J. B. HARREN

J. B. HARREN

ROCKY MOUNT-Armistice Day, 1919 found this writer pedaling a bicycle 35 miles from Saluda to Asheville getting Saluda to Asheville getting ready to go to the army ton the draft no. 3. The trip took three days. When we returned, mail said I did not have to go. What were you doing that day?
COUNTY NEWS, whose sloganis, "The Wisdom to Know and the Courage to Defend the Public Interest," in Nov. 6 issue shows a photo of Senator.

Public Interest." in Nov. 6 issue, shows a photo of Senator issue, shows a photo of Senator Muriel Humphrey (Hubert's widow) as she and Hep. Augustus Hawkins lead a delegation before President Jimmy Carter as he signed the Humphrey-Hawkins CETA bill into law. The group represented the National Association of Counties, with Chalette Counties, with Charlotte Williams, a black, of Genesee County, Michigan, president of the national body, leader.

the national body, leader.
In addition to Ms. Williams, others identifiable as Negroes from accompanying photos, include Tarheelia's own Elizabeth Coffeld, Wake County Raleigh, N.C.) commission Other blacks among the 56 Other blacks among the 56-member Board of Directors (as shown by photos) include: Harold Hayde, Flint, Mich.; Terrance Pitts, Milwaukee, Wis., Frederick Wilson, Ruston, La. One white, Elizabeth Hair, is from Charlotte, N.C., and the other white is M. H. "Jack" Brock, Erwin, N.C.

Erwin, N.C.

Elmer R. Daniel, Spring Hope, N.C., is on the Science and Technology Committee. John Boring, Cherokee commissioner of Andrews, N.C., is on the Indian Affaira Committee. Sam Noble of Lumberton, is on the Rural Affaira Committee. Ogden Deal, Greensboro, is on the Task Force on Arts. Forrest Campbell, Greensboro, and C. Euray Lawing of Crouse, Lincoln County, are both on the Welfare and Social Services Committee.

Elections are over, but are you satisfied? If you didn't vote, then you are the goat, for that's all she wrote! Our witty radio friend, Mr. Franklin, says you must not complain nor anguish in pain because Adam and Eve didn't get Cain until they got Abel. Moral is, always vote, then you will have done your then you will have done your duty as a loyal American!! Salve over your wounds; Discard your gloom; it won't spell our doom. Remember, the Master arose from the tomb!

At midnight, Election Day, as e final tabulations were being the final tabulations were being reported by radio, it was revealed that Negroes and other minorities almost missed the boat in many races. It was expected that Senator Jesse (keep the Negroes back) Helms would win the U.S. Senatorial race as he did statewide.

Everyone was suprojeed that Everyone was surprised that John Baker, Democratic candidate for sheriff of Wake candidate for sheriff of Wake County (Raleigh) only won by a slim margin of 1000 votes! This coming only after repeated endorsement from Gov. Jim Hunt Jr. and President Jimmy Carter, and thousands of white votes!

Baker thanked the 300 Baker thanked the 300 supporters who gathered for his victory remarks just before midnight, election day, saying they had worked hard for the victory on their own time. The victory being the election of the first black sheriff of Wake County since Reconstruction. County since Reconstruction

But Judge Richard C. Erwin's candidate to s appointment by Gov. J. B. Hunt, to the Court of Appeals judgeship was a significant victory for all Tar Heels

Charles Evers, (whose brother was slain years ago because he dared help Negroes in voting and in the quest for n voting and in the quest for their civil rights through the MAACP) was the black senatorial candidate (3-way race) who came in third with 25 percent of the vote and the white above him had 32 percent. That shows Negroes are voting in Mississippi, with the help of a few whites in what was once a few whites, in what was once a never, never land to black

Over Durham way, we see Alexander Barnes is still the black who runs on the Republicanticket. Let John ingram and offer losing candidates start planning now for the next elections two years hence. And may the blacks start to getting all their people registered against that day, and others.

Rev William H Burgess Shiloh Baptist Church, nea Whitakers, preached Nov. 5 from John 11 chapter, 40th verse, where he called the dead body of Lazarus to come forth and take on life again, after being dead four days!
"Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that, if thou wouldst believe, thou shouldest see the glory of God?" The it was that they took away the stone from the tomb and let God have his way through his Son Lesus, as he commanded the Jesus, as he commanded the dead to "come forth", which immediately, "he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with grave clothes." Then it was that, as the astonished onlookers stared in disbelief, Jesus ordered them to "loose the man and let him go" that he might tell of what great things the Master had done for him! Jesus, as he commanded the the Master had done for him!!

