

COMMONSENSE ON HALLOWEEN HOLDS IN SWAN QUARTER

By MISS ALEPH CASON
The Swan Quarter community is to be congratulated on its success in providing something constructive for its youth and adults to replace what is now referred to as vandalism on Halloween night.

As planned, all the youth, who would and all the adults who could, assembled in the pasture about 6:30 p.m. The children were divided into different age groups with an adult assigned to each group and with brooms as transportation furnished by the witches in attendance.

When the groups returned to the pasture, a huge bonfire was lighted, much to the delight of all the kids present, and games were enjoyed by all ages under the supervision of Mrs. Carolyn Harris, Rev. and Mrs. Leighton Lewis and during this period everyone stuffed his tummy to the limit with free cookies, drinks and roasted marshmallows served by Mrs. R. G. Baum, Mrs. George T. Davis and Mrs. Bill Miller.

Mrs. Tommy Gaylord, Mrs. George T. Davis, John Pendleton, Durwood Tunnell, and Gilbert Tunnell did a smash-up job of footing it around town with the kids and their contributions helped tremendously. All in all, about 75 attended the fun filled evening and it is hoped that with the years to come the event can be made an annual affair and can be presented on a much broader scale.

WINSTEADVILLE CLUB HELD MEETING TUESDAY

The Winsteadville Community Woman's Club was entertained Tuesday night by Mrs. John F. Sparrow and Mrs. Sid P. Davis at the home of Mrs. Sparrow on the Loop road. The living room, where the members assembled, was attractively decorated with colorful arrangements of late fall blossoms and potted plants.

The few items of business were soon finished and the hostesses then entertained during the play period with "Name That Tune," bingo. Regular bingo cards were given out but instead of a number in each square there was the name of a popular song. A record with a few bars of the song was played and the letter under which each was to be found was given. The members have always enjoyed playing bingo and they found the musical version most fascinating. There were several winners and the hostesses presented each with an attractive prize.

When the play was finished, the members were served refreshments consisting of hot ginger pudding with orange sauce and a choice of coffee or bottled drinks.

A former member, Mrs. D. Tex Davis, who has been making her home in St. John's Newfoundland, for the past three years, was a guest of the meeting.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. D. Clifton Davis, the vice-president, Mrs. O. E. Selby, presided.

TO THE MORE THAN 16 MILLION PEOPLE WHO OWN CHEVROLETS

The first and the latest—the 1912 and the 1960 Chevrolet. The progress represented here is the result of continuing efforts to make your new Chevrolet always more beautiful, more useful and more valuable in every respect.

You belong to the largest family of owners in the automotive world. We hope you're proud of that. It must give you great satisfaction to know that your judgment in choosing Chevrolet has been confirmed by so many other people. We know that we can hold your preference and your loyalty only by meeting our responsibilities to you fully and completely from the day you buy your Chevrolet to the day you trade it in. And so we'd like to talk with you about our responsibilities as we see them, and what we are doing to meet them. Our first responsibility, we think, is clear: To design and build products that satisfy your needs and your wants to the highest possible degree. To that end, we have done these things for 1960: Made the 1960 Chevrolet more economical, roomier, more quiet and comfortable, easier to handle and maneuver. Introduced the compact and revolutionary Corvair. Produced a new line of Chevrolet trucks with unprecedented advances in efficiency, cargo handling, driver comfort and ability to get a job done. But it isn't enough to design and build the kinds of products you want. They must be built right. Solidly. Carefully. Let us assure you of this: Chevrolet's fine reputation as a solid, well-built, dependable product is being safeguarded by more checks and inspections and tests, than ever before. Along with your Chevrolet dealer, we want you to have available the finest and most complete service facilities. That is why we: Conduct training schools for Chevrolet dealer mechanics. Study and recommend improved service equipment and techniques. Maintain the industry's most complete parts warehouse system. Finally, neither Chevrolet nor your Chevrolet dealer has any intention of forgetting you after you buy. To help keep you happy with your Chevrolet, we have established a department new to us, and so far as we know, new to the automobile industry. This is the Chevrolet Department of Owner Relations, whose only job is the coordination of Chevrolet and Chevrolet dealer activities so that you enjoy utmost satisfaction during your entire period of ownership. Through this department, and through all the other extraordinary steps we are taking, Chevrolet and your Chevrolet dealer hope to keep you a happy member of the Chevrolet owner family.
