

Wake Volunteer Administrators

Plant Trees Honoring Volunteer Week

The Wake County Association of Volunteer Administrators will be planting trees to commemorate National Volunteer Week on Thursday, April 25, at 11 a.m. at Laural Hills Park Children's Playground on Edwards Mill Road in Raleigh.

and the state will be holding various events and activities during the week of April 21-27 in recognition of the 4.5 million volunteers throughout North Carolina who work with hospitals, schools, nursing homes and numerous other civic and community organizations.

Gov. James Martin have issued proclamations honoring state and national volunteers. "Prosperity without purpose means nothing," said President Bush. "Instead you revere what matters: simple fundamental values like decency, goodness, self-discipline, compassion, caring. From now on in America, a definition of a successful life must include serving others."

Attend Church On Sunday

IN RECITAL—North Carolina Symphony clarinetist, Michael Czerwinski, will present a recital of music on Tuesday, April 23, at 7:30 p.m., in the St. Augustine's Fine Arts Theater. He will be assisted by soprano, Judith Bruno, and pianist, Donna Jolly. The works of Rossini, Schubert, Debussy, Martini, and Argento will be performed. Admission is free and open to the public.

Artspace Sets Fundraiser For Saturday, April 27th

The fourth annual Artspace Artists New Works gallery opening is a fundraiser set for Saturday, April 27, from 8 p.m. to midnight. The gala will take place at Artspace, 201 E. Davis St., in the City Market of downtown Raleigh.

Music for the evening is provided by Tornado, a dance band from Greensboro. They play tributes, not covers, of Creole Backbeat Boppin Soul Boogie Fusion. Tornado was founded in 1984 and plays songs by such artists as the Neville Brothers, Aretha Franklin, Robert Cray, Sam Cooke, Jr. Walker, Marvin Gaye and Ike and Tina Turner.

The Artspace Artists New Works exhibition is a juried competition for the 98 members of the Artspace Artists Association. Juror for the exhibition is Jean McLaughlin, director of Visual Arts Programs at the N.C. Arts Council.

In addition to dancing, a complete buffet of hors d'oeuvres and a cash bar are available.

There will also be a raffle and special appearances by mystery guests.

All the Artspace tenant artists will have their studios open.

Tickets for the Artspace Artists New Works Fundraiser are available at Artspace, 201 E. Davis St., downtown Raleigh, from board members or by mail at P.O. Box 27331, Raleigh 27611. Tickets may also be charged by phone by calling 831-3787.

Raleigh's Deltas Hold Scholarship Extravaganza

BY ALLIE M. PEEBLES

The Raleigh Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, a public service sorority, sponsored its Sixth Annual Charity Ball on Friday, April 5, 1991, at the Sheraton Imperial, Research Triangle Park at 7:30 p.m. This year's affair was different since it was a dinner dance.

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority will present the Delta Carousel Finale on Saturday, April 20, at 7:00 p.m. at Enloe High School. At this time, seven high school seniors will receive scholarships and awards. They will be given in two categories: academics and service.

This could only be possible due to the splendid support of the public. Members of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority raise the money for this scholarship effort each year. The sorority expresses its gratitude to its man supporters.

Guests are really enjoying themselves at this soror's table.

Lucky guest receives door prize.

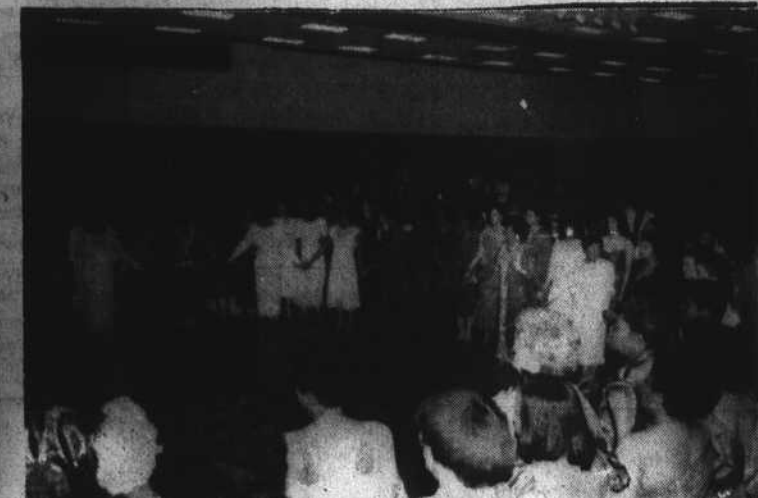

So that is the way you do the electric slide.

Some guests enjoy themselves at the table, others dance.

Deltas sing their sweetheart song.

It's a big circle Deltas formed to sing their Sweetheart song.
