COOPERATION SCORES ON THE PARTY LINE, TOO

The frequently unsung hero of a football game is the blocking back. He is the fellow who makes it possible for the flashing runner to get away and score that touchdown.

While it doesn't require as much energy on the telephone party line, cooperation pays equal dividends. By using the line sparingly everyone gets better telephone service.

PTA WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE PLANNING

The Finance-Ways and Means committee of the Manteo Parent-Teacher Association met Tuesday night at the home of the chairman, Mrs. Raymond Wescott to formulate the year's plan for benefit to the schools. Representing their respective community were Mrs. Wilma Midgett, Stumpy Point; Mrs. Chesley Midgett, Wanchese; Mrs. John Finn, Kitty Hawk; Richard Mann, Nags Head; and Wallace Taylor, Manns Harbor.

1. Resulting from a motion by the Rev. Robert W. Turner and approval voted by the PTA members attending the September meeting, members will be given opportunity to make cash contributions.

2. Each Civic organization in the school district will be asked to contribute toward the cost ($695) of the back stage Cyclorama.

3. On November 13 the members will sponsor a fish supper in the high school cafeteria serving 5 to 7:30 at $1 per plate. The Stumpy Point members will sponsor a local dinner for the same purpose.

4. On November 29 the "Top Hat Night Club" will reopen for a one night stand. Watch for details on special features and personalities.

5. During December Fire Safety will be emphasized with a sales campaign of home fire extinguishers.

6. On November 7, 21 and December 5, a basketball tournament involving Civic organizations and local groups will be carried on with additional attraction of a primary league.

MRS. MIDGETT HONORED AT MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER

Mrs. Nancy Jean Midgett of Manteo, whose marriage to John Kennedy of Raleigh will take place in November, was guest of honor Friday evening at a miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. Francis Meekins and Mrs. Victor Meekins at the home of the latter near Manteo.

A color scheme of yellow and green was carried out in decorations and refreshments. Mrs. W. S. Meekins presided at the punch bowl. Individual cakes, party sandwiches, salted nuts and mints were served.

CATFISH CORNER PERSONALS

Girdle Gregory and Cartilage Crank have returned from a fishing trip with Nodder Norris and Slogan Sawyer at Bay Level. They report that fishing is the best in ten years, and the place is overrun with sportsmen.

Rev. Esau A. Byrd preached one of the finest sermons of his career at Sainly Saul's Church Sunday. His subject was "On the Road to Mandalay," and says we have been headed some place equally fantastic for a long time. The dawn is going to come up like Thunder out of China when we finally wake up, he said. Rev. Mr. Byrd touched upon the efforts of some of the meddlesome matties to bleach out all the black folks by court injunction. He said that would do for a later sermon. The Royal Sons of Catfish Corner attended the service in a body.
