MY MOTHER'S BIBLE

This Book is all that's left me now— Tears will unbidden start; With faltering lip and throbbing brow I press it to my heart. For many generations past Here is our family tree: My mother's hands this Bible clasped, She, dying, gave it me. Ah! well do I remember those Whose names these records bear; Who round the hearthstone used to close After the evening prayer, And speak of what these pages said In tones my heart would thrill! Though they are with the silent dead, Here they are living still! My father read this holy Book, To brothers, sisters, dear: How calm was my poor mother's look, Who loved God's Word to hear! Her angel face—I see it yet! What thronging memories come! Again the little group is met Within the halls of home! The truest friend man ever knew, Thy constancy I've tried; When all were false, I found thee true, My counselor and guide. The mines of earth no treasures give That could this volume buy; In teaching me the way to live, It taught me how to die! —George P. Morris

NORTH CAROLINA UNLIMITED RURAL TELEPHONE SERVICE GROWTH IS AMAZING! One measure of North Carolina's growth is found in the increase in telephone usage by farm families. Early this year, the state had 106,000 rural phone subscribers... which is significant considering that Southern Bell Telephone Company, which serves more than half these customers, has recorded in twelve years a nearly 500 per cent growth in its rural subscribers. Also contributing to the pleasant living that is North Carolina is the brewing industry's self-regulation program where brewers, wholesalers and retailers—in counties where malt beverage sales are permitted under state control—cooperate to maintain wholesome conditions for the legal sale of beer and ale.
