community Aid Club worshipped with us. The choir sang the spiritual and Rev. James Harris gave the sermon. The text, St. Luke 5:43, with the subject, 'The Healing Touch.' Our pastor told us if we have faith, we will have to stay with God for you, we will have to stay with God. It was a soul stirring message. We thank God for you, who stop in to worship with us.
Third Sunday at 3 p.m. Rev. Mae Hinton and the Crusaders for Jesus will be in charge of service.
Mrs. Bertha M. Harris is church reporter.

WESLEYAN FIRST CHURCH OF DELIVERANCE, INC.—Sunday School opened by singing, 'I've Come To The Garden.' Scripture was taken from I Cor. 5:1-3. Prayer followed by repeating the Lord's Prayer, in unison. The lesson for the day was discussed at the end of each study. Minutes were read and the presentations of banners were awarded. The Sunday School benediction was recited.
Morning worship service was called to order by Rev. Muriel Dunn, junior pastor. The senior choir prepared themselves for the processional as the pianist played the prelude to My Soul Doth Magnify The Lord.
General confession and the responsive reading were led by Rev. Dunn and the affirmation of faith was repeated in unison. The scripture was read by Rev. Dunn from I Corinthians, chapter 13:1-13. Prayer around the altar was led by Sis. Josephine Cameron.
Precious Lord Take My Hand led us into another phase of service. Christian Baptism of little Nicole M. Settle was performed by Rev. Dunn.
The mission offering was lifted and announcements and welcoming of visitors were heard from Sis. Nina M. Jones.
After a soul-stirring spiritual, Let the Holy Spirit Have Its Way, led by Robert Hall and the choir, Rev. George Bullock, assistant pastor, again captivated the congregation. The sermon was entitled Something To Hold On To. His text was taken from I Cor. 13:1-13.
The invitation to christian discipleship was extended to all with Rev. George Bullock offering the prayer of deliverance for those who surrounded the altar.
We extend a warm welcome to all visitors who worshipped with us and we urge you to come again.
We thank and praise the Lord for those who decided to make Wesleyan their home church. A dinner was held at 2:30 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall for the senior citizens of the church, given by the Sharing and Caring Group. Each individual enjoyed themselves immensely.

ANNOUNCEMENTS
Again, on behalf of the Youth Department here we truly thank each and every minister and choir that participated in our youth crusade to help make it a great success. To our senior adults, we thank you for your support and especially your prayers.
God really blessed us abundantly.
PTL meeting is held each Wednesday evening. Sunday afternoon the sharing and caring meeting is held.
Our known sick and shut-ins are Sis. Annie Greene, Sis. Eva Weldon, Elizabeth Watson, Sis. Helen Morehead and Sis. Harvorne.
A THOUGHT
Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.
Church reporter is Ms. Helen Bryant.

ST. PAUL AME—We are having the same spirit of faith according as it is written. I believe, and therefore, have I spoken; we also believe and therefore speak.
The supt., Mr. Don T. Hough, Sr., was in charge of the Sunday School exercises at 9:30 a.m. The lesson was read by Mrs. Josephine Williams, with Mrs. G. P. Brown accompanying at the piano.
The Memorial Day program was conducted and presented by Rev. Gaylord and the committee for the occasion.
Prelude and chimes were by Ms. R. Simmons, at the organ, and Miss R. Fuller, soloist. The R. H. Toole choir furnished music.
Rev. Gaylord brought the Memorial Day message of ice is held each Wednesday at 8 p.m.

On Sunday, November 19, at 11 a.m. there will begin our Women's Day with our junior pastor, Elder Mary White, the speaker. The B.H. Gospel Choir will render the music Sunday at 7:30 p.m. the Women's Day speaker will be the assistant pastor, Elder Verna Peterkin. The Voices of Hope would like to thank all groups and friends that helped to make Part two of their 7th Anniversary a great success.
We thank God for all visitors and friends that stop in from time to time to help us enjoy Jesus. We are a little church not just doing things, but doing great things for the Lord. Come thou with us, and we will do thee good.
Church reporter is Sister Henrietta Bell.

