

BUXTON PERSONALS

Walter Barnette and son, Eldon of Norfolk, Va., were here last week. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Evans were in Buxton for a few days. Lloyd Scarborough, a student of East Carolina College spent the Easter holidays with his parents. Harry Jennette came to stay a few days with his family. Miss Amelia Ballance has returned to Norfolk to resume her work in nursing. She has been home for a week, and attended the Cape Hatteras Angler's Club Friday evening. Edward H. Fulcher Jr., spent the Easter holidays with his parents. He has returned from Africa on the African Glade. Mrs. Kendrick Gray has returned from an extended visit in Portsmouth.

P. T. A.

Buxton, April 7—At an exceptionally well attended P. T. A. meeting Tuesday in the Cape Hatteras school auditorium an Easter Choir was presented by the pupils of the first seven grades, directed by Mrs. M. Lingle. As the curtain opened the audience voiced appreciation of the beauty of the scene. A large pyramid formed by the choir of seventy robed in white; with purple bows at their throats, each holding a green song book and large white Easter lily. Miss Celia Rollinson gave the prayer. Readings were by Ruby Jennette, rus, Sam Braddock, Miss Sue Bingham sang a solo, accompanied by the choir. Mrs. Hilda Brown at the piano. The choir sang with ardor and clearness showing the wonderful coaching of Mrs. Lingle. After the program the choir retired to a class room where they were served refreshments. Mrs. Leola Rollinson and Miss Mertie Browning entertained them while the P. T. A. held a business meeting.

Reba Burrus, Caryn Gray, Brenda Beaman, Becky Willis, Sue Bingham, Jimmy Gray, Dwright Bur-

Mrs. Joyce Gray, chairman of the nomination committee announced the selection of new officers for the P. T. A. for the coming year. Mrs. Velma Barnette, Avon, President; Winston Hurst, of the Cape Hatteras Weather Bureau, Vice president; Mrs. Hazel Foster of Hatteras, Secretary; and Mrs. Geraldine Gunter, Frisco, Treasurer.

The room count award went to the third and eleventh grades. Refreshments of homemade pies and hot coffee were served in the lunch room. Mrs. Neva Woods is chairman for the Buxton hospitality committee for the April meeting. A minstrel show "Red Coats" sponsored by the P. T. A. will be shown in the Cape Hatteras School auditorium April 18th and 19th at 8 p.m. sharp. Admission: Adults $1, children and all school children, 25c. Mrs. Paula A. Johnson coach, and Mrs. Joyce Gray chairman.

WANCHESE PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Howard of Norfolk visited Mrs. Howard's mother, Mrs. Dora Davis. Leamon Melson of Norfolk visited his Mother, Mrs. Mattie Melson. Mr. and Mrs. Grady Gaskill and daughter of Dunn visited Mr. and Mrs. James Gaskill. Mrs. Douglas Guthrie and children of Winston-Salem spent the week end with Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Guthrie. Mrs. Emma Daniels and Mrs. Sibyl Sawyer of Norfolk spent the week end here.

Mrs. Mary Fleming of Portsmouth spent the week end here with her mother, Mrs. Mollie Baum. Rev. C. L. Warren is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Warren in Ash, N. C. Mrs. Arvilla Midgett is home after the winter at London Bridge, Va. with her daughter and son-in-law, Lt. Cdr. and Mrs. F. J. Wikenheimer, who spent the week end here.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayland Baum were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith in Norfolk. Margaret Jean Tillett of Greensboro spent the week end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Tillett. Mrs. Louie Gallop and Mrs. Besie Love were in Elizabeth City Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Williams and children of Oceana, Va. and Mr. and Mrs. Fulton Whidbee and daughter of Norfolk visited Mr. and Mrs. Elton Gallop. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Clark of Nashville, visited Mr. and Mrs. Royden Tillett. Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Harris and Mrs. Dewey Tillett visited John Brothers, Thursday, a patient in the Marine Hospital Norfolk.

