Retired Principal, James Harp, Dies

James A. Harp, retired principal of J.H. Sampson Elementary School, Kinston, died at home on Tuesday, April 24.

A native of Kinston, he had lived in Durham the past five years.

Harper earned the M.S. degree from Teacher's College, Columbia University; B.S. degree from Shaw University; taught one year in Lenoir County; and joined the Kinston Graded School System as principal of Sampson Elementary School in 1933, and retired in 1976.

At an early age, he joined White Rock Presbyterian Church, Kinston, where he later became a deacon and an elder. Upon moving to Durham, he joined the Covenant United Presbyterian Church.

Harper was a member of Beta Phi Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc., and in 1983 was Omega Man of the Year. He also served many organizations including Lenoir Community College, Kinston, where he served as a member of the board of trustees; and Green Lamp, Inc., where he served on the board of directors.

Survivors include his wife, Dr. Desretta McAllister-Harper; daughter, Ms. Jacqueline H. Hardy of Baltimore, Md.; two sisters, Ms. Louise H. Ruff of Columbia, S.C., and Ms. Ophelia H. Pitt of Brooklyn, N.Y.; one aunt, three uncles, several nieces and nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

The Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc., will conduct its memorial service on Friday, April 27, at 7:30 p.m. at the Covenant United Presbyterian Church. The family will receive friends at 8 p.m., following the Omega service.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in memory of James A. Harp to the Building Fund, Covenant United Presbyterian Church.

A memorial service will be held Saturday, April 28, at 11 a.m. at the Covenant United Presbyterian Church, corner of Massey and Linwood avenue, Durham.

The body is in the hands of Triangle Cremation Services, Inc., Chapel Hill, telephone (919) 732-8605.

been cut from 32 to 26 percent in that interim. Much more needs to be done, she declared. A grant is currently being sought from the Z. Smith Reynolds Foundation to set up a pilot program for the state, she added. Test scores and other gains were cited and the speaker reiterated that "North Carolina has the brains, the talent and the money to make our educational system work even better in the future." She added, "Our youth are depending on us and we cannot fail them."
