KELLEY YOUTH FIRST IN 6TH GRADE ESSAYS

COLUMBIA.—George M. Kelley III (Trip), age 11, a student of Carlton Oaks School, Norfolk, came out first in an essay contest for sixth grade students in competition with five Tidewater Virginia schools.

The contest is sponsored annually by the Norfolk DAR Chapter using different subjects. Subject for the contest this year was "Theodore Roosevelt" in commemoration of 100th anniversary. The supervisor for social studies in the Virginia Education Association acted as judge.

The winning essay will go to Richmond to be judged on a state-wide contest. During February, "Trip" will be awarded a medal in a small ceremony by the DAR for this accomplishment.

He is the 11 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Kelley, Jr., formerly of Columbia; grandson of Mrs. W. A. Yerby of Columbia and of the Reverend George M. Kelley of Stumpy Point. His father's first newspaper work in this area was as editor of The Tyrrell Tribune, published by Victor Meekins in Columbia some years ago.

COUPLE INJURED IN MOTOR BOAT MISHAP

COLUMBIA — A middle-aged couple, identified by the lady of the couple as Mr. and Mrs. James Riddle of Fayetteville, were held in the Columbia Hospital for observation and examination, following a motor boat accident late Sunday afternoon.

They were returning from a fishing trip and due to low visibility, Mrs. Riddle stated "He cut in too close" as we neared the west end of the new Scuppernon River Bridge, grazing a piling which threw the boat to shore.

The man was pitched forward on shore and the lady in the water. She informed that she frantically looked for him in the river, and would come up to call for help. She further stated "I thought no one would ever hear me, it seemed like an hour before help arrived."

C. E. Walker, who answered the call with ambulance, stated that both were in a state of shock. They were picked up about 5:30 p.m.
