

KITTY HAWK PERSONALS

Mrs. Iva B. Scarborough is spending a month here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Beacham. Mr. Scarborough is stationed with the Coast Guard at Sullivan's Island, S. C.

Miss Lena Beacham is back from Norfolk, making her home on the beach.

Shelby Hines is home, after working in Richmond for several weeks.

Mrs. Jean H. Crowe and baby daughter have gone to join her husband now employed in Raleigh.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Lee Henley and daughter, Nikki of Baltimore visited Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Henley.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall J. Beasley and daughter, Ina Mae, of Norfolk, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Z. F. Perry and Mrs. Jennie Beasley.

Mr. and Mrs. Wally Wise and Mr. and Mrs. Radford Tillett went on a motor trip to the mountains this week.

Mrs. Richard Pearce, went to the hospital Wednesday of this week for treatment.

Mrs. Willie Addison, Reidsville, N. C. is spending the summer at her cottage on the beach.

Edward O'Neal, DC-1 U. S.

Coast Guard is entering instructor's school in Norfolk for two months, prior to being stationed at Pearl Harbor for two years.

Mrs. Orville Baum is in Norfolk with relatives, while her mother, Mrs. Griffin is recuperating from an operation.

EAST LAKE MEETING

The East Lake Holiness Church will have a fellowship meeting Sunday, June 21st. All day service beginning at 10 a.m. with dinner on the ground. Everyone is invited.

JOHN V. WARD, MANTEO NATIVE DIES IN NORFOLK

John V. Ward, 57, of South Norfolk, Va., a jeweler, died in a Norfolk hospital Monday afternoon.

A son of Capt. Jesse Etheridge Ward and Martha Goodwin Ward, he was a native of Manteo, and had lived in Norfolk 32 years.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Alvilla Lane Ward; a sister, Mrs. Mattie Ward Johnson; three brothers, Wellington Ward, Roland Ward and Carl Ward of Norfolk, and nieces and nephews.

The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon. Burial in Riverside Memorial Park, Berkley.

METHODIST WOMEN ELECTS OFFICERS AT HATTERAS

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Hatteras Methodist Church held their first circle's meeting of the new year Tuesday night. The Sally Poe Circle met at the home of Mrs. Margaret Quidley, the chairman. The Jean Meadows Circle met with Mrs. Clarice Gray, the chairman of that circle.

The programs were given by Miss Gracie Ballance and Mrs.

Inez Austin. Plans were made to have a Bake Sale each Saturday from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 a.m. Also Fish Fry was planned for July 4th. The proceeds will go on the building fund, they hope to pay off by Jan., 1960. The Society has sent 5,000 coupons to the Methodist Orphanage.

Officer's Training Day and Pledge Service has been held. The following officer's of the Society were installed by Rev. Ray Sparrow:

Mrs. Maude Austin, President; Mrs. Hazel Foster, Vice President; Mrs. Eliza Peele, Recording Secretary; Mrs. Pauline Oden, Treasurer; Miss Gracie Ballance, Promotion Secretary; Mrs. Hilda Brown, Secretary of Missionary Education; Mrs. Charlotte Ballance, Secretary of Christian Social Relations; Mrs. Nita Ballance, Secretary of Student Work; Mrs. Alice Gray, Secretary of Children's Work; Mrs. Rosa Gray, Secretary of Spiritual Life; Mrs. Mary Ballance, Secretary of Literature and Publication; Mrs. Delores Burrus, Secretary of Supply Work; Mrs. Irma Austin, Secretary of Status of Woman; Mrs. Viola Peele, Chairman of Local Church Activities, and Mrs. Virginia Williams, Public Relations Chairman.

CONCRETE WORK

FOR THE NEW

DAREOLINA RESTAURANT

BY

BELTON BURRUS

MANTEO, N. C.

A. C. WENTWORTH

Electrical Contractor

302 S. Road Street Phone 6804

ELIZABETH CITY, N. C.

Residential, Commercial and Industrial Wiring

Supplier of

Lighting Fixtures

COMPLIMENTS OF

SEALTEST FOODS

Suppliers of

Ice Cream and Milk

To the New

DAREOLINA RESTAURANT

OUR BEST WISHES FOR A LONG, SUCCESSFUL VENTURE!

QUARRY — CERAMIC — TERRAZZO

T I L E

for the

Dareolina Restaurant

furnished by

HOOOPER TILE CO.

Tile and Linoleum Contractor

311 South Road Street

ELIZABETH CITY, N. C.