Shiloh Baptist Deaconess

Shiloh Baptist Deaconess Board will observe their anniversary services Sunday, Nov. 19, at 6 p.m. with Rev. Lee Beals as the guest speaker. Sick and Shut-in members include: Sisters Sallie Cutchin, Pat Coley, Mary Joyner, Claudie Whitehead, Fannie Lewis, and Deacon Johnnie Lewis, and Deacon Johnnie Burgess said, "If you believe.

Burgess said, "If you believe, then all things are yours, and ye are Christ's."
Rocky Mount Judicial Center was dedicated Nov. 5 with Hon.
J. Phil Carlton as guest speaker to the 300-plus audience, including the standees.
Mayor Frederick E. Turnage

Mayor Frederick E. Turnage presided and presented the many area and statewide notables who were present, including 2nd District Congressman L. H. Fountain. Commissioners, sheriffs and court officials of Nash and Edgecombe were among those recognized, along with some political candidates.

political candidates.
Significantly, the audience was composed of mostly senior citizens from fifty years upward. It seems that the younger citizenry cares very little about participating in the steady, or more serious, things in life, which are, in the mair in life, which are, in the main, responsible for the making of our principal way of life!

Following the dedicatory services and tours of the spacious Court of Justice building, many citizens repaired to the residence of Mayor and Mrs. Turnage, where an informal reception was enloved, with vexen ham was enloved, with vexen ham was enjoyed, with reach, ham biscuits, and cup cakes served.

Rocky Mount officialdom are Tar Heel municipalities because they "parlayed" an abandoned school plant into a modern all-purpose courthouse at about one-fourth the cost of a new structure of similar design!! This was, indeed, quite a feat!!!

Feltonville BY MRS. MARY L. MOSS FELTONSVILLE — Can a man be profitable unto God as he that is wise may be profitable unto himself?

Profitable unto himself?
Felton Grove Baptist Church held Sunday School at the usual hour with Deacon Charles Baker, supt., presiding. Sis.
Moss taught the leason from the subject Reverance For the Sabbath. It was a most interesting lesson.

interesting lesson.

At 11 a.m. worship service opened with Rev. MacArthur Baker, presiding. The mixed choir rendered music. Mrs. Annie Mae Lewis gave the announcements and recognized visitors. Rev. Leake gave the children's sarmon which the children's sermon, which was entitled What Is the Book?

was entitled what is the Book?
Little Curtis Moas sang the hymn, Yes, Jesus Loves Me.
Rev. Leake preached a wonderful sermon from Phil.
4:6. He used as a theme, A Person-To-Person Call To God.
Visitors were Miss. Carol. Visitors were Miss Carol Brailsford of Raleigh, Mrs. Brailstord of Raleigh, Mrs. Beulah Grimm from Scott's Grove Church, Mrs. Evelyn Moss of Cedar Rock Church, Mrs. Brenda Leake of Hickory Grove Church. You are always welcome to worship with us at Felton Grove Baptist Church at any time.

any time. Please remember all sick in your prayers.

The male chorus will re-hearse Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. and render music for the 11 o'clock worship service on

day. he Missionary Circle traveled to Hatchet's Grove Baptist Church for the second anniver-sary Sunday at 6 p.m. The senior ushers will be on duty Sunday at Felton Grove Baptist Church. A THOUGHT

A THOUGHT
For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.
Romans 8:18

Asbury

CHURCH AND COMMUNITY ANNIE PERRY BY MRS. ANNIE PERRY ASBURY Church School began at 9:35 am with the supt. Mr. Glover Pennington, in charge. The opening song was I Love To Tell the Story
The Apostles' Creed was led by the School. Prayer was recited In concert. The second selecin concert. The second selec-tion was Jesus Is Calling. The

LINCOLNVILLE AME

tion was Jesus Is Calling. The subject of the Jesson was Reverence For the Sabbath. The classes were assembled and the teachers took their respective places. The first Bible class teacher is Mr. Charles Rogers; the second Bible class teacher is Mr. Melvin Hooker. The second and third classes were combined. A review of the Jesson was given review of the Jesson was given review of the lesson was given by Mrs. Nellie Penny. The lesson was most interesting. Remember the Sabbath Day

