SINGSPIRATION SUNDAY

The Fifth Sunday Singspiration for Dare charge was held at the Stumpy Point Methodist Church at 8 p.m. The Rev. G. M. Kelly leader. Mrs. Kelly and Mrs. Gertrude Wise played several numbers on the electric organ and piano together. The M. Y. F. group sang, "Whispering Hope." An hour of music and song was enjoyed by the group despite the cold weather.

SCOUT HONORS FOR SOME MANTEO TROOP MEMBERS

Four members of Scout Troop 165 were advanced to the rank of Second Class in a Court of Honor held Sunday, Nov. 30th at The Mt. Olivet Methodist Church. Scouts receiving the Second Class badge were, Freddy Roush, Jimmy Mann, Ira Spencer and Johnny Gibbs. Each scout then presented his mother with a miniature pin of his rank.

Several new members have joined the troop during the past months. Robert Hultman and Nevlin Wescott were transferred from the local Cub Scout Pack. Other new members are Craig Midgett from Manns Harbor, Harold Salinger and Wayne Midgett of Manteo.

Twelve members will leave Manteo Friday evening on their first Fall camping trip under the leadership of the Scoutmaster and Senior Patrol Leaders Butch Baum and Tommy Taylor. The troop took in ten days and nights of camping each year.

The Hike of the Month took place on Nov. 15th and featured the use of the compass for cross country hiking. Starting at the Fresh Pond the scouts crossed the Nags Head Woods to the old Sound Road, thence south to Jockey Ridge and back up the beach to their starting point, a distance of about eight miles. Scout hikers were Mark Basnight, Freddy Roush, Jimmy Mann, Ira Spencer and Johnny Garrison.

REDSKINS SCORE VICTORIES OVER WEEKSVILLE TEAMS

The Manteo High School basketball teams opened up their current season last Tuesday night at the new Manteo gym with victories over both the Weeksville girls and boys' teams.

Sandra Dowdy led the Manteo girls to a 31-28 victory by scoring 17 points in a game that was close all the way. Weeksville had a one-point lead several times and also tied the score with a minute and a half to go. Several free throws and a basket gave Manteo a 5-point edge, which was cut to 3 just as the buzzer sounded. Elsie Hines was second high scorer for Manteo with 10 points.

The Manteo boys might be strong contenders for the conference championship this year, as they had no difficulty in downing Weeksville 48-12. This is the same team, with the exception of forward Ray Midgett, which had a good record last year and went to the semi-finals in the tournament. Hughes Tillett was high scorer with 16 points; Gary Meekins was second with nine.

This Friday night the Redskins will be put to their first real test when they play the Camden Rebels at the home court. Next Tuesday,
