CARTWRIGHT-WARREN

Mrs. Eloise Mann Warren of Manteo became the bride of Harold Cartwright of Grandy at five o'clock Saturday afternoon, May 3, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Allen Mann, in Manteo. The ring ceremony was performed by Rev. H. R. Ashmore before an arrangement of mock orange, roses and snowballs. The bride, who is the daughter of Mrs. D. E. Mann and the late D. E. Mann of Manteo, wore a costume of navy blue crepe with navy and white accessories and a shoulder corsage of red roses. Mrs. Herbert Gard of Manns Harbor, niece of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a navy blue dress with navy and white accessories and a shoulder corsage of white carnations. Prior to the ceremony John H. Long, accompanied by Mrs. E. R. Westcott, sang "Because" by D'Hardelot. Immediately following the ceremony Mrs. Mann honored the couple with a reception. The table was laid with a cloth of cream colored rayon with pastel flower design. The three-tiered wedding cake, topped with miniature bride and bridegroom, was cut by the bride. Mrs. Mann presided at the punch bowl, and was assisted in serving cake, nuts and mints by her sister, Mrs. C. R. Evans. Arrangements of roses were used in profusion throughout the house. Mr. and Mrs. Cartwright are making their home for the present on the airport road near Manteo.

DARE COUNTY MEN FLYING BIGGEST NAVY SEAPLANE

Attached to Patrol Squadron 44, first fleet unit to fly the Navy's newest seaplane, the twin-engined Martin Marlin, are two Manteo, N. C., area men, James G. Meekins, aviation ordnanceman, second class, USN, son of G. E. Meekins and husband of Mrs. Myra P. Meekins, all of Stumpy Point; and William H. WILKINSON HOME CLUB HAS SPLENDID MEETING

Since everyone is so interested in the cancer drive the highlight of the regular meeting of the Wilkinson Home Demonstration Club was the showing of two films put on by the American Cancer Society. Thanks were given Mrs. John Winfield for bringing them to the club so they could be shown. Mrs. Fernie Laughinghouse, President, called the meeting to order. Devotions were given by Mrs. Boswell Cox. Minutes were read by the secretary, Mrs. J. M. Hudson. A favorable report was given by the treasurer, Mrs. Hugh Crumpler. After the business session, Mrs. Rita Preston, Home Agent, showed slides and spoke on "Fitting Ready Made Dresses." Most everyone has to alter a dress at some time so the demonstration was very helpful. Guests present were Mrs. John Winfield and Mrs. John Tankard of Yatesville and Mrs. Fred Latham and Mrs. Marian Dilden of Belhaven. Mrs. Latham brought to each member of the club a well-rooted, mock orange shrub. Each one expressed their appreciation of them. During the social hour Mrs. M. O. Ratcliff and Mrs. Stanley Russ, co-hostesses served delicious strawberry shortcake.

POPULATION REDUCER

The fear that India, with its 345 millions and an expanding birth rate, may some day rule the world is groundless. Wait until they find out about the automobile. There's a device that's guaranteed to keep down the population of any country. —Phoenix Flame
