Chavis played the organ, with the first hymn, "Draw Me Nearer." The invocation was presented by Rev. Carter while the choir chanted, "Father I Stretch My Hand To Thee." The second hymn was "I Must Tell Jesus."

Scripture was read from Hebrews 11:5 and Genesis 5:19. Apostles' Creed was followed by the recognition of visitors and announcements by Bro. Massenburg. Prayer time was held by Rev. Carter. Special selection by Ms. Ann Campbell was "I'm On the Battlefield for My Lord." The sermon was brought by Rev. Wilbur Carter from Genesis 5:19 on the subject, "Walking and Talking with God." The subtitle was "Look Down, Look Down That Lonesome Road; Look Up, Look Up Before Gabriel Blows His Horn."

We have a chance to walk and talk with God. We will have to walk in God's footprints before we can talk with Him. We have got to trust God in everything we do. We will have to accept God and believe that He is able, because He is, He will be with you in trouble and in good times, too. So walk with God. First you will have to know Him, also feel His Spirit in your heart, and believe that He will walk and talk with you and tell you that you are His own. If you pray to Him, He will walk with you every day. God be with you, church, and may heaven smile upon you.

The closing hymn was "I'll Fly Away."

At 3 p.m., the church anniversary began, with Bro. Perry and Bro. McAliley in charge of the opening hymn, "What a Fellowship." Scripture was read by this reporter. Welcome was given by Bro. Perry, followed by the history of the church by Bro. McAliley.

BRIGHT HOPE DIVINE HOLY CHURCH OF GOD, INC.

Superintendent R. LaSane opened Sunday School with devotion. Classes assembled afterward. "Proclaiming Christ" was the subject of the lesson, taken from Acts 17:1-34.

Bright Hope Church celebrated its fifth annual Men's Day. The theme for this event was "Had It Not Been for Jesus." Morning worship began after devotional services. Flight 417 will have pilots that are sober, saved by the grace of God, sanctified and filled with the Holy Ghost. We will not need to worry about the plane falling because we know the Pilot. When the plane lands, everyone will be as one. Trouble, hunger, sickness, loneliness, heartache and all the worries of the world will no longer exist. Every day will be filled with joy and peace. When we see Jesus it will indeed be Amen.

Service ended with the benediction. The Bright Hope Male Chorus held a concert at 5 p.m. along with the Mount Pleasant Male Chorus. The music was very moving and inspirational.

FIRST CHURCH OF GOD

Sister Fayger M. White opened early morning prayer service at 6 a.m. Sunday School opened at 9:30 a.m. under the direction of the superintendent, Bro. Luther Perry. Bro. Isaac White presided over the morning service. The choir provided the music, under the direction of Sister Cheryl Caldwell at the organ and Sister Anne Lott at the piano. Rev. Muriel Dunn read the scripture from Isaiah 53:7-12. The responsive reading was "Serving One Another." Sister Georgina Evans led the congregation in prayer.

Acknowledgement of visitors and announcements for the week were made by Sister Barbara Stewart. Tithes and offerings were collected.

Pastor James W. Lewis' proclamation, "Being Somebody By Serving Somebody," was taken from Mark 10:35-45. God determines greatness by whether we're willing to serve somebody else—not by how the world determines it. James and John wanted a place of honor and authority when they asked to sit on Jesus' left and right hand. Jesus says you must be willing to suffer and die just like He suffered and died. Jesus was trying to teach John and James the meaning of true greatness.

Jesus lives in us. He suffered and died for us. We must be willing to suffer and serve somebody else. The greatest tribute is that Jesus Christ worked through you to serve others.

A call to the altar and prayer for the sick preceded the benediction. Let us remember the sick and shut-in with a prayer and a visit.

Minority Students Promote Unity To Stamp Out Prejudice At Duke

Minority students at Duke University have joined together to "stamp out" prejudice and to promote unity among multi-cultural groups.

Spectrum, a coalition of all of the minority groups on campus, promotes cultural awareness among students. Members of Spectrum belong to the Black Student Association (BSA), Asian Student Association (ASA), Native American Student Association (NASA), Spanish American/Latino Student Association (SALSA) and Duke India Association (DIA).

Edward Hill, Ph.D., director of the Mary Lou Williams Cultural Center and the group's adviser, said he is not aware of the existence of any such group like Spectrum anywhere else in the country.

