

CHURCH'S MUSICAL PROGRAM PRESENTED—Recently, talented children of Oberlin Baptist Church delighted their audience with a lovely musical program. The program included piano tunes by Vickie Richardson, Chandra Williams, Bridgette Thomas, Reginald Green, Sandra Bumpers, Jamee Alston and Sherry Pickett. Little LaTonya Croney played an organ tune. The children presented poems, a puppet song and group songs. Tony

Curtis presided and Nikki Pretty gave the introduction. Other children who participated were: Angie Robertson, Chan Pretty and Tiffanee Toms. Each child lit one candle as they sang their last song: "If Everyone Lit Just One Little Candle What a Bright World This Would Be." The ushers, Marquis Pickett, Linda Kittrell and JoAnne Turner, were alert in helping the young children and making the guests feel welcome. Mrs. Lucille Campbell, Doris Curtis, and Mary Pickett were on the program committee. Rev. H. B. Pickett, pastor of Oberlin Baptist, gave encouraging remarks and invited everyone to have refreshments in the fellowship hall.

Mrs. L. Watson Hostess To Cosmetologist Club No 35

On Tuesday, November 7th, through the 31. Ms. Vivian Burt was also in attendance. After completion of the Club Chapter No. 35, and affiliates of the National Beauty Cultrist League Inc. at the Mary B. Talbert Home, 317 E. Davie Street.

Mrs. Irene Thomas led a very impressive devotional period followed by a reading by Mrs. Joella Perry entitled, "It is all in the state of mind." The business session was presided over by the president Ms. Vivian Burt. The minutes of the previous meeting and correspondence were read by the secretary, Mrs. Sallie Mills. Various committee reports were heard.

Mrs. Dorothy Dunston gave a very interesting and informative report on the 26th Annual Convention of Region IV, Continuing Educational Seminar of the National Beauty Cultrist League Inc., which convened in Jekyll Island, Ga., with headquarters at the Holiday Inn on October 29

Holly Springs

BY MRS. C. J. MERRIT
HOLLY SPRINGS — Local Sunday Schools were opened at 10 a.m. with each superintendent presiding. The lesson subject was, "Reverence for the Sabbath," St. Matt. 12:1-8, Exodus 20:8-11. Golden Text was, "Keep the Sabbath day to sanctify it, as the Lord thy God hath commanded thee." Deu. 5:12.

Morning worship was held at Douglas Chapel A.M.E. Zion where Rev. J. D. Ray has been for 2 years. Rev. Roosevelt Harris brought the message. The music was rendered by the Gospel Chorus.

Morning worship was held at First Baptist with pastor Crum presiding and delivering the pastoral message.

The Gospel Chorus furnished music for the worship service. The Cotton family, Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Kimble visited Mr. Nathaniel Cotton in Wallace, N.C. Sunday. This is an annual observance of his birthday.

Continue to pray for our sick and shut in. Our list includes Mr. Junius Betts, Mrs. Lillie Uitley, Miss Jimmy D. Griffin. Many of our elderly are still holding on by faith.

HALIFAX MISSIONARY BAPTIST — You are invited to attend Sunday School at 9:30 a.m. and worship service at 11:00 a.m. Communion is always on the First Sunday. You may join one of five choirs and become a member of other departments; workers are always needed. Help us bring the Northern part of town to the South. You all come and help us worship God. Church reporter is Sister Eloise Shaw.

MT OLIVE UNITED HOLY CHURCH — Sunday school opened at 10 a.m. with Deacon John Daniels, superintendent in charge. The subject of the lesson was, "Reverence for the Sabbath," Matt. 12:1-8, Exodus 20:8-11. Golden Text was, "Keep the Sabbath day to sanctify it, as the Lord thy God hath commanded thee." Deut. 1:12.

The morning worship service began at eleven o'clock. The Junior Choir was singing for the service. The opening hymn was, "We Praise Thee O God." Invocation was rendered by pastor Horton. 42 Psalms was the scripture lesson. All came to the altar for the morning prayer.

Space was given for expressions. Each person who desired gave thanks to God for his goodness.

The choir sang for the mission, "I Don't Know Why Jesus Loves Me." The spiritual was, "Since I Have Been Redeemed."

Pastor Horton chose her text from 42 Psalm. Associate scripture was Mark 4:1-8. The subject was, "The Touching of the Soul." Altar call was given. The closing hymn was, "Reach Out." Benediction followed. Church reporter is Christine Evans.