DELIVERANCE CENTER HOLINESS—This book of the law shall not depart out of the mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for 'thou shalt make thy way prosperous and then thou shalt have good success. Joshua 1 and 8.
After the prayer around the altar, which opened the morning worship service, Sis. P. Ellis and Sis. R. Bonaparte directed the praise and testimonial portion of the service.
After the offering collection, the gospel choir supplied the music. Bishop M. S. Nesbitt brought the message entitled, 'You'll Never Walk Alone.' She emphasized that there comes a time in your life when you have to stand away by yourself, but lift up your head high, don't be afraid for you're not walking alone.
Junior pastor Ellis sang God Specializes.
The evening worship service was directed by the minister of the church. The men gave several short inspirational lessons, some of which included such titles as 'What If and a spiritual awakening.'
ANNOUNCEMENTS
No services will be held at DCC from the third and fourth Sundays in November. Services will resume on the fourth Sunday evening.
Convocational choir rehearsal is Thursday at 7 p.m. Holy convocation is the third and fourth Sunday at True Way Holiness Church.
The Deliverance Center is located at 212 Linden Ave. Our pastor is Bishop M. S. Nesbitt.
A THOUGHT
God specializes in things that seem impossible; He can do what no other power can do.
Church reporter is Sis. Ellarine Brewley.

MORNING STAR BAPTIST—Sunday School began with the beginner's choir singing, Two Little Fishes and five Loaves of Bread. Everyone repeated the Lord's Prayer. The subject discussed was Reverence For the Sabbath, from Exodus, Deuteronomy and Matthew.
Worship services began with the junior choir singing, 'We're Marching To Zion.' Responsive reading was from Exodus 30:3-17. Scripture reading was followed by prayer.
Our pastor, Rev. S. R. Spencer, delivered a powerful sermon from Luke 6:12 entitled, The Power and the Effect of Prayer. And it came to pass in those days that He went out into a mountain to pray, and continued all night in prayer to God. Rev. Spencer said that prayer is the key to heaven and faith opens the door.
Prayer was said the young people, the sick and shut-ins.
DELIVERANCE EVANGELISTIC TABERNACLE OF GOD, INC.—Greetings in the name of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. On behalf of our beloved Bishop Hettie Griffis Hunter and the whole house of faith. We extend a rightful hand of fellowship to you to join us this coming Sunday morning at the church, 218 E. Cabarrus St.
On Sunday, Nov. 12, Bishop Hunter seemed to orbit the city of Raleigh. Her message was entitled Walk After the Spirit from Romans 8:11-15. In so doing you'll receive all that God has for you. I cannot express the impact of her message.
The third Saturday at 8 p.m., Youth Holy Ghost Jubilee night will be held. You'll love it. Have you been listening to the Move Of God Hour over Radio Station WLEE Sundays at 3 p.m.? Write or call us at 833-4119 for prayers. Our mailing address is P. O. Box H-26873, Raleigh, N. C. 27611. Sunday School is held at 10 a.m.; worship services, 11:30 a.m.; Sunday night worship, 8; Monday night, 8; prayer service, Wednesday at 8 p.m.; broadcast and lecture night and Friday night at 8 p.m.; evangelistic night. You are always welcome.

Remember to join us this fourth Sunday to hear a new warrior for the gospel of Christ.
Church reporter is Bro. Howard L. Wilson, Jr.
FIRST COSMOPOLITAN BAPTIST—"God shall supply all your needs according to His riches in Glory by Jesus Christ."
Church School opened at 9:30 a.m. with the superintendent, Pinky Graves, in charge.
Morning worship began at 11 with the pastor presiding. Music was rendered by the children and junior choirs. Scripture lesson was read by the pastor, and was followed by a prayer by Milton. The youth hour service was conducted by Rev. Horace McClain.
After selections by both choirs, announcements and recognition of visitors were given by Mrs. Joreen Debnam.
Our pastor, Dr. W. B. Lewis, chose his text from Psalms 23:2-3 and preached an inspiring sermon entitled, "Rest, Refreshment, and Restoration."
Woman's Day service will be observed at First Cosmopolitan on Sunday, Nov. 19, at 11 a.m. Mrs. Rochelle Merriett will be guest speaker and the Garden of Prayer Singers of Washington, D.C. will render music. Plan now to attend.
Remember the sick and shut-in with a call, a card, and especially in prayers.
God is our refuge and strength; a very present help in trouble.
Church reporter is Mrs. Geraldine Lucas.