Remember the Sabbath Day and to keep it holy. You are always welcome to come and study with us. Secretary is Mrs. Lucille Cotton; pastor is Rev. I. J. Trving, Morning worship began at 11:10 with the pastor, Rev. I. J. Irving, presiding, The opening song was Praise God From Whom All Diseries.

song was Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow. Music was rendered by the senior choir, with Mr. Robert Hooker, at the piano. The first hymn was So Shall My Walk Be Closest To God. Altar prayer was led by Mr. James Isaac. Scripture was read by the pastor from the 23rd Psalm. pastor from the satural Announcements followed by offering was blessed by the pastor.

Rev. Irving took his text from the 23rd Psalm, 4th verse. His subject was Be Not Afraid. Following the message, the doors of the church were opened The Lord's Supressure. opened. The Lord's Supper was served.

If you just hold out till tomorrow, if you just keep faith thru the night; if you just hold out till tomorrow, everything will be alright.

ANNOUNCEMENTS
Regular pastoral days are

Regular pastoral days are every second and fourth Sundays at 11 o'clock with Rev. Irving, presiding. On the second Sundays, the senior choir renders the music, with Mr. Robert Hooker, at the piano.
On the fourth Sundays, the

On the fourth Sundays, the young adult choir renders music, with Mr. James Longmire at the piano. The male chorus sings on the fifth Sundays. The young adult choir rehearses every Monday at 7 p.m.; prayer service is held Monday afternoon at Mother Elmirdle Rowe's home; the Elmirdle Rowe's home; the Irving Singers rehearse every Wednesday at 7:30 p.m.; senior choir rehearsal is each Thursday at 7:30 p.m. and the male day at 7:30 p.m. and the malchorus rehearses every Friday afternoon at 6:30 afternoon at 6:30.

Regular board meeting is Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. after the third Sunday.

The church received a thank you letter from the Baines family. A donation was sent to them upon the birth of their twin daughters.

Visitors are always welcome to come and worship with us.

Visitors are always welcome to come and worship with us. Viritors were Mr. George Jones, the brother of Ms. Katie and Moses Jones. He is from New York; Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Shaw of Charlotte. He is the brother of Mr. Willie Shaw and Mrs. Agnee Ellis.

Mrs. Agnes Ellis.

A musical program will be held at Pentecostal United Holy Church at 708 S. State Street on Sunday at 4 p.m.

Happy belated birthday to Mrs. Louise Brown, Nov. 7; Mr. Charles Evans, Nov. 18.

Our sick are Ms. Elmirdie Rowe in Apex Hospital; Mr. C. D. Cain, home from Wake

D. Cain, home from Wake Medical Center. We are still praying for all our sick. May we continue to pray for one

A THOUGHT

Beware of all covetousness; for a man's life does not consist in the abundance of his

-St. Luke 12:15

Stanhope

RED OAK GROVE BAPTIST

CHURCH STANHOPE—The Novemb er meeting of Group No. 1 of the Red Oak Grove Baptist Church was held at the home of day night before the second Sunday in November. Devotion was conducted by Sister Alice Perry and Sister Evelyn Cotton. Psalms 100 was read for scripture in honor of the approaching Thankgiving sea-

After devotion, the group discussed Genesis 4 as part of their Bible study. This chapter deals with the birth of C-in and Abel, the first two children. It tells how Cain and Abel gave a sacrifice to God; Cain gave fruit of the ground, but Abel gave one of his fat firstlings as apprifice. Cod was because a sacrifice. God was pleased with Abel gift, but was not pleased with Cain's. As a pleased with Cain's. As a result, Cain became jealous of Abel's and finally killed him.

This chapter leaves a message for us today. When we give, we should give our best. God always expects our best in everything we do and He will reward us for it.

The business portion of the meeting was opened by reading of the minutes of the last meetings by the secretary. The meeting by the secretary. The minutes were adopted as read.

Group No. 1 extends condolences to the family of the late. Wreather Moore.

condolences to the family of the late Wreather Moore, who passed recently. The Group will certainly missher.

This year's Christmas party will be held Saturday night before the third Sunday in December at the home of Brother Leon Howard. We hope all members will come worship with us and share the real meaning of Christmas.

