GLENN W. WOODLEY TRIES FOR ELECTRIC SCHOLARSHIP

Columbia. — An exhibit of Electric Booklets, pamphlets, and data, by the 4-H students, being displayed in the Tyrrell County Public Library by Glenn W. Woodley, age 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Eli Woodley of Columbia route one, who is chairman of the 4-H Electric Project in Tyrrell County.

Through this exhibit, he hopes to inform the patrons what is being done in this connection; securing interest and co-operation in the county wide 4-H Farm and Home Electric survey, which is now underway, and thereby gain credit on the 4-H project for this year; to help the county toward a better chance of winning the county award in the state; and to give a better chance of winning other awards.

4-H members selected for assistance in the survey are: Clair E. Morris, Jr., Collin Snell, Jr., Ada Basnight, Matilda Furlough, Ann Selby, Glenn Simmons, Ruby Jane Perry, Marietta Swain, Carolyn Swain, Larry Gene Rhodes, Betty Jane Rhodes and Dana Williams.

Mr. Woodley was county winner in 1951, and District winner in 1952. In 1952, he was second place territory winner, receiving for same a gold watch, and a trip to the State Electric Congress which was held in Charlotte as awards. First place winner in this territory will win a $100 scholarship.