PROVIDENCE HOLY CHURCH—Nov. 12 was Youth Day. Bible Church School opened at 9:30 a.m. with Supt. Mrs. Connie Umphrey Evans in charge. Morning services began at 11, with the Spirits of Joy Choir rendering music with Mrs. Gwen Maulsby at the organ and William Hinton presiding for Youth Day. The choir processional followed and Rev. Odie Howard gave the invocation. The choir sang the opening song, "My Faith Looks Up to Thee" and Tracy Rains and the congregation recited the affirmation of faith. The second song by the choir was "God Never Fails." William Hinton gave the scripture lesson, taken from 100 Psalms.
Rev. Mrs. Louise Haynes prayed the Consecration Prayer and the choir sang the song of praise, "Why Can't I Wait on the Lord." Offerings were taken up by the junior ushers and the deacons, Henry Shelton and Hubert English. After this the choir sang "Revive Us Again."
Rev. Odie Howard next gave the sermon, taken from John Chapter 1, 1-10 verses. The subject was, "The Remedy for the Sins of Broken Fellowship." Our pastor told us we cannot have fellowship with God if we do not have fellowship with man, whom we have done wrong.
Church reporter is Mrs. Josephine Umphrey Jones.

SMITH TEMPLE FREEWILL BAPTIST—Sunday School opened at 10 a.m. with the supt. deacon, Julius Young, in charge.
The Pastor's Aid Society sponsored the pastor's 7th anniversary, which began Wednesday night and lasted through Friday night. Guest speakers for the anniversary celebration were Rev. Eli Ratcliff, of Lincoln Park Holiness Church; Rev. N. S. Denning, of Matthew Church; and Rev. F. D. R. Williams, of St. Augusta Church. The guest speaker for the 11:00 service Sunday was Rev. Daniel Sanders, who made the call to worship. The processional hymn was "Jesus and Me," followed by the invocation.
The Scripture was read from St. Mark 1:39, and Deacon Upchurch prayed the morning prayer.
The mission and general offerings were lifted by the senior men ushers, Deacon Young gave thanks and asked for the Lord to bless it.
Announcements and recognition of visitors were made by Ms. Joan Moore.
Rev. Sanders prayed for the sick, the shut-in, the lonely ones and the ones that don't know Jesus loves them. The gospel choir gave a gracious response. Mr. Wilbur Tharpe was organist.
Rev. Sanders is a dynamic speaker, and he delivered a wonderful message from II Kings 5, several verses. The theme was, "Go Wash in Jordan."
The anniversary came to a close at 3:00 with a song of all choirs of the church.
The Cape Fear Annual Conference A is in progress at St. Augusta Freewill Baptist Church, Fuquay-Varina.

Pete's Pickins

BY W. A. "PETE" WILDER

The Interdenominational Men's Chorus will hold its regular weekly rehearsal at Laodicea United Church of Christ Sunday at 3:00 p.m. Mr. Lamont Mitchell is director; Mr. O. L. Taylor, organist, Mr. Bernard Rogers, president. Of interest to the members is the fact that the group is scheduled for an appearance in Wake Forest real soon.

My good friend, Mr. Tom Mitchell, formerly of this city, but now calling Hartford, Conn. home, came to town for Shaw's Homecoming. He was not broke either; he gave me a check for a year's subscription to THE CAROLINIAN. Thank you, Tom.

Among the crowd in attendance at Hayes-Barton Baptist Church for the production Elijah were Mr. D. H. Heck, Mr. Robert P. Simmons, Mr. Raymond Hinton and Mrs. Alyce G. Jones.
Deacon Chester Debnam of Watts Chapel Baptist Church remains on our sick and shut-in list. Chester has been a fighter ever since his high school days. Believe it or not, he was outstanding at Berry O'Kelly Training where he teamed with my brother Del Alphonso Williams, Penn Dunston, Wou Harris and another youngster named Peebles. Later, he came on to star in the old Twilight League. In that league, he was the pitching star of the Fourth Ward Cubs. The Cubs had Jimmy Rhem, Pete Wilder, Red Debnam, Dynamite Dunn, Dow Green, Julius Jones, Molly Alston, Bus Hamons and Skink Browning. Presiding Elder J. N. Shearers attended the conference of the A.M.E. Church, held in Charleston, S. C. this week. Bishop Frank Madison Reed II is the presiding prelate.

"Red Booty" Little found time to come down to the Shaw U. Homecoming. Among the gang glad to greet him were Bill Wilder, Stiff Thrope, Gabe Fields, just to name a few.
Mr. Joseph A. Wilder, E-44 Washington Terrace, continues on our sick and shut-in list.

BOYER ASSEMBLY, 219, ORDER OF THE GOLDEN CIRCLE, held its third initiation for the year under the leadership of Loyal Lady Ruler Mozella M. Burnett. The three Loyal Ladies pictured above bring 1978's number of inductees to 21. Since its inception on April 28, 1973, Boyer Assembly 219 has grown from eighteen charter members to its present total of 58 members. Pictured, left to right, the newly initiated Loyal Ladies are: Loyal Ladies Dorothy Spence, Frances Clark and Stella Lindsey.