Mr. and Mrs. Elton White of Norfolk, Mr. and Mrs. Lew Wilber of Portsmouth, Mr. and Mrs. John Gaskill and daughters, Jean and Joan of College Park, Md. visited Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Gaskill. Barry and Shelia John of Norfolk spent Sunday with their grandmother, Mrs. Dile Gallop.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Daniels and son Barry, of Smyrna, visited Mr. and Mrs. Willis Daniels. Lynton Daniels of Norfolk, Le-moin Daniels and son Pat of Hampton visited here recently. Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Daniels Jr. and children of Elizabeth City and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Voshelle and son, of Norfolk visited Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Daniels.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Murray and Brenda Daniels spent the week end in Arapahoe with Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Murray. Mr. and Mrs. Clois Daniels and children of Pittsburgh, visited Mrs. Dile Gallop. Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Creef of Norfolk spent the week end with Mrs. Creef's mother, Mrs. Lucy

CHRISTIAN WORKERS SCH. AT MANTEO APRIL 14-17

The Dare Christian Workers' School will be held April 14 through April 17 at the Mount Olive Methodist Church, Manteo. Charges participating are the Dare Circuit, Kitty Hawk, Manteo and Wanchese. Classes will be held each evening beginning at seven-thirty. This announcement is made by Rev. C. L. Warren, dean of the Dare Christian Workers School. Courses and instructors follow: "Christian Stewardship," a course of general interest, which will be taught by Dr. Morris Husted of Durham. "How to Teach in the Church School," for church school teachers, will be taught by Mrs. E. I. Terry of Raleigh. "Teaching Children in the Small Church," for teachers of children, will be taught by Mrs. T. M. Maxwell of Rocky Mount.

Midgett. Woodrow Stetson of U.S.C.G., Savannah, is here with his family. Rowena Midgett and nieces, Joan and Margaret Midgett of Hampton, Va. have returned home after visiting Rev. and Mrs. Ralph H. Lewis in Goldsboro. While there they attended the Azalea Festival in Wilmington and visited Mrs. Pearl Scharff in Kinston.

Mrs. Ward Daniels, Mrs. Ida Daniels, Mrs. Lillian Daniels and Mrs. Dile Gallop visited at Hatteras Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Tillett Jr. and children, of Norfolk were here Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Austin and baby of Hampton and Merlie Tillett and Jean Toms of Washington, D. C. spent the week end here with Mr. and Mrs. Crowder Tillett. Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Gaskill and daughter, Brenda, spent Easter in Siler City with Mrs. Gaskill's mother, Mrs. Lila Bridges. Also home for the first time in two years was Mrs. Gaskill's brother, John Bridges, of Eugene, Oregon.

Births. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Payne of Columbia, S. C. announce the birth of a son, born March 31, name Kenneth Michael, weight 7 lbs. 6 oz. Mrs. Payne was formerly Sandra Wescott of Wanchese. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Daniels, a boy, Thomas William, weight 7 lbs. 11 1/2 oz. April 3rd in the Albemarle Hospital Elizabeth City.

Washington.—Three thousand islands, cays and rocks comprise the Bahamas, the British Colony southeast of Florida. The Bahamian Constitution, dating from 1729, provides a form of government similar to that in the North American Colonies before the Revolution. The House of Assembly is one of the oldest legislative bodies in the Western Hemisphere, the National Geographic Magazine says.

Washington.—Three thousand islands, cays and rocks comprise the Bahamas, the British Colony southeast of Florida. The Bahamian Constitution, dating from 1729, provides a form of government similar to that in the North American Colonies before the Revolution. The House of Assembly is one of the oldest legislative bodies in the Western Hemisphere, the National Geographic Magazine says.

Washington.—Three thousand islands, cays and rocks comprise the Bahamas, the British Colony southeast of Florida. The Bahamian Constitution, dating from 1729, provides a form of government similar to that in the North American Colonies before the Revolution. The House of Assembly is one of the oldest legislative bodies in the Western Hemisphere, the National Geographic Magazine says.

Washington.—Three thousand islands, cays and rocks comprise the Bahamas, the British Colony southeast of Florida. The Bahamian Constitution, dating from 1729, provides a form of government similar to that in the North American Colonies before the Revolution. The House of Assembly is one of the oldest legislative bodies in the Western Hemisphere, the National Geographic Magazine says.

Washington.—Three thousand islands, cays and rocks comprise the Bahamas, the British Colony southeast of Florida. The Bahamian Constitution, dating from 1729, provides a form of government similar to that in the North American Colonies before the Revolution. The House of Assembly is one of the oldest legislative bodies in the Western Hemisphere, the National Geographic Magazine says.

Washington.—Three thousand islands, cays and rocks comprise the Bahamas, the British Colony southeast of Florida. The Bahamian Constitution, dating from 1729, provides a form of government similar to that in the North American Colonies before the Revolution. The House of Assembly is one of the oldest legislative bodies in the Western Hemisphere, the National Geographic Magazine says.

