

OCRACOKE PERSONALS

Mrs. Ed Merrill accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Dix Daugherty back to Goldsboro after their week end visit here, and spent several days there and at Morehead City and Beaufort.

Richard O'Neal is reported seriously ill at the Marine Hospital in Norfolk.

Members of the Sophie Williams Circle of the WSCS sponsored a chicken supper last week. It proved both socially and financially a success.

Mrs. Theodore Rondthaler entertained the children of her Sunday School Class at a swimming party Wednesday, serving lemonade and cookies after the afternoon's fun. Several visiting children were also present.

William Stahlcup of Florence, S. C., retired army officer and scout executive, enjoyed a week at Sound Front Inn. Others there this past week were Mr. and Mrs. P. Y. Matthews of Decatur, Ga., Jean Reuter and Margaret Jergis, both of Pittsburg, and Alfred Farrell and Horace Grispatch of Kingston, N. Y.

In the absence of Rev. W. Y. Stewart, Mr. Theodore Rondthaler preached at the morning service at the Methodist Church; Rev. Stevens of Newport News offered the morning prayer. Rev. Stevens is here at Ocracoke in his own boat; it is his first visit in nine years.

Mrs. Etta Spencer spent several days at Morehead City recently.

The August meeting of the WSCS of the Methodist Church will be held at the Church on Monday at 2 P.M.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Farrow announce the marriage of their daughter, Alona, to Seth Carter, at New Bern, N. C., on Saturday, July 11th. Mr. and Mrs. Carter are living in the Harvey Wahab cottage at Ocracoke. He is stationed in the local Coast Guard unit here.

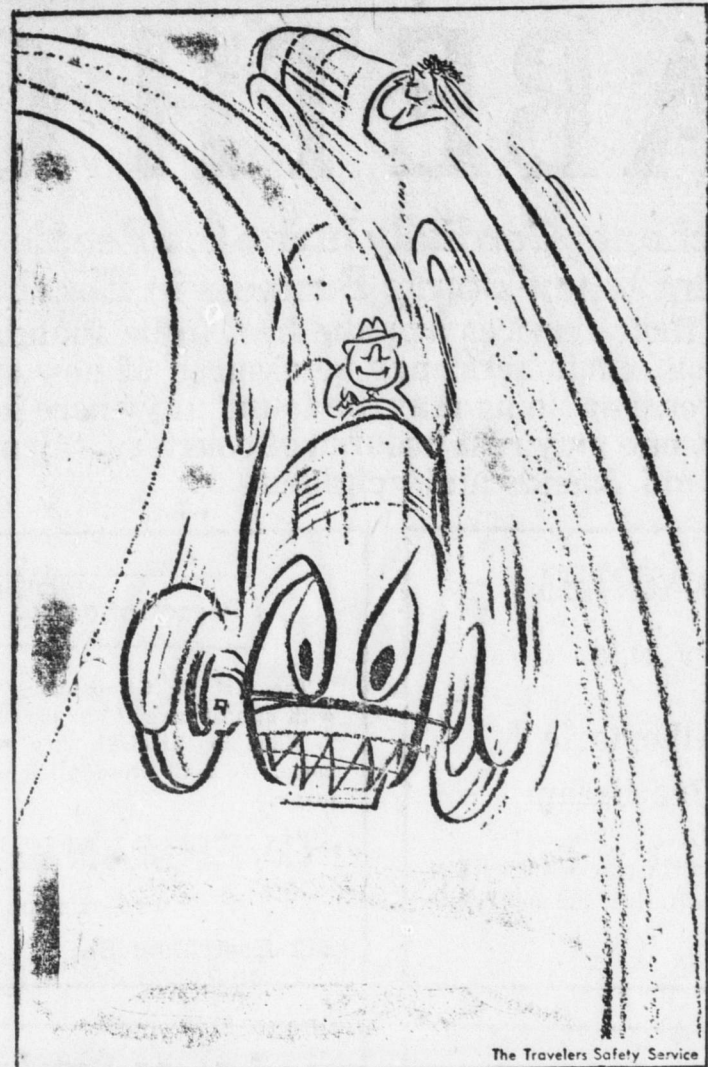

Mrs. Dicie Wells and son, John Ivey, and Miss Isabella O'Neal have been visiting their sister, Mrs. Gray Willis at Harker's Island.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ballance, of Beaumont, Texas, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elisha Ballance, and Miss Lorena Ballance, enjoyed a trip and visit at Ocean City, Maryland.

