GOOD HEALTH.

Answer to Question No. 1: It often becomes advisable for older persons to undergo surgery. Such surgery can now be undertaken with safety. As a result of the use of antibiotics and blood transfusions, and because of improved techniques in anesthesia and surgery, the danger grows less and less.
Answer to Question No. 2: Lymph nodes are small bean-shaped organs located within the body, ranging up to an inch long. They act as barriers to disease, taking up and destroying bacteria from nearby regions and preventing the spread of infection. In this function, they tend to become enlarged, but as the infection subsides they usually return to their normal size.
Answer to Question No. 3: Hemophilia is a disease of the blood which is marked by a tendency to excessive bleeding (even from a small wound) as the blood does not clot promptly. There are about 40,000 cases in this country. People who suffer from this disease should carefully follow the advice of their family doctor. It is inherited through the mother. A great deal of research work is being done to control the disease and its complications.

COLUMBIA HOME CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. EARL COHOON

Columbia.—The Columbia Home Demonstration Club met Tuesday at 2:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. C. Earl Cohoon, with Mrs. Cohoon and Mrs. J. J. Armstrong as hostesses.
The meeting was opened by the singing of the Club Woman's Hymn, followed by the United Nations Hymn. A poem "I met my Lord One Evening" was read by the president, Mrs. E. J. Brickhouse. Mrs. Earl Meekins gave the devotional, using as her subject "Stewardship of our Children." Visitors welcomed included Mrs. Charles W. Spruill, Pres. of Tyrrell County Council of Home Demonstration Clubs, and Mrs. H. N. McClees. There were nineteen members present.
Mrs. Rodney S. Bateman, Chmn. of the exhibits for Fall Achievement Day, asked each member to bring an article of crochet to the November meeting to be judged, as only one article is allowed to be used. Mrs. Katherine Kelly was appointed to assist her. Mrs. William G. Liverman, Mrs. C. Earl Cohoon and Mrs. James W. Swain were appointed on the flower arrangement committee.
The annual garden project report was given by the Garden Leader, Mrs. J. J. Armstrong. Mrs. Minnie Spruill, Educational project leader reported two persons to receive book certificates: Mrs. Earl Sexton and Mrs. C. Earl Cohoon.
The Pres. reported that a General Club House for North Carolina Home Demonstration Clubs was to be built on State College Campus in Raleigh, and that Club members in the state had been assessed $1.00 per member to be paid in three years to be used on said Club Building, and it was her expressed desire that our Club pay a portion of this sum this year. Motion was carried that the Club send the full amount representing membership at this time in the amount of $22.00.
It was announced that the County Council was holding a Bake Sale in the Agriculture Building on the last Saturday in October. It was voted that the club pay for pins and guards to be presented to its members having 100% attendance.
Turning the chair over to the V-President, Mrs. Brickhouse thanked the club for letting her be their president for the past two years; that she had been benefitted so much by the privilege; it had afforded a challenge to her; the perfect cooperation, the beautiful loyalty; and the sweet fellowship afforded by each member. Not once in the two years had she called on a member who had refused to do her bidding, but had accomplished purpose beyond her expectations. She would keep each one in word pictures in her scrapbook of memories. She paid honor to the project leaders, who had given interesting and beneficial reports at their respective times to the committee who had worked on the three money making projects which she had set forth for the purpose of extra activities of which had been accomplished; donation of 50 place settings of silver, and $5.00 towards glass plates to be put in the home demonstration office for their use, and the donation of $100.00 for shrubbery to help beautify the new health center grounds; to the music leader, for the music project of vocal lessons under Mrs. D. F. Cohoon, payments for same paid individually. For the harmony of the works and the wonderful accomplishments, it shows that our club women are anxious for the progress of home demonstration clubs.