Washington.—Three thousand islands, cays and rocks comprise the Bahamas, the British Colony southeast of Florida. The Bahamian Constitution, dating from 1729, provides a form of government similar to that in the North American Colonies before the Revolution. The House of Assembly is one of the oldest legislative bodies in the Western Hemisphere, the National Geographic Magazine says.

Washington.—Three thousand islands, cays and rocks comprise the Bahamas, the British Colony southeast of Florida. The Bahamian Constitution, dating from 1729, provides a form of government similar to that in the North American Colonies before the Revolution. The House of Assembly is one of the oldest legislative bodies in the Western Hemisphere, the National Geographic Magazine says.

Washington.—Three thousand islands, cays and rocks comprise the Bahamas, the British Colony southeast of Florida. The Bahamian Constitution, dating from 1729, provides a form of government similar to that in the North American Colonies before the Revolution. The House of Assembly is one of the oldest legislative bodies in the Western Hemisphere, the National Geographic Magazine says.

Washington.—Three thousand islands, cays and rocks comprise the Bahamas, the British Colony southeast of Florida. The Bahamian Constitution, dating from 1729, provides a form of government similar to that in the North American Colonies before the Revolution. The House of Assembly is one of the oldest legislative bodies in the Western Hemisphere, the National Geographic Magazine says.

Washington.—Three thousand islands, cays and rocks comprise the Bahamas, the British Colony southeast of Florida. The Bahamian Constitution, dating from 1729, provides a form of government similar to that in the North American Colonies before the Revolution. The House of Assembly is one of the oldest legislative bodies in the Western Hemisphere, the National Geographic Magazine says.

Washington.—Three thousand islands, cays and rocks comprise the Bahamas, the British Colony southeast of Florida. The Bahamian Constitution, dating from 1729, provides a form of government similar to that in the North American Colonies before the Revolution. The House of Assembly is one of the oldest legislative bodies in the Western Hemisphere, the National Geographic Magazine says.

Washington.—Three thousand islands, cays and rocks comprise the Bahamas, the British Colony southeast of Florida. The Bahamian Constitution, dating from 1729, provides a form of government similar to that in the North American Colonies before the Revolution. The House of Assembly is one of the oldest legislative bodies in the Western Hemisphere, the National Geographic Magazine says.

Washington.—Three thousand islands, cays and rocks comprise the Bahamas, the British Colony southeast of Florida. The Bahamian Constitution, dating from 1729, provides a form of government similar to that in the North American Colonies before the Revolution. The House of Assembly is one of the oldest legislative bodies in the Western Hemisphere, the National Geographic Magazine says.

Washington.—Three thousand islands, cays and rocks comprise the Bahamas, the British Colony southeast of Florida. The Bahamian Constitution, dating from 1729, provides a form of government similar to that in the North American Colonies before the Revolution. The House of Assembly is one of the oldest legislative bodies in the Western Hemisphere, the National Geographic Magazine says.

Washington.—Three thousand islands, cays and rocks comprise the Bahamas, the British Colony southeast of Florida. The Bahamian Constitution, dating from 1729, provides a form of government similar to that in the North American Colonies before the Revolution. The House of Assembly is one of the oldest legislative bodies in the Western Hemisphere, the National Geographic Magazine says.

Washington.—Three thousand islands, cays and rocks comprise the Bahamas, the British Colony southeast of Florida. The Bahamian Constitution, dating from 1729, provides a form of government similar to that in the North American Colonies before the Revolution. The House of Assembly is one of the oldest legislative bodies in the Western Hemisphere, the National Geographic Magazine says.

ERROR . . . Iredell County finds itself in the middle of one of the hottest contests for the State Senate it has seen for many a day.

From the moment that C. B. Winberry of Statesville, judge of Records Court in Statesville, announced for the Senate seat held last session by C. V. Henkel, Jr., there have been charges and counter charges on both sides from within and without the county. One erstwhile columnist wrote recently from Raleigh to the effect that if Judge Winberry should unseat Henkel, that he would be rewarded by being appointed a Superior Court judge by the Governor.

This was not a statement of fact and had no foundation. It was an injustice to Judge Winberry, to the judiciary of the State, and to the Governor. And everyone concerned deserves an apology—and a retraction and this is it.

TOURIST FACTS . . . Raleigh has missed the boat by being one of only four state capitals not scheduled to be served by the Federal inter-regional highway system. In addition to this, just last year they lost out to Durham when U.S. 15A through the city was eliminated. With no hope of any real substantial improvement for Highway No. 1 in the future, the owners of tourist courts, service stations, and other roadside businesses in the Raleigh area are feeling the pinch already—and are staggering under the squeeze of less business and more expenses—and little hope for the future.

