LOTS OF NEWS NEVER GETS INTO PRINT

Somebody is always sending us something to print, with the notation "in case you need something to fill up." Lots of people think maybe newspaper doesn't get enough news to fill it up every week. To the contrary, there is always plenty of news, if we get the time to write it, and the time to put it into type.

For instance, we are quite ashamed of ourselves for having failed to carry stories to do justice to the recognition that recently came to Ben Dixon MacNeill of Buxton, and Aycock Brown of Manteo who have received outstanding awards for the literary and publicity work.

Again this week there has been important news. Woody Fearing, Jr., 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Fearing killed a goose, while Jerry Daniels, 15, killed two geese in one day. That is big news, as we can testify how I felt upon killing the first goose when I was about 15. Had I been on the job, we would have had pictures of these youngsters with their game.

Again a good job has been done of stringing Christmas lights in the Manteo business district. And nobody does a better job of decorating doorways and lighting attractive trees than the people of Roanoke Island. In fact, Manteo and vicinity is noted for its well kept homes the year round.

At long last, as the saying goes, the new bridge over Roanoke Sound is to be open for the holiday visitors, and it will be most welcome. No longer will our visitors be made afraid because of the rattle of board on the old bridge and now at last ends the flat-tire era that came of loose nails working out of these boards.

The Manteo Rotary Club Monday night decided to hold no meeting for the next two weeks, but will pay for the meals just the same, one week to the ladies who serve the dinner; the other to charitable causes favored by Rotary. Rev. H. R. Ashmore, Methodist minister, came out to be guest speaker, and the members talked so much there was only two minutes left for his speech, and he had to put it off until later.

Elmer Midgett down at Fearings was delighted to note the publicity that attended the appearance of Mr. and Mrs. John Moore at the Wright celebration Monday. Up until a year or two ago, John had been the forgotten man of aviation. He and Mrs. Moore were mighty important guests at the return of the original plane in Washington two years ago, at which time he appeared on

Mrs. Lizzie Lilly of Elizabeth City were here for the week end.

DAUGHTERS OF POCAHONTAS MEET AT WANCHESSE

The Lomaluska Council Number 28, Daughters of Pocahontas, held its regular meeting Friday night, December 14, at the Wanchesse Masonic Hall. During the business session, the following chiefs were elected to be installed December 28:

Prophetess, Mrs. Bruce Vander-slice; Pocahontas, Mrs. Terrah Midgette; Wenonah, Mrs. Ethel Parker; Powhatan, Miss Eluarie Payne; Keeper of Records, Mrs. Mildred Davis; Keeper of Wampum, Mrs. Louise Williams; Collector of Wampum, Mrs. Vivian Baum; Keeper of Tepee, Mrs. Juanita Gallop.

After the business was concluded, the members enjoyed a Christmas party. Gifts were exchanged, and the hostess served jello and fruit cake.

radio and television. Elmer says it was high time somebody paid Johnny Moore some attention.

All of us who know and love the Drinkwaters were greatly pleased to hear of their recent trip to New York as guests of Eastern Airlines, and to learn on their return that they had the time of their lives. There is nothing too good for this splendid couple who have done so much for their neighbors and friends in Dare County.

Were Fearing's Cafe any smaller, or the Elizabeth City High School band any bigger there would be a lot of trouble in serving this great organization so handsomely as was done Monday, when the band came over from Kill Devil Hill to enjoy a steak dinner. The entire band was well taken care of but there was no room for outsiders. And this is no small cafe either.

The Wanchesse Ruritan Club meets tonight, and I hope to take in that occasion, for they always feed well. I am afraid something will happen, now with all the Christmas rush to keep me away. This club has a most interesting meeting the third Friday of each month. V. G. Williams, furniture salesman and Sunday School teacher, has just taken over as president.

Among the best news items of the season is word that Julian Austin, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Austin of Frisco, is listed among those alive although a prisoner of war in Korea. It will be much nicer when we see him home again. Having known Julian so well for many years and enjoyed the friendship too of his mother and his grandfather, it was quite a blow when news came first that he was among the missing.

WIFE OF PAUL JONES DIES IN TYRRELL CO.

Funeral rites for Mrs. Mary Frances Jones, 78, who died at her home in Columbia Saturday, were conducted Monday at 3 o'clock at the Columbia Christian Church by the Rev. William Walters, assisted by the Rev. J. W. Alford, the Rev. E. R. Meekins and the Rev. W. E. Pope. Burial was in Oakwood Cemetery.

Mrs. Jones was a lifelong resident of Tyrrell County, the wife of Paul Jones and a member of Gum Neck Christian Church.

Surviving are two daughters, Miss Hettie Jones, of Columbia, and Mrs. J. W. Steele, of North Wilksboro; three sons, Arthur C. Jones, of Portsmouth; Dewey Jones, of Norfolk, and Lawson Jones, of Columbia; four sisters, Mrs. J. N. Davenport, of Elizabeth City; Mrs. Floyd Jones, of Creswell; Mrs. L. B. Combs, Sr., of Columbia, Route Three, and Mrs. R. W. Jones, of Fairfield; one brother, C. F. Kemp, of Columbia, Route Three, and 14 grandchildren.

"There are too many people putting too few thoughts into too many words." — Archbishop of Canterbury, refusing to make a speech.