The new officers were then presented to the club as follows: Mrs. D. M. Bridgman, Pres., Mrs. Rodney Bateman, V-Pres., Mrs. Floyd Spencer, Secretary, and Mrs. E. J. Brickhouse, Treas. She then called on Mrs. C. Earl Cohoon to read a poem "Plans for a House," which she stated had been most beneficial to her during her tenure of office.
Mrs. Floyd Spencer, Social Service leader, then presented Mrs. Brickhouse, the outgoing President, with a small gift of appreciation for her valuable services, leadership and inspiration which has carried the club through two years of unusual progress.
A game contest "Advertising Slogans" of household items was put on by Mrs. C. Earl Cohoon. The prize winner was Mrs. Earl Meekins.
Refreshments depicting the color scheme of the club, green lime sherbert with yellow cookies and fondant were served by the hostesses.

I AWAIT THE NEWS

Each day I await the news
In hope that there will be
Some dramatic change of policy.
Each day I hope to hear
That the United States and Soviet Russia
Have become friends,
That they, and all the nations,
Have decided against war and weapons
And plan to devote
All power to creation,
That all the magnificent machines
of humanity
And all the science and sweat of man
Are to be employed for the common good.
Each day I hope to hear
That the rich have decided to throw down wealth
For the good of the poor,
That all men are to be created equal,
That, loving neighbor as self,
All men are to share the earth
And the burdens and benefits
Of our common society
Equally with one another.
Each day I look for a sign
That greed, vanity and hate
Are to dissolve in love
And that kindness to one another
Is to reign over the planet.
Each day I long for a hint

That no man is to exalt himself
Over his brother,
That none is to be subject
To another,
That the heritage of the past
And the creation of the present
Are to be every baby's birthright.
Each day I hope to hear
That nations, classes, races, creeds
Are to merge into unity,
That the whole earth is to be
Everybody's neighborhood,
That burdens shared by all
Are to be light,
That production shared by all
Is to be abundant,
That leisure shared by all
Is to give each human soul
In leisure to wander at will
Over the face of the planet Exchanging greetings with kindly friends
Of every color and clime,
Seeing the spark of love in every human eye,
Finding love to match love.
Though ten thousand days disappear
point me,
Each day I await the news
Believing that good will prevail
And all mankind will embrace forever
In unbreakable bonds of love.

DARE 4-H MEMBERS ATTEND MEETING IN WASHINGTON

On Saturday, October 11, four Dare County 4-H members, accompanied by farm agent R. S. Smith, attended the first 4-H district meeting and luncheon in Washington, N. C. Those making the trip were Lance Midgett, Waves; Phyllis Sawyer, Kitty Hawk; Barbara Haywood, Colington; and Mary Meekins, Manteo. Receiving credit for outstanding county 4-H records were Lance Midgett, gardening; Phyllis Sawyer, room improvement; Barbara Haywood, dairy foods demonstration; and Mary Meekins, improved ironing. Others receiving credit, but unable to attend the meeting were Sidney Mann, Kill Devil Hills, dairy foods; Robert Williams, Manteo, home beautification; Buck Midgett, Kitty Hawk, farm and home electric project; and Jackie Farrow, who is attending Louisburg College. Jackie was district winner of the 4-H dress revue and was among the top 16 in the state revue. She was the first Dare 4-H'er to win district honors, and the costume with which she won the award is to be shown on slides that have been made of outstanding 4-H work.
A political plank should be wide enough for side-stepping.

COLUMBIA BAPTIST CHURCH
October 5, 1952 brings to a close a year of service together as pastor and fellow workers. As we look back over the year what can we see? Twenty additions to our church, four have been Baptised, five are waiting to be Baptised and twelve by letter. We as a church have seen a dream come true. Our church paid all its indebtedness on the new Sunday School annex off, and with Soundside bought a nice home for the pastor.
The Pastor has had twenty three funerals, three Baptismal services, one wedding, one baccalaureate sermon, one sermon for ordination of deacons and preached 106 sermons, visits to the hospital and other things which come under the duties of pastor.