The next meeting will be held Thursday night before the second Sunday in December at the home of Mr. & Mrs. Robert Moore. The address is 2111 Danridge Drive. We will discuss Genesis 6 for our Bible discussion.

discussion.

A thought for Thankgiving: A thought for Intallegiving.

"O give thanks unto the Lord, for He is good: because His mercy endureth forever.
Psalms 118:1."

Clayton

MOUNT VERNON UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST
BY MRS. VIRGINIA GRIFFIS
CLAYTON — Sunday School opened at 9:45 a.m. with the supt., Mr. Lea, in charge.
At 11, morning worship began with the young adult choir rendering music. Elder James Sheares was the speaker in the absence of Rev. McCoy, pastor, whose mother-in-law, Mrs. MacFadden, died in Wilson.
The call to worship was in Wilson.

The call to worship was made by Deacon Eason. The made by Deacon Eason. The opening hymn was Kneel At the Cross. Scripture was read by Deacon Byrd from the 14th chapter of St. John 1-10. Prayer was offered by Deacon Whitley. A welcome to all visitors was made.

Harvest Day will be held Nov. 26. Come out and help us make that day a great one.

A great evangelist, Elder Sheares, came to us and spoke

A great evangelist, Elder Sheares, came to us and spoke from Exodus on the topic, Lord, You Have My Golden Image. He used as a theme, what Are You Looking For? You are looking, but not seeing. He preached a dynamic sermon, which we all know the kind of man he is. Our hearts go out to our pastor and family during their bereavement. On Nov. 10 the deacons of Mt. Vernon United Church of Christ had a banquet at the K&W Cafeteria in Raleigh. Services were held on the K&W Cafeteria in Raleigh.

Services were held on the second and fourth Sundays.
Come and worship with us.
Visit the sick. Mrs. Alford's mother is hospitalized at Wake

Medical Center A THOUGHT

Follow after charity and desire spiritual fifts, but rather that ye may prophesy. I Cor. 14:1

Spring Hope

JONES HILL BAPTIST

CHURCH MS. MILDRED CRUMEN SPRING HOPE - Sunday School began at 10 a.m. with School began at 10 a.m. with the supt., Deacon Arteria Wheless, in charge. The subject of the leason was Reverence For the Sabbath. Remarks came from Rev. William Giles, pastor. Morning worship service began at 1:15 with Rev. Giles in charge, and the senior choir rendered music. Mrs. Anne Raeford accompanied at the Reaford accompanied at the organ. The opening hymn was Holy, Holy, Holy. Responsive reading was led by Rev. Gles with scripture taken from Proverbs 6. Deacon Luna Stone offered prover. The mission offered prayer. The mission offering was lifted by the ushers. Bro. Demoree Bolden also prayed. Announcements were made by Sister Sylvia Jones

Jones.

Rev. Giles gave a most inspiring message from Proverbs 6:6 entitled Learning From the Ants. The offering was lifted by Bro. Allan Dunn and Bro. James Bolden. Benedictive feltoget diction followed ANNOTINGEMENTS Youth night is the fourth unday at 7. Missionary meeting is held ne fourth Sunday after Sunday

The young adults will observe their first anniversary Sunday at 5 p.m.
Usher board meeting is held the first Sunday after Sunday School

Wilbon

BY MRS. D. S. HICKS WILBON — This is a wish I always wish The prayer I ever pray, Lord, may my life help other It is bushes by the way.

The Bazzel Creek Church School was called to order by Supt. Washington. Sis. G. S. Smart brought a wonderful review of the lesson which was entitled Reverence For the Sabbath.

the call to worship made by the pastor, Sis. Mazie Baldwin and the male chorus was in charge of the music. Rev. Stinson read the scripture lesson from Luke 23:39-45. Deacon John 23:39-45. Deacon John Smart gave the invocation. Sis. Texanna Washington gave the children's altar talk. Deaconess Bettie Stinson offered prayer. Deacon John Greene made the announcements and welcomed visitors. Rev. Davis presented certificates of merit to all homecoming captains and encouraged all to keep up the good work. the good work.

the good work.

The adult ushers were in charge of the offering. Trustee Jonathan Battle gave the offertory prayer; Mrs. Irene Slater, who is a member of the Jordan Singers of Atlanta, Ga., sang a solo entitled, Steal Away. Mrs. Slater, Mrs. Virginia Sturdivant and Mrs. Louise Kelly worshipped with us.

