OCRACOKE STUNT NIGHT PROVES BIG SUCCESS

Ocracoke.—The annual P.T.A. Stunt Show, given last Friday night, was a big success. Many said it was the best of the four or five such performances that the PTA has sponsored. Beginning with the "Dixieland Hoboes" with songs and jokes by Jack Willis, George G. Jackson, Benjamin Spencer, Wallace Spencer, Jesse Garrish, Monford Garrish, Needham Simpson, Elmo Fulcher, Lawrence Ballance, and Thurston Gaskill, and ending with Capt. Marvin W. Howard's "Wonder-working Banker Pony", which turned out to be composed of Wahab Howard and Kermit Robinson, the show was one big laugh after another. Charlie Ahmon with the help of Jackie Wilson, John Ivey Wells, and Perry Wahab pantomimed a typical Ocracoke jeep's trip "down the Long, Long Trail" to Hatteras Inlet. "Ladies Club Night" featuring Mesdames Leevella Howard, Irene O'Neal, Maude Fulcher, Rebecca Spencer, Iva Garrish, Elizabeth O. N. Howard, Virginia Esham, Alice Rondthaler, Gladys Williams, Elizabeth G. Howard, and Miss Frances Rawley, all in ridiculously old-time costumes, gave opportunity for the reading of some affectionate ditties about the menfolk in the community. Eph Esham's "Ocracoke Baby Beauty Contest" presented Capt. Ike O'Neal, Murray Spencer, Needham Simpson, and Miss Etta Scarborough as the bonneted babies. Walter Howard and Jerry Adams did some musical saw and guitar numbers, and the former put on an impersonation of an old lady. Songs by "Those Harmonizing Sisters", Lela, Blanche, Lois Ann, and Etta Howard, in Gay-Nineties costume, and those by Mrs. Lucille Garrish and son Danny, the "Happy Mammy Duet", were particularly enjoyed. Mrs. Bessie Howard and Mrs. Selma Spencer, in a dialogue "Black Clouds", depicted "Mrs. Hiefflooten and Mrs. Washboard" to perfection, and the "Darktown Strutters" stunt presenting Mesdames Elsie Tolson, Doris Garrish, Lucile Garrish, Eva O'Neal, Dicie Wells, Fannie Willis, Elsie Garrish, and Miss Marie Hodges, and a special rendition of "Seventeen" by Mrs. Doris Ballance was a prize-winning feature of the program. Accompanist for the musical numbers was Mrs. Ruby Garrish. Announcer of stunts was Theodore Rondthaler.

We are fortunate to have such excellent fish supplies in the U. S. Because of this we find numerous forms of fish in our markets at economic prices at any time of the year. If your family is already cleaning the tackle for this fishing season, you can arm yourself with these serving suggestions. For delicious steamed fish in foil, wrap cleaned fish, seasoned with paprika, salt, pepper and butter in foil... using drug store wrap. Bake in 400 degree F. heated oven for 30 minutes. This keeps fish moist, cooked in its own juices. No fish odors until you are ready to serve. No pan to clean.

For a quick sauce to serve with fish sticks combine 3/4 c. mayonnaise, 1/4 c. catsup and 1 T. chopped pickle or pickle relish.

Did you know that in the U. S. each person eats an average of 11 lbs. of fish a year?

Most popular of all our spices is black pepper. You probably eat about 7 oz. a year! That's about 1/4 tsp. a day. Pepper has many uses as well as seasoning. For example, many lozenges have pepper as an essential ingredient and it is used in hair tonics to stimulate the scalp. It's also used in perfumes and soaps. Dusted around cracks and holes, pepper will repel insects. Dusted on clothes (it prevents moth damage. It is also an important preservative for all condiments and processed meats.

March is known as cottage cheese month. Just off the press is a pamphlet on "How to make and Use Cottage Cheese." You can order it by asking for pamphlet No. 160 from N. C. Extension Service, State College. Since this cheese is an inexpensive source of high quality protein, it is often tagged, "cheapest meat you can eat."

A new milk shake mix is new this week. It makes fountain style shakes at home in 30 seconds, comes in four flavors—chocolate, vanilla, strawberry and cherry. It contains dried eggs, milk solids, flavoring and sweetening. You just add milk.

At the Nags Head H.D. meeting, Mrs. Carl Nunemaker had an eye-catching Easter arrangement on her coffee table last Thursday evening. Eleven club members were present. President Millicent Mann presided.

During the month of March, club memberships have increased in 4 of the 11 clubs—Nags Head, Rodanthe - Waves - Salvo, Buxton and Wanchese all enrolled new members.
