

WOMEN'S CLUBS WIN AWARDS IN WILLIAMSTON

Columbia.—Both of the Woman's Clubs of Columbia, the Senior Club and the Junior Club, were honored by awards and certificates at the annual meeting of District No. 15 held in Williamston on Monday, Oct. 28th.

The Junior Woman's Club, with Mrs. Joel Swain as president was awarded a 100% certificate for accomplishments of projects set forth by the N. C. Federation. This was the fifth consecutive year this club has received this distinction, and it was among the three in the District receiving this certificate for 1956-57.

The Senior Club with Mrs. Effie A. Brickhouse as president was awarded a blue ribbon and the prize awarded by the district president—a metal lacquered tray—for having the most attractive and complete Year Book for 1957-58.

Mrs. Joel Swain, the former president of the Junior Club was named on the Resolutions Committee.

Points of interest to all brought out for future plans for both clubs were: "To encourage the high school graduate to enter the teaching profession—which is lacking in enrollment—an award for teachers, such as an OSCAR is for the entertainment field." Other points stressed were the "Anti-Litter Bug" throughout the state, "Entrance of all club women to the Vogue Sewing Contest", "National Safety" and a "A contest