J. T. Drake of Rocky Mount is fast learning how to drive the beach from Hatteras down to Ocracoke, in spite of the lack of a road. His success in this venture where mainlanders get stuck or broke down, is undoubtedly due to the fact that his ancestors were Ocracokers, and Ocracokers are good sand drivers. J. T. has spent a good deal of the summer with his grandparents, Capt. and Mrs. Gary Bragg. He has visited Ocracoke since he was a youngster, and whenever possible during his years in the Armed Service. Its attractions continue to lure him back to the Island.

Russell Williams of Philadelphia spent several days here this past week end visiting his family and relatives.

Mrs. Gerald Gaskins and children have moved back to Ocracoke from Portsmouth, since Mr. Gaskins, USCG, has been recently transferred to Honolulu. They plan to join him there some time later on. Meanwhile she and the children are with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin O'Neal.

Jim Williams is back from a brief visit in Norfolk. Henry Ballance is back after considerable absence in Cuba, where he has been working on a dredge. His wife, Doris, and daughter, Brenda, are smilingly happy at his return.

Capt. and Mrs. Gary Bragg have as their visitor Mrs. Annie Phillips. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Anderson of Frankfort, Indiana, are here on their annual summer-vacation visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Styron. Ever since Mr. Anderson persuaded his wife, Mary, during the War years to move to Indiana they have made an annual visit to her relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Nunally and family and her mother of Washington, N. C., have been spending several weeks at the Kugler cottage here.

Miss Mattie Duncan of Beaufort, and Jim Buckels and Charles Sibly of Portsmouth, spent several days here last week, guests of Carleton Kelly.

William Arthur O'Neal and friends from Wilmington, Delaware, spent several days recently at Silver Lake Inn. Mr. O'Neal has many relatives at Ocracoke.

Miss Suwannee Herndon of Greensboro is spending a week at the Howard Tourist Home.

Rev. W. Y. Stewart was taken ill last Friday night, suffering a slight stroke of paralysis. He was taken by Coast Guard helicopter on Saturday morning to Morehead City Hospital. A Sunday report indicated that his condition had improved. Mrs. Stewart accompanied him to Morehead City.

Mrs. Annie Fulcher and Mr. and Mrs. Cris Gaskill have as guests, Mr. and Mrs. Emory of Chester, Pennsylvania. It is Mrs. Emory's first visit in twelve years, though she has many relatives and friends here.

Woodrow Price gets down to Ocracoke whenever possible and seems to be enjoying his new home here. Mrs. Price and the children are settled down for the summer and have had as guests, her sister's family, and her mother, Mrs. Wiley Pittman of Raleigh. Also visiting them, but staying at Wahab Village Hotel, are aunts, Miss Louise Dudley, a teacher at Stevens College, Columbia, Missouri, and Mrs. W. O. Shoemaker of Memphis, Tennessee.

There are now about 45,000 motor courts to be found along the nation's highways, as compared to only 15,000 in 1940, reports the Carolina Motor Club. They are increasing at the rate of 2,000 a year and gross more than a billion dollars in tourist trade annually.

IT'S A GREAT SEASON ON THE DARE BEACHES

WE ARE NOW IN MID-SEASON, and never before have so many people enjoyed the attractions of our seashore as have come early this year, with every week getting better and better. This is highly appreciated by the many good firms serving the tourist trade and doing their best to assure a good time to all who come. It is proof that good service has been given at reasonable prices. It is assurance of continued good service and satisfaction. We extend our thanks and cordially invite you to come and enjoy the seashore.
