BUXTON GIRL SCOUTS TO HOLD COURT OF AWARDS

Troop 1 of the Girl Scouts from Buxton and Frisco will hold their Court of Awards on Friday, February 26, at 7:30 p.m. at the Buxton school house. At this ceremony the girls will receive the various badges they have earned within the past six months. A program will be given to demonstrate what the girls have done to earn these badges. Two short skits will be included in this program, entitled "The Crooked Mouth Family", and "The Saga of Little Nell". Mr. Rayle will give a short talk. It is hoped that all the parents and relatives of the Girl Scouts and all other interested persons in the community will attend. The Girl Scouts also wish to remind the people of Buxton and Frisco to assemble any extra coat hangers they have that are not rusty. The girls will collect these within the next two weeks. The money which they receive from these coat hangers will go towards paying their national registration fee, which is due in March. Anyone in any of the villages of Hatteras, Avon, Salvo, Waves, and Rodanthe who have coat hangers they would like to contribute may leave them at the home of Mrs. Tracy Hooper or Mrs. Donald Tharp.