EXAMPLE . . . A typical example of the problem is the position the tourist court operators who have concentrated on the north side of Raleigh now find themselves in. With the above facts confronting them, they are faced now with the definite possibility that the future Highway No. 1 Raleigh bypass—if and when it comes—will take off farther north of Raleigh than had been previously thought. Thus their business will be left in the middle.

MORE PRESTIGE . . . Just to see the Honorable Kemp Doughton, last of the Doughhton clan of that name prominent in political matters, in action is to give one new faith in democracy. And so everybody is delighted to know that this former Speaker of the House has finally decided to come to Raleigh for one more session of the Legislature. He won't have opposition in Alleghany County; and you are likely to see him as chairman of one of the key committees in the House come 1959.

BELL VS VOGLER . . . The only time the N. C. Food Dealers man, James B. Vogler, has failed to come to Raleigh when he tried to come was about five years ago when he decided to run for the State Senate. Jim is one of the real veterans of the House, but somehow he has a hankering to get over on the other side of the capitol and so this time—once again he has decided to run for the State Senate. This time he will be taking on Hon. Spencer Bell, the man who is leading the way to judicial improvements in North Carolina. Although undoubtedly able, Bell is a freshman in politics. He did not run for the State Senate Seat he held in 1957, but was named by the Democratic Executive Committee of Mecklenburg to fill a vacancy. Also running with Vogler and Bell is Jack Love, who served a session in the House in 1957. This should prove to be a most interesting race—with a runoff indicated between Bell and Jim Vogler.

NOTES . . . Walter Davenport, whom you will remember as the capable editor of Liberty and then Collier's is now making his home down in Moore County, writing a book . . . . Burke Davis columnist for the Greensboro Daily News, says there seems to be a "strong tide of unRepublicanizing going on over the nation, particularly in the South"—and this may be the jet stream David Clark hopes to find in his race against GOP Congressman Charles Raper Jonas . . . . NEW PARK. We doubt that it will get anywhere during my lifetime. . . or yours either . . . but architects and city planners in Raleigh are talking openly about the advisability of plowing up Fayetteville Street from the Capitol, clear down to the Auditorium and landscaping it in grass, crosswalks, beautiful trees, with no parking. In short, they say, it would be a shopper's paradise. This is the street over which scores of new and outgoing Governors have ridden to inaugurations. But now they say it sometimes take eleven minutes for a city bus to go from the Capitol to the Auditorium. If the plan is carried out, Raleigh would be one of the most beautiful capital cities in the nation. Streets crossing Fayetteville Street would go underground. All in all, the project has appeal . . . and you may be reading more about it sooner than we realize.

MISS ROGERS INITIATED IN LANGUAGE FRATERNITY

Louisburg, N. C., April 3.—Initiated into Sigma Pi Alpha, national language fraternity, at a State Convention held in Statesville on March 22-23, were Martha Rogers, Manteo; Annette White, Dover; and Joan Pittman, Lillington. Miss Rogers is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Rogers. At an initiation ceremony held in the Faculty Parlor on the Louisburg College campus on Tuesday, April 1, additional members were taken into the fraternity. After the initiation ceremony, slides of France and Spain were shown by H. C. Hodges.

WINTER FERRY SCHEDULES Effective Oct. 1, 1957, through May 31, 1958

Table with ferry routes and schedules including Alligator River Ferry, Oregon Inlet Ferry, and Hatteras Inlet Ferry.

Advertisement for pulp and paper industry with text: 'in the South... THE WOODS ARE FULL OF PROSPERITY' and 'The rate of industrial growth in the South during the past 20 years has led the nation. The pulp and paper industry is a leader in this Southern progress.'

Advertisement for Southern Pulpwood Conservation Association with text: 'Pulp and Paper Day - April 15' and 'Southern Pulpwood Conservation Association 900 Peachtree Street, N.E. Atlanta 9, Georgia'.

Advertisement for Seagram's 7 Crown Whiskey featuring an image of the bottle and the text 'Seagram's 7 Crown'.

Large advertisement for Chevrolet cars with text: '3 big reasons why you won't want to miss... CHEVY'S APRIL SALES SPECTACULAR!' and 'Hassell & Creef Motor Co., Inc. YOUR FRIENDLY CHEVROLET DEALER'.