"Minority students often go through a university experience without ever having the opportunity to formulate bonds and affiliations with other students of color," Hill said. "But this group has produced a great deal of harmonious interaction. These students see themselves as having a need to understand more about one another in ways they never felt."

Larry Chavis, a Native American student who is chair of Spectrum, said the group coordinates several activities during the academic year, which are open to the student body.

The group hopes to sponsor a conference next spring, where similar student groups from other Southeastern universities can come together to discuss issues that face minorities.

Hill and Chavis can be contacted at the Mary Lou Williams Cultural Center, 919-884-3814.

First Baptist Church Group No. 12 Shares Message, Hears Testimony

Group No. 12 of First Baptist Church met on Thursday, Oct. 17, at 7 p.m. in the lower level of the church. The scriptural background for the four lessons was Matthew 5:1-10, Psalms 40:1-5, Matthew 19:16-26 and Isaiah 40:28-31, followed with prayer by the leader.

Lesson I, "Answering a Need by Teaching," was read by Ms. Annie B. Montgomery. It is very important for parents to teach their children at home, about God. There is always a need for studying God's word. Much of our failure comes from not sharing the word of God in our family. True love comes from a knowledge of God's Word.

Lesson II, "Witnessing Through Personal Testimony," was read by Ms. Carolyn Beckwith. The witnessing is more convincing when we give some personal experiences. Each time we praise God for a personal triumph, the opportunity is there to invite others to seek to know our wonderful Savior. We must let others see our good works.

Lesson III, "Guiding Others Toward Right Choices," was read by Ms. Louise H. Shaw. As soul winners, we must strive to have people look to Christ and not to us. We must constantly pray that our living as Christians will not cause someone to stumble. It is our responsibility to help the lost to make the right decision.

Lesson IV, "Developing Patience," was read by Ms. Lucille G. Paige. Many problems are created because we are impatient. A strong family has the power to guide individuals with uniqueness. Each person has a specific role to perform. We must demonstrate patience with our loved ones in order to accomplish our goals.

Ms. Elizabeth Bowman acted as secretary in the absence of Ms. Shirley Hintoin. She also read the treasurer's report sent in by Ms. Mozella Burnett. We regret that Ms. Burnett's husband is shut in and wish for him a speedy recovery. This is the only meeting that Ms. Burnett has missed since the club has been organized.

Ms. Paige thanked the members for their presence and thanked Ms. Montgomery for taking part in the group. She also reminded the members to support Women's D and to purchase some of the three-year planning calendars. The planners will have a picture of the church on the cover and the price is $2. The monthly report was taken. The meeting was closed with the repeating of the mixup.

All of the groups assembled in the chapel for devotion, reports and explanation of policies and procedures by E.B. Palmer.

Ms. Hazel Thomas, assistant leader of Group No. 9, was in charge of the devotion. The opening song was "What a Friend We Have in Jesus." Ms. Giles read an inspirational poem that she composed about the love of Jesus. Robert Hodge gave the prayer.

Ms. Blonnie Slade informed the group of the activities of the general group: Oct. 20—Women's Day.

Oct. 27—City Missionary Union, Christian Faith Church, 3 p.m.

Oct. 28-31—General Baptist State Convention, Cornerstone Church, Greenville.

Oct. 30—Prison Breakfast Ministry, 8 a.m., Ramada Inn, Greenville.

Nov. 2—Youth Evangelism Conference, Civic Center.

Nov. 14—Leaders Missionary Council, 6:30 p.m.

Nov. 14—Group meeting (all groups, 1-12), 7 p.m.

Nov. 17—Home Mission Sunday.

Ms. Slade then presented E.B. Palmer. He gave a brief history of the early church and examples where there was a need for policies and procedures then. In our society there are policies and procedures that are made by the government and our state. There has always been a need for policies and procedures. In the church, the guidance comes from the Holy Bible.

In a council meeting, there was a need to know whose responsibility it was to launder the tablecloths. He asked the question, "Do we need policies and procedures?" The answer was "Yes." We need to know who, when, where, why and what in order to carry out our responsibilities. After hearing Palmer, everyone could appreciate having policies and procedures in our church.

Ms. Slade thanked Palmer for his talk.

The program closed with prayer by Deacon Ellis Jones.

Members of Group No. 12 present were Ms. Elizabeth Bowman, Ms. Louise H. Shaw, Ms. Carolyn Beckwith, and Ms. Lucille Griswold Paige.
