RUTH PARKER BRIDE OF CARROLL T. FITCHETT

The wedding of Miss Ruth Parker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Parker of Wanchese and ENFN Carroll Thomas Fitchett, United States Coast Guard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Fitchett of Litchfield Park, Arizona, took place Sunday afternoon, December 27 at 3:00 o'clock in Bethany Methodist Church, Wanchese. Rev. C. W. Guthrie performed the ring ceremony.
The church was decorated with palm, fern, native pine and arrangements of white gladioli, white poinsettias and lighted cathedral candles.
Mrs. Dallas Tillet played the wedding music. Soloist was Miss Bettie Ray Sawyer who sang "All For You". A trio composed of Misses Sawyer, Linda Gaskill and Lottie Gallop sang "I Love You Truly" and as a duet Misses Gallop and Gaskill sang "O Perfect Love".
The bride who was given in marriage by her father, wore a waltz length wedding gown of chantilly lace with a shaped bodice and sweetheart neckline and long sleeves ending in wedding peaks over the hands. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a shaped satin cap caught at each side with rosettes of pearls and orange blossoms. She carried a prayer book topped with white carnations and showered with satin streamers.
Mrs. Janet Cartwright of Poplar Branch, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and Miss Patricia Parker of Wanchese was a bridesmaid. They wore waltz length dresses of net over blue taffeta and each carried a fan of maline and red carnations.
George Melvin Fitchett of Litchfield Park, Ariz., served his brother as best man. Ushers were Ronnie Meekins and Harvey Leroy Gallop, both of Wanchese.
The bridegroom's mother wore a blue suit with matching accessories and a corsage of yellow rose buds.
The bridegroom's mother wore a brown suit with matching accessories and a corsage of yellow rose buds.
Mrs. Royden Tillet acted as mistress of ceremonies. The couple are making their home in Elizabeth City where Mr. Fitchett is stationed with the United States Coast Guard.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Delia Hooker, Mr. and Mrs. Mossie Daniels and Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Winslow and children, Virginia, Carolyn and Charles, all of Norfolk, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Daniels of Reidsville; Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Tuttle and daughter, Francis Tuttle; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Harrell and son, Billy Harrell; Mr. and Mrs. Linwood Sherlock and daughter, Landra Sherlock; Mrs. Virginia Edwards and daughters, Barbara and Eleanor Edwards, all of Elizabeth City; Clinton Cartwright of Poplar Branch; Cordelia Ann Fitchett of Engelwood, Calif.; also Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Fitchett of Litchfield Park, Arizona.

ways small, for the community was made up of poor people; but to the kids, who had looked forward to this great day for so long, they were pretty wonderful gifts indeed. The girls always got a doll, while I invariably got a knife, and when I got a little older, some shotgun shells. Out on the road we would go to be met by other children, and all of us would try to show off our little gifts from Santa. Up and down the road we would go from house to house, for this was the one day we could visit anywhere without asking permission, and neighbors who usually frowned on a bunch of kids tracking mud into the house only smiled that day. Back and forth from house to house we ran, shouting to everyone "Cris-

BUXTON DOOR PRIZE WON BY MRS. PEARL MIDGETT

The Buxton Home Demonstration Club sponsored a community Christmas Door Decoration Contest Monday, Dec. 20. Mrs. Rosa Foster, president of Hatteras club, with Mr. and Mrs. Scotty Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Erna Foster and Hallis Foster judged the doors and awarded the prizes. The first prize was won by Mrs. Pearl Midgett, second prize by Mrs. Dina Dailey, third prize Mrs. Joanne Sharp. Most of the Buxton homes showed the Christmas spirit by their beautiful decorations.
"Give it here," would always be the answer.
We had fruit, only at Christmas, and then only a few apples and oranges.
None of us worried about the Jones children getting more than we did. None of us worried about having enough Christmas liquor, for we never thought we were supposed to celebrate the birth of Christ by getting drunk.