Lord, Remember Me was the subject of Rev. Davis' sermon. His text was from Luke 23:42-43. The message was food for thought. The benediction followed altar prayer.

followed altar prayer.
Our known sick are Sisters
Jeanette Steward, Willia J.
Prince, Judy Beckwith, Alice Garrett and Deltha M. Steward, who is hospitalized at Wake Medical Center. We are happy to have Sis. Venola Johnson back at church after a brief stay in the hospital. Let's continue to pray for these and others.

thers.
The Davis Inspirational ingers will observe their first anniversary with a two-part program Saturday at 6 p.m. and Sunday at 3 p.m. The public is invited to attend.

Remember to pray a for mankind everywhere

Rhamkatte

RHAMKATTE - Church School opened at Watts Chapel Baptist Church at 9:45 a.m., with all classes taking their places. Deacon Chester Debnam is superintendent Dr. F. B.

Dr. F. B. Weaver spoke at 11 from the subject, What Happens When We Commun-ion In Remem-brance Of ion In Remembrance Of Him? The music was rendered by the aenior choir MRS. ALSTON with Mrs. Ross Smith, at the organ. Dr. Weaver left us with a soul-stirring, dynamic message on Jesus, the salvation brings you happiness, truth sage on Jesus, the salvation brings you happiness, truth, faith nd peace. He gave His body, His blood, so examine yourself in remembrance of Him.

We were glad to have Rev. L. Hill, Rev. Stanley Ballentine in the rostrum for the morning service. We were also happy to see Mr. and Mrs. John Baker and children worshipping with us. Visitors are always welcome at any time.

come at any time. At 6 p.m., Rev. W. W. Easley At 6 p.m., Rev. W. W. Easley and the Inspirational Singers from St. Joseph AME Church, Durham, were guests for ther Durham, were guests for the morning service.

Rev. Easley spoke from the gospel of St. Luke 23:43. He used as a subject. A Promise used as a subject.

goapel of St. Luke 23:43. He used as a subject, A Promise Of Paradise. His thoughts were recognize your mistakes, ask for forgiveness. It was a great service. We were glad to have Rev. R. Murph from Durham with us also.

ANNOUNCEMENTS
Deaconesses will be in charge of the 5 p.m. service at Watts Chapel Baptist Church Nov. 19. Rev. D. L. Morrison will be the 11 a.m. speaker at walts chapel 11 a.m. speaker at will be the 11 a.m. speaker at St. John AME Church of Nov.

At 5 p.m. Sunday School At 5 p.m. Sunday School night service was held with a great host of Sunday Schools joining us to help to make our day successful. Music is by the Gospel Ensemble Youth Choir. St. John AME Church will observe Fail Raily Day on Nov. 28. All inembers are asked to do their part.

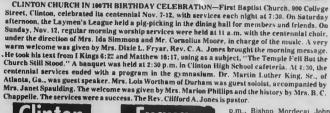

On Nov. 28, the men of Watts Chapel Baptist Church will

On Nov. 28, the men of Watts Chapel Baptist Church will celebrate Men's Day. Dr. F. B. Weaver will be the speaker. At 5 p.m. the usher board of Watts Chapel Church will sponsor the Family Of the Year program. Our sick are Mr. Ben Burt in the VA Hospital; Bryant Ashe, Tancy Burt. Allen Matthews, the VA Hospital: Bryant Ashe, Tancy Burt, Allen Matthews, Henry Fletcher, Louise Dozier, William McNeil, Alice Hill, Walter Rogers, Beulah Mc-Cauley, all senior citizens at the Evans Rest Home. Let us keep praying for the sick everywhere.

Roast the seeds of squash and pumpkin for an enjoyable nibble.

Clinton

BY MRS. A. M. JOHNSON
CLINTON — Mrs. Ida Blocker of Asheville was in Clintofor the weekend to attend the Centennial Services at First.
Baptist Church. She was the house guest of her sisters, Mrs.
Betty Monroe, and Mr. and Mrs. Percy Moore.
Dr. and Mrs. Moses Ray, Jr. of Tarboro, motored to Clinton last Sunday to attend First Baptist's Centennial program at the high school. Dr. Martin Luther King, Sr., was the guest speaker.

Boone of New York, spent last week in Clinton, visiting relatives and friends. Mr.

relatives and friends. Mr. Boone is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Alice Boone.
Mrs. Juanita Ezzell spent a recent weekend in Charlotte with her children. Mrs. Wanda Green and her family and Ms. Alva Ezzell. She reported an enjoyable weekend enjoyable weekend.

Mr. James Ezzell, III, of Greensboro, was home for the weekend.

weekend.
Mrs. Nina Sampson of Rt. 4 had as her weekend guests, Mr.
and Mrs. Hardy Sampson of Pleasantville, N. J. They were here to attend the Centennial services at First Baptist Church.

of Vices at 1781 Baptist

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Bunting of Wilmington, Del. were the house guests of Mrs. Mabel Dunston of Turlington St. for the weekend. The Buntings were in Clinton to attend theCentennial Services at First Baptist Church.
Mrs. Jacqueline Douglass of Chicago, Ill., is in the city, visiting her mother, Mrs.
Mabel Dunston, of Turlington
St.

Riley Hill

BY MRS. M. P. TWITTY

BY MRS. M. P. TWITTY

RILEY HILL — The second Sunday in November has, for a long time, been Homecoming celebration day, also known as Fall Rally Day. Sunday School was conducted in the usual manner. Mr. J.
A. Jones was teacher of the second Bible class. A review

second Bible class. A review of the lesson was given by the teachers. Reverance of the Sab bath was the subject of the MRS. TWITTY lesson. Auxiliaries of the church contributed generously to the call of titling. The to the call of tithing. The amount of approximately $5,000 was brought to the altar. The singing department was on hand and responded readily Mrs. Naomi Horton accompan-ied at the piano. Rev. W. G Mrs. Naomi Horton accompanied at the piano. Rev. W. G. Horton, pastor, chose his text from Nehemiah 2:5. His subject was Longing For Home. The emphasis was on the three homes: family, church and the heavenly home. It was a timely discourse. Flowers were placed in the sanctuary in memory of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Crews, Sr. Rev. H. L. Perry, Mr. M. H. Robertson and Mrs. Addie Watting signen. and Mrs. Addie Watkins, given and Mrs. Addie Watkins, given by the family. Following the service, the dining hall was opened for fellowship reunion. A delicious dinner was served. The gospel chorus sang on a musical program at Lee's Cross Roads Baptist Church Sunday even-

Each and everyone present at the spaghetti dinner ald at Eastern Wake Optional School A spaghetti dinner will be held at Eastern Wake Optional School Friday from 5-9 p.m School Friday from 5-9 p.m.
This affair is being sponsored by the Riley Hill Development Association. Tickets are $1.50 each. W. M. Horton is president and Mrs. Eunice R. Leach is secretary

Fuquay BY MRS. LOUISE CAESAR

CLINTON CHURCH IN 100TH BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION—First Baptist Church, 900 College everlasting life.

First Baptist
Sunday School opened at 10 a.m. with the supt., Bro.
Patrick Harris, presiding.
The subject of the lesson was Reverence For
the Sabbath MRS. CAESAR
The memory selection was:
Keep the Sabbath Day to sanctify it as the Lord, thy God, hath commanded thee. Miss Deborah Robinson reported the minutes of the School and made announcements.

made announcements.
At 11:15, morning worship service was held with the call to worship by the pastor, Rev. R. A. Wright. Music was It. A. Wright. Music was furnished by the young "andi-chess" and the control of the remaining for the control of the furnished prayer was offered the announcements and welcoming of visitors were given The Church clerk in Mesgiven. The church clerk is Mrs.
Jone Graph. Missien and general offerings were litted by general offerings were inted by the teer where, Mm. Alberta's Smith a president seal doubt a spiritual from the choir. Rev.

Wright delivered the message, which was entitled, Luke Warm Christians. Preceeding
the sermon, the dedication service for Mrs. Alice McCullers' granthaby was held. Hers' lers' grandbaby was held. Her Godmother and father are Godmother and father are Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Lee, Jr. of Angier. Refreshments were served following the services by the Relative Gospel Singers. The young adult choir and the Relative Gospel Singers helped to celebrate the 40th anniversary of the St. Augusta Gonnel Chorus with many Gospel chorus, with many Gospel chorus, with many gospel singers appearing. The gospel chorus wishes to thank the many groups who came to help them enjoy the anniversary program.

Special prayers to all our sick and shut-ins.

A THOUGHT:

To excise our rause on the ground of our weakness is to quiet our fears at the expense of our hopes.

Wilson

BY FRANK W. BARNES WILSON — The pasto WILSON — The pastor s second anniversary with St. Paul Church of Christ, was 7-12. He is Elde Chester Aycock

REV. C. AYCOCK On Tuesday at 7:30 p.m., Elder John Oliver and choir of Red Hill and Clinton presided; Wednesday, Elder Williams and choir of Black Creek; and choir of Black Creek;
Thursday, Bishop M. W.
Johnson, the male chorus of St.
Rose Church, Wilson; Friday night, Elder Barron, choir of First Baptist, Elm City;
Saturday night, Elder Eddie B.
Colau practided

Coley presided.
On Sunday at 11 a.m., Elder On Sunday at 11 a.m., Elder Morrison of Washington, D. C., the Rouse Chapel choir of Clinton and the Rupning. Branch Cnoir May, Mission rendered music. Sunday at 3 son of St. Rose Church, Wilson opened with scripture from II Timothy. Rev. P. P.

II Timothy. Rev. P. P.
Phillips offered prayer. The sermon was entitled What's In It For Me? from St. Matthew.
After the service. Bishop Johnson called Rev. Aycock his wife and family to the front and presented a love gift in the amount of $900.
Thanksgiving activities in.

amount of $900.

Thanksgiving activities include the Ball and Cane Club's golden boy dance Nov. 25 at the Reed Street Community Center at 10 p.m. Proceeds from this affair will benefit the building fund. James Buchanan is chairman, assisted by F. W. Barnes, Henry Bernard and James O. Sumler lost his mother. recently. Funeral mother, recently. Funeral services were held in Rocky Mount, Nov. 11.

Angier

BY EVANGELIST JOANN WALTHOUR

ANGIER - King Solomon ANGIER — King Solomon and all the people offered sacrifices before the Lord. II Chronicles 7:5 states: And King Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty and twenty thousand sheep: so the Kind and all the people dedicated the house of God."

In relation to this scripture, Elder Charles D. Taylor, his

In relation to this scripture, Elder Charles D. Taylor, his wife and the body of the Pure Gospel Church of Christ, wishes to hank you for every courtesy everyone extended to him and the warm welcome from the community of East Davie St. Also, he wishes to thank every minister who delivered such beautiful messages that strengthened his sages that strengthened his sages that strengthened his heart. To every devotional leader who kept everything alive, a special appreciation is extended. Services will be held at 226 E. Davie St. every Sunday at 6 p.m. Our prayers are continued. are continued for the Smith family in lov family in loving memory of Mrs. Alice J. Smith, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. General Jones. She leaves to mourn her hus MS. WALTHOU'S band, Mr. Mamon Smith; six band, Mr. Mamon Smith; six daughters, five sons, all of Raleigh; one sister, two brothers and 24 grandchildren; one great grandchild and numerous other relatives. Eulogistic services were held at Juniper Level Baptist Church Nov. 11 at 2 p.m. Rev. G. A. Jones Sr. at 2 p.m. Rev. G. A. Jones, Sr., officiated. The family is grateful to their many friends for all acts of kindness during the illness of their loved one and for the expressions of thy shown in the feeling better.

We are glad to hear that Mrs. Katie Ferguson of Angier is feeling better.

A happy birthday wish goes out to Mr. Linnel Alfred Taylor of Willow Springs.

An unfinished business discussion meeting for the gospel participation in the Christmas parade will be at the home of out. your writer, 505 Church St., Angier. Call 639-3908 for more information Mrs. Inez Lee of Angier is to Mrs. Inez Lee of Angier is to be commended for her service to the Black River citizens and the underprivileged voters on election day. Also to Mrs. Gloria Campbell and Mrs. Dorothy Taylor. Your writer will be attending a nre. Thanksiving hanguet

Your writer will be attending a pre-Thanksgiving banquet Friday evening at 8 in the Chavis Heights Center on behalf of the building fund for gospel programs. Mrs. long of Smith Temple and the gospel community club is in charge. Until next week: Never forget the little deeds of kindness and the little acts of love that make life one grand sweet song.

sweet song.